Jacklyn Bailey explains her project, "Becoming An LNA" during John Stark High School's Student Expo last Thursday.

Another dispute between Antrim officials

With their dispute over the potential wind farm on Tuttle Hill still simmering, the Antrim Planning Board and Selectmen have found a new issue to argue about. Both groups want a say in filling the town planner position, which has been vacant since Peter Moore resigned in April,.

Town Administrator Galen Stearns does not recommend replacing Moore, believing the planning assistant and clerical staff can handle the workload. However, Planning Board Chair Andrew Robblee told the Selectmen that his board wants the town planner position filled, as soon as possible, with the Planning Board taking the lead role. The Selectmen believe the final decision of the town planner is theirs, with recommendations from the Planning Board and Zoning Board of Adjustment. Chair Mike Genest said that the official town handbook states that the authority to hire and terminate town employees, ...lies with the Select Board.

New London hiring part-time Officers

Chief David met with the New London Selectmen to ask for more part-time police officers. Seastrand said that Geoff Daley is now gone. Jeff Downey left and is working for the Federal Government. Rick Kelley may need to get done for personal reasons, and Dave Croft doesn't know if he will be able to continue as he is retired and may be limited to the number of hours he will be allowed to work. They are in a dilemma where they need to start hiring some part-time officers. Seastrand said that officers have 30 days to gain employment after retiring or changing jobs before having to be recertified. There are two state police officers who are looking to retire who are local. He would like to be able to hire these individuals before their 30 days has passed. No minimum number of hours is required to be given to these officers, but they do need to be guaranteed a minimum number of training and firearms hours so they may keep their certification. The hours they are in training will count as their duty shift. Chair Kaplan said he was fine with these new hires, as they would not be getting paid any more than the officers who are leaving, or have already left.

Pataki - I am not a candidate - yet

Insisting he is not a Republican candidate for President, former New York Gov. George Pataki spoke at New England College in his capacity as founder and chairman of "No American Debt", an organization focused on raising awareness of the country's $14.3 trillion debt. "I'm not running now, but we'll see what happens over the course of the next month."

Pataki spoke as part of New England College's ECON 101 Town Hall Meeting series inviting political leaders to discuss their economic plans for America. Pataki had sharp words President Obama saying he has the worst fiscal record in the history of the country, and who refuses to address the nation's debt.

During the past year, Pataki served as chairman of "Reverse America," an organization seeking to repeal the President's health care reform law.

Hillsboro adopts employee contribution

Town employees from several departments were on hand to listen to the Hillsborough selectmen discuss plans to change the town's benefit package to require contributions by employee toward their health insurance costs. For some time the board had been considering requiring a 5% contribution toward the total cost of the insurance, but prior to taking a formal vote, selectman Russ Galpin suggested and alternative plan.

Under Galpin's plan the town would continue to pay 100% of an employee's individual plan. The employee would then pay 25% of the increased costs to cover a spouse and 50% of the increased cost of a family plan. Both selectmen Lou Ann Rousseau and Rob Buker felt the plan had merit but was too big a step to take initially. After discussion, the board voted 2-0, with Galpin abstaining, to adopt the 5% contribution limit. The board also voted unanimously to cut the insurance buyout in half from $7,500 to $3,750.

Antrim ZBA approves Tuttle Hill Tower

While the Selectmen and Planning board face off on the issue, The Antrim Zoning Board of Adjustment has granted a combined height and use variance on the Eolian Renewable Energy met tower on Tuttle Hill. Since November 2009, the met tower has been gathering wind speed and other weather-related data that would be used to determine if Eolian is interested in constructing a 10 turbine wind energy facility from Tuttle Hill to Willard Mountain.

The decision appeared to turn on whether members should consider the potential of a wind energy facility or focus only on the met tower's ability to meet the criteria. ZBA Chair John Kendall argued it was wrong to completely separate the met tower from the proposed wind farm turbines and urged the board deny the variance. However, most of the board agreed with Town Counsel Matt Serge of Upton & Hatfield LLP who sent a letter to the board saying that the ZBA should not consider any evidence for the impact of a future wind energy facility when considering a variance for the met tower.

NEC professor sent to jail

A former New England College professor will spend a year in jail for endangering the welfare of a 12-year-old Concord girl after using her picture to solicit men in internet chat rooms. Waco Worley, 39, of Concord also pleaded guilty to three counts of child pornography and received suspended prison sentences on those felony charges. Worley was hired-by New England College in 2005 and was an assistant professor of political science. He lost his job when he turned himself in to the police in September.

Scott Dias, representing the Henniker Chamber of Commerce, met with the selectmen to volunteer the Chamber's services to install electrical power to the Angela Bobinson Bandstand. The selectmen gratefully accepted the gift of nearly $5,000 in labor and materials.

Henniker Chamber electrifies bandstand

On Saturday June 4, 2011 various Henniker Chamber of Commerce members bring their skills together to electrify the Angela Robinson Band Stand in Community Park on Main Street. The brain child of board members Scott Dias (Scott Dias Custom Builders) and Jerry Gilbert (Moonlight Electric), this project pulls together Henniker Directional Drilling (HDD) for unique drilling techniques, Connor Backhoe for some muscle and Terra Design Landscapes to put on the finishing touches. Since the band stand was built 5 years ago, the audio equipment for concerts was powered by extension cords run across the park. With this project, unsightly and unsafe cords will be a thing of the past. Come out and see our volunteers at work; HDD and Connor Backhoe will be using equipment inquiring minds will want to see in operation. The digging and boring is set to start at 7 am. Or come out to the first concert to enjoy the result.

Sunapee holds successful GreenUp Day

Road Agent Tony Bergeron and a group of 160 volunteers gathered at the Safety Services Building for the annual Sunapee GreenUp Day. In about three hours they collected 350 bags of trash. Bergeron and his crew also planted 800 daffodil bulbs, donated by New Hampshire The Beautiful. At the end of the day, volunteers were treated to a picnic at the ben Mere Bandstand.

Antrim Planning Board vows to fight on

Refusing to accept the selectmen's decision to deny the use of town funds to pay for an attorney to advocate the board's position at the New Hampshire Site Evaluation hearings, the Antrim Planning Board has decided to use private funds to oppose the SEC's jurisdiction over the proposed Eolian Renewable Energy wind project.

At its Thursday meeting, the board held a non-public session with Attorney Silas Little to discuss his role in the SEC process. Little has not yet received any payment for his services, but although the funds are not now available, would support the Planning Board during the SEC hearings.

Calling it "dirty and slimy," Planning Board Chairman Andrew Robblee denounced members Charles Levesque and Martha Pinello for providing Little with written testimony for the SEC hearings without notifying Robblee or other board members.

Alternate Steve Schacht called the actions by the two board members "deceptive" and said that it showed they don't care about working with the board as a whole.

Both Pinello and Levesque apologized for their actions while members Jesse Lazar and David Dubois admitted knowing of Pinello and Levesque's actions. Lazar went so far as to say he would not go out of his way to share information with board members who support the SEC takeovet. Selectman John Robertson felt that those actions were done "behind the back" of the rest of the board and the attorney should be working with the chair of the board.

Hillsborough's infamous "Bridge To Nowhere" has now received it's official NH Historical Marker.

Stark principal reverses prom decision

After receiving negative publicity over a decision to keep anyone age 21 or older from attending the John Stark Regional High School junior-senior prom, school officials then asked all prom-goers to bring photo identification to the event. Earlier, Principal Chris Mosca decided to not allow anyone over the legal drinking age as a date of any student.

Mosca now says that students will not all be checked at the door, but staff members may ask them to produce an ID during the event.

Extremely low doses of the drug lenalidomide can stimulate the body's immune-cell protein factories, which decrease production during aging, and rebalance levels of several key cytokines–immune proteins that either attack viruses and bacteria or cause inflammation that leads to an overall decline in health according to a study published in the journal Clinical Immunology.

A study in the Journal of Cardiovascular Pharmacology and Therapeutics offers the first data in humans to show that all doses of aspirin increase nitric oxide. Nitric oxide is released from the blood vessel wall and may decrease the development and progression of plaques leading to heart attacks and strokes. The American Heart Association recommends aspirin use for patients who have had myocardial infarction (heart attack), unstable angina, ischemic stroke (caused by blood clot) or transient ischemic attacks (TIAs or "little strokes"), if not contraindicated. This recommendation is based on a large body of evidence from randomized trials showing that aspirin reduces risks of heart attack, stroke and death from vascular disease. In primary prevention, aspirin prevents a first heart attack, but the data on stroke and vascular death are not yet conclusive.

State may close the Henniker District Court

State Senators and Representatives who represent towns serviced by the Henniker District Court and Family Division, have been told that the Court may be relocated and combined with the Concord District Court or court facilities in Newport, Franklin, Goffstown, Jaffrey, or Keene. The towns effected are Henniker, Warner, Sutton, and Bradford in Merrimack County; and Hillsborough, Deering, Windsor, Antrim, and Bennington in Hillsborough County.

Both last year and this year, the bureau of court facilities has had difficulty negotiating a lease for the Henniker District Court and Family Division, which rents a facility in Henniker. The landlord requested rent increases which the bureau of court facilities and the judicial branch believe to be unjustified. Last summer, it reached the point that tentative plans were made to move the court to the Concord District Court and Family Division facility on an emergency basis, but at the last minute, an agreement was reached for a one year lease. This year similar issues are occurring with regard to the lease which expires on August 31, 2011. In fact, the bureau of court facilities has issued a Request for Proposals for a new site for the court within its catchment area. At the present time, we do not know whether a new lease can be successfully negotiated or the RFP process will yield a viable site, so alternatives are being explored.

THE ONLY FLAG THAT DOESN'T FLY

Between the fields where the flag is planted, there are 9+ miles of flower fields that go all the way to the ocean. The flowers are grown by seed companies.
It's a beautiful place, close to Vandenberg AFB.
Check out the dimensions of the flag. The Floral Flag is 740 feet long and 390 feet wide and maintains the proper Flag dimensions, as described in Executive Order #10834.
This Flag is 6.65 acres and is the first Floral Flag to be planted with 5 pointed stars, comprised of White Larkspur. Each star is 24 feet in diameter; each Stripe is 30 feet wide. This flag is estimated to contain more than 400,000 Larkspur plants, with 4-5 flower stems each, for a total of more than 2 million flowers.

OPINION Letters to the Editor

Here is a letter my father wrote about Memorial Day and those who died serving this great country. My dad served and never forgot those many heroes. His name: George V. Hill, Sr. He died in 2007 just seven months after he wrote this.

Soon we will celebrate Memorial Day, formerly known as Decoration Day.

To my mind, this is not a day of celebration, but a day of solemn remembrances of those who made the supreme sacrifice in the name of freedom. It seems to me that Memorial Day has lost much of it's meaning while we talk about department store shopping sprees, visits to the mall, and outdoor picnics, all of course fitting and proper for any Saturday afternoon day of fun, but not for Memorial Day. Memorial Day is a day to hang out our flag, and to hear speeches honoring our brave soldiers from all wars from Valley Forge to Gettysburg to D-Day and Corregidor, and to the present day conflict in the Middle East.

True Americans have always answered the call of duty, and as they say we fight for mom, the flag, and apple pie, in other words, for freedom and a way of life we all cherish and love. I think of the brave airmen who flew the war torn skies over Europe in their Super Fortresses, risking all to keep America free, many of them never returning, some under crosses in far away lands. If these and other brave men and women who fought could speak from their graves, they might say to us today: "Enjoy the day, but please remember us, after all, it truly is our day."

Warner American Legion Post installs officers

Text by Richard L. Dahlgren, Photos by Kimberley Woodward

Joseph Whelehan, District 5, Senior Vice Commander, Department of NH, The American Legion, and his group of officers, installed the officers of Wilkins-Cloues-Bigelow-Pearson Post 39, in Warner on May 10, 2011. Assisting in the installation were: Tony Rabbia, Past Department Commander and current Department Parliamentarian, acting as Sgt-at-Arms, and Gerard LeDuc, District 5, Junior Vice Commander, acting as Chaplain. Whelehan noted that this installation was especially noteworthy for him as this is his home Post where he was Post Commander a number of years ago.

Officers installed were: Charles Trowbridge, Commander; John Godkin, Sr. Vice Commander; Robert Godkin, Jr. Vice Commander; Richard Dahlgren, Adjutant; John Wallace, Finance Officer; Philip Stockwell, Chaplain; John Blake, Service Officer; and Theodore Young, Sgt-at-Arms.

Visiting Department officers included Tony Rabbia; Donald Moscowitz, Department Vice Commander and George West, Past Department Commander and current Vice Chairman of the National Internal Affairs Commission.

District 5 officers included Richard Dahlgren, Public Information Officer, Joseph Whelehan and Gerard LeDuc.

Following the installation, the visiting District and Department officers made appropriate remarks and extended their best personal wishes to the new slate of officers for their forthcoming term of office.

A reception with refreshments was held for the officers, visiting dignitaries and members.

Greenfield approves Tower

It took nearly a year, but the Greenfield Planning Board has now approved a 90-foot AT&T cell tower on Zephyr Lake Road, with certain conditions that must be met within another year. At Monday's Planning Board meeting, the motion passed by a 4-1 vote, with Myron Steere casting the only vote opposed.

The most debated condition related to the steep slope of the driveway leading to the cell tower. At its May 9th meeting, the board discussed a waiver on the driveway regulation requested by the applicant, Florida Tower Part. ners, LLC. Town regulations state that no driveway greater than 19 percent will be permitted.

Bradford Selectmen OK "Ryan's Way"

The Bradford Selectmen held a public hearing on the naming of the boat landing road to "Ryan's Way" in honor of Ryan E. Bishop. The naming will accomplish two important things. 1. It will identify more clearly the road to the boat launch for 9-1-1 purposes. 2. It will honor the memory of Ryan Bishop, who for the last five years was a Lake Host at the boat landing. It was stated that the Massasecum Lake Association will cover the cost of the signage. After a short discussion, it was approved.

BOY'S BASEBALL

Monadnock 5 Hillsboro-Deering 3
Robert Armstrong pitched and gave up only 5 hits in his six innings but the Huskies took and early 4-0 lead thanks to 3 unearned runs. Kevin Gidari was 2 for 3 at the plate.

Conant 9 Hillsboro-Deering 5
Kevin Gidari was 2 for 2 with 2 walks, Mickey Hofstetter was 2 for 4 and Harry Legier pitched well but 5 unearned runs cost the Cats any chance of a win.

Hopkinton 7 Hillsboro-Deering 0
All hopes of a Hillcat win to end the season were dashed by Sam Bonifant's brilliant no-hitter. Two walks and a hit batter were all that prevented a perfect game.

Somersworth 12 Hopkinton 11
The Hawks gave the undefeated Hilltoppers a run for their money. Hopkinton scored 9 runs in the seventh to take an 11-8 lead but Somersworth came back to tie the game and won it when Hopkinton walked in the winning run with the bases loaded.

Hanover 10 John Stark 0
Steve Johnstone and Brad Hanson had the General's only hits as Stark couldn't muster any offense.

ConVal 4 Milford 2
Trailing 2-1 in the fifth, the Cougars scored 3 runs to take the lead.

Hollis-Brookline 9 ConVal 4
The Cougars managed 9 hits but committed too many errors to take a win.

Newport 12 Conant 9

Mascenic 5 Newport 3
Josh Stout had an RBI triple and Ben Bates was 2 for 4 but it wasn't enough.

Lebanon 10 Kearsarge 9
Jimmy Commerfords double scored a pair in the top of the seventh to take a 9-7 lead only to surrender 3 in the bottom of the inning.

Sunapee 13 Moultonborough 12

Hopkinton 15 Kennett 3
Billy French tallied 5 goals and 3 assists with Brooks Wood adding 4 goals and an assist.

Hopkinton 13 Kingswood 5
Brooks Wood equaled the entire Kingswood output with 5 goals of his own. Billy French added a pair of goals and 4 assists to the win.

GIRL'S SOFTBALL

Conant 13 Hillsboro-Deering 1
Jocelyn Butler hit a double and scored but that was the extent of the Hillcat offense.

Newport 26 Hillsboro-Deering 14
With H-D trailing 23-10 this game was initially suspended in the fourth inning. The continuation changed little.

Mascoma 5 Newport 4
Mindy Carl threw a good game but was done in by Mascoma's no-hitter.

Stevens 12 Newport 6
The Tigers led 2-1 early but couldn't match Steven's experience.

Leading only 3-1 in the fourth inning, the Hawks plated 7 more to break the game open. Kara McCluskey allowed only 4 hits all day.

Hopkinton 8 Somersworth 5

Warner selectmen study several regional services

Warner selectman Clyde Carson and David Hartman will be attending a Joint Board meeting this evening in New London and Chairman Carson asked if the Board is in agreement that he can initiate discussion regarding the sharing of resources, particularly the street sweeper. Selectman David Karrick is in favor of such a discussion and Selectman Hartman feels it is reasonable to bring up the topic.

Hartman also said that he was contacted by Mr. Keller in Bradford about potential regional police services. Hartman feels the Board should keep thinking about regionalization relative to the new Fire Department. Hartman also reported that representatives from Market Basket attended the Planning Board meeting with a plan to add a 200 seat restaurant and 3 other retail stores.
