Three New London lifeguards save drowning woman

Quick action by three teenage lifeguards saved the life of a woman swimming at Elkins Beach in late July. The Lifeguards had been watching the woman swim laps in the water when she suddenly become lifeless and face-down.

The primary rescuer, Ryan Pasculano, 18, assisted by Patrick Moore, 16, and John Bryck, 17, pulled her from the water.

In addition to rescuing her, they were able to maintain a sense of calm on the beach, evacuate the water, create an appropriate perimeter around the patient which allowed easy and direct access to the patient by EMS, comfort and support the patient, and maintain professional composure.

New Highway Department truck stirs debate in Weare

Richard Butt and Frank Campana approached the Weare Selectmen with concerns about the purchase of a vehicle for the Highway Department. Butt's concern is that he does not think it is an existing vehicle, it was not voted on by the voters, and was not voted on by the Board to be added to the fleet. The vehicle is not on the CIP list of vehicles for the Highway Department. A new vehicle would need a separate article on the warrant. Butt feels that it is ridiculous to authorize money from the operating budget to purchase the vehicle. It is an additional vehicle and should go before the voters.

Campana also has an issue with the Selectmen approving money from the operating budget to purchase a pickup truck for the Highway Department. He said that this is a dangerous trend because any department head can come to the Board and request any item, whether a long term commitment or not, and if they can find the money in their operating budget the Board will approve it. Mr. Campana noted that Vice Chairman Lacasse stated that it was to go before the voters and Selectman Lawton raised the issue of a future request to replace the $10k truck with a $40k truck. Campana also said that the Board hired a Deputy Police Chief and personnel typically goes through the voters and the Board approved an additional vehicle, which typically goes through the voters. The Board set the precedence 5-0 and now it will be hard to build voters trust. He is disappointed and hopes the word gets out to the voters. Tim Redmond, Director of Public Works, told the Board that he has not done anything regarding the pickup truck and it will remain that way until he is advised otherwise.The Board decided to hold on the pickup truck purchase for the Highway Department.

New London paving to proceed

Public Works Director Richard Lee met with the New London Selectmen to discuss a recent letter from Old Coach Road resident Allen Koop asking that the road be omitted from the list of gravel road scheduled to be repaved.

Lee reported that several years ago he created a "Gravel Road Report Card" prioritizing the town's gravel road that needed to be repaired and or paved. Old Coach Road has now come to the top of the list and is scheduled to be paved in September.

Because of its heavy traffic, he has received many complaints over safety and maintenance issues from residents and he is convinced that a great majority support the paving. After a short discussion the Board decided to pave Old Coach Road as scheduled. Town Administrator Kim Hallquist was asked to contact Mr. Koop and explain the reasons for their decision.

Rotary District Governor Rich Berryman.

Rotary District Governor visits Hopkinton Club

Rotary District Governor Rich Berryman spoke before the Hopkinton Rotary Club on August 6th and stressed the importance of improving public relations and membership.

He stated that Rotary does a great deal in the local and international communities, but many clubs tend to keep it a big secret. We also need to seek out new members, particularly younger ones. Governor Rich will be speaking to all 59 Rotary clubs in District 7870 in Southern NH and VT between now and October.

He is a retired dentist and is a member of the Concord Rotary Club.

Three teens killed, a fourth seriously hurt

A recent Stevens High School graduate and two incoming seniors were killed in a crash in Unity Sunday morning. A fourth was hospitalized in critical condition at Dartmouth-Hithcock Medical Center in Lebanon. Brittany Bailey, 18, of Claremont died at the scene, police said, as did two 17-year-olds — Brandon Rock and Jonathan Varnum Jr. Selena Carrier, 17, of Claremont, is in fair condition at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center. Police said the black 1997 Saab 9000 was traveling northbound on West Unity Road at a high rate of speed when the driver lost control, striking a tree and splitting the Saab in two separate pieces. State Police said it does not appear that drugs or alcohol were factors.

The DoBro's at Warner's Mitchell Park

Music in the Jim Mitchell Community Park! Saturday, August 16, 6 pm to 9 pm. Bring your family, friends and kids out for a summer night of music to Main Street Warner. Successful fundraising has led to the lights and sound system being installed for the MainStreet Warner Stage. Come on out for a "test run" concert on Saturday, August 16 from 6 pm to 9 pm. The hillside has been reseeded, watered all spring and summer using the Greenleaf rainwater-collection irrigation system, and is finally in good form to welcome visitors. Folks are encouraged to bring a picnic dinner from The Local, or Charlie Mac's, spread out their blankets, and enjoy the music of Warner's own band, The DoBro's. The DoBro's, a blend of rock, folk, bluegrass and farmer Funk! Free to the public, and pass-the-hat donations appreciated.

Final Deering Summer Concert Aug 24th

"Accents and Attitudes: Voices of Broadway's Leading Ladies" is the title of the final summer concert at the Deering Community Church on Sunday, August 24 at 3:00 pm. The performance will be done by Concord Community School faculty members Ellen Nordstrom, mezzo-soprano, and Kathryn Southworth, piano. You will be entertained with such chestnuts as "Just You Wait" from My Fair Lady and "I Cain't Say No" from Oklahoma, which show off Ms. Nordstrom's command of accents raging from Cockney England to rural Oklahoma. The concert is free with donations always welcomed.

Henniker sets deadline for removal of hazardous dilapidated building

Sparked by multiple complaints by several of Carl Hamel's neighbors, the Henniker Selectmen conducted a lengthy discussion on whether to issue a order for the immediate removal of the remains of Hamel's house at 177 Tanglewood Lane.

Hamel's roof collapsed due to a heavy snow load on February 21st and little progress has been made in removing the debris and cleaning the site. Hamel calmly explained that because of his age, health and income he could neither work faster or hire additional help as he tried to salvage windows, doors and building materials at the same time he demolished and removed debris.

Members of the board and some neighbors in attendance urged him to hire a demolition contractor but Hamel said he could not afford the $20,000 he believed a contractor would cost. During the discussion, it was revealed that a demolition permit with the required fencing had not been secured. Hamel said he would immediately comply and asked the Board to give him until the end of October to complete the cleanup. On the suggestion of Vice Chair Leo Aucoin, the Board issued an order that the works be completed by the end of September, the area be fenced, progress reports be given at each selectmen's meeting, and if further progress was not being sustained the deadline would be advanced.

Carl Hamel's roof collapsed on February 21, 2014.

Jim Coffey won't go away

Former Town Administrator Jim Coffey requested that the Hillsborough Selectmen talk in non-public session about his previous arrest and subsequent acquittal. Coffey stated that he would like to avoid suing the Town for wrongful arrest, but believed that the arrest was malicious prosecution and he had incurred expenses. It was decided that the Board would seek council from the Town's attorney.

Selectmen deplore the condition of Center Road

In addition to presenting certificates to the students who graduated from the Teen Institute Summer Program, (see story on page 7), the Hillsborough Selectmen also approved John Penny and John Segedy as alternates to the Park Board. Both were approved by a 3-0 vote. Chairman David Fullerton expressed hope that this would eliminate meetings that had to be cancelled for lack of a quorum. The subject of the deplorable condition of Center Road twice became a topic of conversation. When Frank Edelblut of Wilton introduced himself as a candidate for Representative from District 38, Chairman Fullerton asked him if elected would he help convince the State to fix that road. He said that he was familiar with Center Road and agreed that it needed repairs.

Later in the meeting the matter of Center Road was again brought up and Chairman Fullerton discussed having a wide range of people send letters to our elected officials in Concord. He asked Selectman Baker-Brien to approach the teachers and other school personnel about having them write individual letters.

Responding to a request by the Administrative Assistant, Laura Buono, relaying the Library's request to have the elm and maple trees in front of the library cut down, the Selectmen voted 3-0 to approve the request. The elm tree is dying of Dutch Elm disease and the maple tree is dying from road salt.

The Selectmen approved a security camera system at the landfill in hopes of stemming the amount of vandalism.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

Treatment with the diabetes drug metformin appears to be associated with a modest reduction in body mass index (BMI) in obese children when combined with lifestyle interventions such as diet and exercise, according to a study published in JAMA Pediatrics. Childhood obesity is a health problem in the United States, with nearly 17 percent of children being obese. Metformin is approved by the Food and Drug Administration to treat type 2 diabetes in adults and children over 10 years old, but it has been used off-label in recent years to treat childhood obesity.

Paracetamol (acetaminophen) is the most commonly used medicine in pregnancy, yet there are very few studies that have investigated the possible long-term consequences for the child. A new study published in the International Journal of Epidemiology suggests that long-term use of paracetamol during pregnancy may increase the risk of adverse effects on child development. The study shows that children who had been exposed to paracetamol for more than 28 days of pregnancy had poorer gross motor skills, poor communication skills and more behavioral problems compared with unexposed siblings.

• • •

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Farxiga (dapaglifozin) tablets to improve glycemic control, along with diet and exercise, in adults with type 2 diabetes. Type 2 diabetes affects about 24 million people and accounts for more than 90 percent of diabetes cases diagnosed in the United States. Over time, high blood sugar levels can increase the risk for serious complications, including heart disease, blindness, and nerve and kidney damage.

New London Trust increased by $759,000

New London Selectboard Chair Janet Kidder announced at Tuesday's meeting that the Trustee of the Mary D. Haddad Trust had voted to turn over the corpus of the Trust to the Town of New London. When completed, the $759,700 will be administered by town's trustee of the Trust Funds. Kidder pointed out that although Haddad died over 30 years ago, she keeps on giving to the town she loved.

Kjellman wants improvements to streets

John Kjellman met with the Henniker Selectmen to discuss his concerns about the intersection of Prospect Street and Maple Street (State Route 114).

Armed with a packet of 20 photos showing his points, Kjellman believes the intersection has significant problems that were not addressed a few years ago when the drainage on the north side of Prospect Street from Maple Street to Rush Road was replaced, and the sidewalk rebuilt. He is asking that the Town fund an engineering study to redesign this intersection, then, in a reasonable time period, authorize and fund the necessary construction work to rebuild it.

Although sympathetic, the Board pointed out that Maple Street, as a state highway, is under the jurisdiction of the NH Department of Transportation, which is scheduled to make improvements to the area.

Plans for Peterborough Buddhist Temple

A plan for a Buddhist temple on Temple Mountain is expected to come before the Peterborough Planning Board in September. The proposed 3,200 square foot temple would accommodate up to 75 people for mostly Sunday prayer meetings and up to 20 people for week-long retreats. The Buddhist temple, to be named the Bao Chon Temple, would be built on an 11-acre property on Route 101 where the Temple Mountain Buddhist Meditation Center is already located. In its 2011 approval, the zoning board limited meditation service attendance to 30 people and 16 vehicles and prohibited the center to operate as an overnight retreat.

Hillsborough Selectmen honor outstanding Teen Institute grads

The Hillsborough Selectmen recognized Deviroux D'Errico (left), Ali Lester (center) and Shannon Thomes (right) for graduating from The Teen Institute Summer Program. Faith Murrey also graduated but was unable to attend Tuesday night's meeting. The program provided training in diversity, self-esteem, violence prevention and drug and alcohol education. Wendy Baker-Brien read the proclamation which in part stated that, "These students are leaders and role models and have been given skill, knowledge and training to make a positive difference in the school and community. We challenge young people to lead by example and hope that they can create a chain reaction."

Church to pave town road

Ron Taylor, representing Henniker Congregational Church, requested the Selectmen's approval to pave the town street that runs through the church's parking lot, when they repave the lot. It represents a donation to the town of about $4,000 to $4,600. The Board approved and Administrator Tom Yennerell added that the town may be able to improve drainage in the area as part of the project.

Franklin Pierce Lake Association learns about the lake's namesake

Recently the Franklin Pierce Lake Association had its annual meeting reviewing the business of the association with some 40 members and capped off the session with an informative and fun presentation by Alan Dobrowolski, Treasurer of the Hillsborough Historical Society who spoke about "Franklin Pierce and His Neighborhood" as well as treating those in attendance to complimentary information about Franklin Pierce and tickets to visit the Pierce Homestead.

"Alan was delightful and our FPLA board members had a chance to highlight their volunteer efforts to help keep our lake healthy and enjoyable for residents and guests," said FPLA President Frank Malinoski. "Our team provided details on our weed watcher and Lake Host programs, our annual water quality testing, membership efforts, and our financial status," remarked Treasurer Nancy Cone, adding "In fact, thanks to our fundraising at our Potluck Supper auction and our sales of 2014 and now 2015 wall calendars featuring photos taken by lake residents we are far ahead in funding our reserve fund established to treat any invasive plant infestation should we ever have to do so."

Alan Dobrowolski, standing, of the Hillsborough Historical Society gives FPLA members a history of Franklin Pierce.

Warner Selectmen establish Fire Station Committee

The Warner Selectmen reviewed the charge for the Fire Station Review and Assessment Committee. Town Administrator Jim Bingham suggested starting with the current design with the idea the design was completed for a 50- year life span; the committee could look at it from the perspective of what is needed for a 25 year life span. Selectman Brown said the Board also needs to determine how much money they want to spend.

The current design has a $3 million dollar price tag, guidelines need to be established. The thought process all along has been build what is needed for the next 15 – 20 years with room for expansion because it is truly unknown when and if the Fire Department will be a full time department. Bingham said the Committee could also look at if any of the properties will be able to handle a dual entrance facility. Selectman Brown said all the sites that were looked at will be able to accommodate dual entrances.

Chairman Hartman said a determination also needs to be made regarding the existing buildings; is it possible to use the current building in conjunction with the new one? Selectman Brown said the current building could be sold and if the Town keeps the building, items would need to be addressed that do not meet current codes.

The Board discussed the membership of the Committee, and decided that the Committee will be made up of a Selectmsn, Budget Committee member, Energy Committee member, 2 members from the Fire Department, Town Administrator and a member at large.

Bradford's Old Post Office building was successfully moved to its new location on East Main Street where the Historical Society hopes to create a historic village.

Marilinda Garcia - Take Another Look

Young, hispanic, female, just what the Republican party needs to destroy the democrats' stereotype of being the party of angry old white men. Yes, Marilinda Garcia makes an ideal candidate until you look a little deeper.

Garcia is a protage of former House Speaker Bill O'Brien, the very face of that stereotype and the reason voters turned against the Tea Party in 2012. She shares the same us or them mentality that dangerously divided the Republican party and caused O'Brien to lose a 3 to 1 majority in the NH House.

Garcia has no real world experience. She lives at home and has never held a job or gainful employment, going straight from college to college teaching to the NH House and has been a career politician ever since.

Most telling is the fact that Garcia has raised nearly 80% of her campaign money out of state from Washington special interest groups and lobbyists. Moreover, she refuses to take the "Wake Up Washington" pledge that promises:

- No more than 3 terms.
- Eliminate Congressional Pensions.
- No budget-No pay for Congress.
- No pay raise for Congress.
- No taxpayer funded mass mailings.

New Hampshire voters should take another look at Garcia. The facts are all there; If elected she will be nothing more than a Washington insider, career politician, owing her allegiance to the Pacs and Special Interest that fund her election campaigns. Haven't we seen enough of that?

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On August 10th, I saw Congresswoman Annie Kuster on WMUR attempting to discuss issues facing our country. One topic was the border crisis where millions of illegal aliens are invading our country. I disagree with her on every position she has taken, but I was truly shocked at one statement.

Kuster actually said, "our border is secure." How can anyone - even Kuster who previously was unaware Benghazi is in the Middle East - say that our border is secure? Does she not know that thousands of illegals flood into our southern states with little or no resistance? Does she never watch the news or read a paper? Is she that clueless?

Regardless of the issue, Annie Kuster either does not understand some of the real problems facing our nation - or does not care. Her zero record for town hall constituent meetings in her 2 years in Congress is an example of her obvious apathy.

Being qualified and having an understanding of situations - both domestically and abroad - should be a prerequisite for any Member of Congress regardless of political party. In test after test, Annie Kuster has failed on every occasion during her first term in Washington.

Dear Editor:

I support Dan Feltes for election to the State Senate, District 15, which includes the City of Concord and the Towns of Hopkinton, Warner, and Henniker, in the Tuesday, September 9, 2014 Primary Election. Dan has an outstanding record of support for civil rights, of all, including women, minorities, and immigrants. In addition, he can't get caught up in any Republican effort to distort the election process by claiming that Silvia Larsen's sudden "resignation," etc., was part of an effort by Democrats to rig this election.

Dan is an independent, stands on his own two feet, and has proven himself to be not only honest and straightforward, but independent in his thinking. Most recently, he was awarded the New Hampshire Bar Association's highest award for service to the public and profession, the Robert E. Kirby Award. It's not my place to tell anyone how to vote in the Primary on Tuesday, September 9, 2014 and General Election on Tuesday, November 4, 2014, but if I did have the honor of voting in Senate District 15, I'd open the red, white and blue curtain, take the grease pen attached by a tack to a string, and carefully fill out the oval next to which is the option, For State Senate, District 15, Dan Feltes."

Play by John Stark student debuts August 22

There will be a staged reading of the play I'm Still Alive on Friday, August 22 at 6 PM on the John Stark Regional High School stage. Admission is free and includes a talk back with the actors, director, and playwright after the performance. This original play was written by John Stark Senior Mackenzie Peacock as her capstone project. I'm Still Alive is a tragicomedy that examines the effects of bullying. Parents please note: there is profanity and may not be suitable for young children.

I'm Still Alive is a one-act play about a high school student named Will. Life has not been easy for this shy, awkward student. His best friend, Johnny, died in a car accident one year ago and without him, he suffers loneliness, and has no one to stand by him while he is bullied daily at school. Even though life has been a drag for Will, it gets exciting when Johnny returns to Will's life as a ghost, and their adventure begins.

Peacock has been working on her script since last winter and continues to make revisions as the cast, under the direction of John Stark Regional High School alumnus Zachary Peacock, has put the play on its feet in rehearsal this summer. She is also eager for audience feedback after this performance to help her revise the script further. She hopes to have it published and intends to submit it to a playwriting contest.

In addition to Zachary Peacock as director, the cast also includes John Stark alumnus Tim Mitchell and current John Stark students Garrison Gage, Jacob Goldsberry, Nancy Gregory, Mikayla Caterino, Alex Patten, Samantha LaLiberte, Sasha Balko, Victoria Bamford, and Tian Quinn.

Mackenzie Peacock (on right in blue) works with the cast of I'm Still Alive.

Major flooding damage closes several Washington roads

Washington had several roads closed Wednesday night due to flooding and road damage. NH State Route 31 at Smith Pond Rd. was closed at 5:15 last night due to flooding and remains closed at the Washington Windsor town line. The NH DOT has not given an estimate when they will reopen it. Town roads damaged during the storm were Baily Rd., Halfmoon Pond Rd., Beaver Brook Road, and Point Road. Town Officials say all town roads will be repaired and opened soon. In July of 2013 Washington received flood damage to eight roads and they were fixed the next day with the help of their highway department and volunteers.

Newbury also suffers flooding

Newbury had flooded roads on Wednesday night. The Newbury Police reported that Richards Rd had a wire and lines down and was closed at #86 until PSNH could check on it. Other roads flooded were South Road, Emily Lane, and Cheney Road. The police remind drivers if they see traffic cones out at various locations do not move them they are a warning there is road damage. The Highway Department is aware of the roads and will repair them. If there are any further concerns requiring immediate attention, please call the Newbury Dispatch at 603-763-2221.

Selectmen approve renovations at Hopkinton Station

Hopkinton Fire Chief Doug Mumford: Fire Chief Mumford updated the Board on his research for other housing options for firefighters, while the station is being renovated. He concluded renting an RV or apartment would be a very expensive way to go and will leave us with nothing; but spent money. He stated the cost to rent an RV is upwards of $4,500 a month.

He also looked at apartments in town, but has concerns with life safety issues, if renting an apartment. Mumford stated he believes the best solution and the best bang for the buck would be to renovate the Hopkinton Station for bunks and an office. It already has a kitchen, showers, etc.

He has spoken to the company that previously bid the job three years ago and they agreed to keep the price at the same rate. He further stated he had received a response to an e-mail he had sent to Bonnett, Page and Stone (BP&S) regarding costs of housing during renovations. It is Chief Mumford's understanding that BP&S will cover some of the expense to relocate.

He has received a quote from Air Cleaning Specialist of New England, LLC for a vent in the amount of $17,900 and a quote for Irish Electric to provide and install 30 AMP/208V Single Phase circuit, in the amount of $965.00. Total for exhaust vent would be $18,865.00.

The Board unanimously approved the proposed changes to the Hopkinton Station subject to cost reimbursement from Bonnett, Page and Stone.

They also approved the appropriation of $18,856.00 for the exhaust system at the Hopkinton Fire Station; the funds to be expended from the Fire Equipment Replacement Fund.

The Kimball Cabins circa 1940.

Help Save the Kimball Lake Cabins

Kimball Lake and its four log cabins are a familiar sight as you enter Hopkinton Village. But did you know that the lake is manmade and the cabins were originally guest houses? Unfortunately, the cabins have fallen into disrepair over the years and now need to have work done to address safety concerns.

Please consider making a tax-deductible donation and/or volunteering to help repair these historic cabins. Dating to the 1930s, the lake and cabins (see photo above) were the vision of Harold Kimball, a devoted fisherman, conservationist, and capitalist who grew up in Hopkinton. The property now belongs to the town and has been used for ice skating, kayaking, scouting events, and school field trips. In addition, in 2013 the walking trails around Kimball Lake were connected with other nearby trails to form the popular Hopkinton Village Greenway, a 4.5 mile greenbelt trail surrounding Hopkinton Village. Due to safety concerns, the cabins have been closed by the town.

A committee appointed by the selectmen has developed a multi-phase plan to repair the cabins; the first phase is renovating the porch of the largest cabin and making it handicapped accessible. A local group of skilled contractors and volunteers have generously agreed to provide the labor; however, $3,500 needs to be raised to pay for the materials. Work will begin as soon as the money is raised, and ideally, will be completed this fall. Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to help save an important part of our town's history. Send your tax-deductible donations to the Town of Hopkinton, 330 Main St., Hopkinton, NH 03229. Checks should be made out to "Town of Hopkinton" with "Kimball Lake Cabins" written on the memo line.

If you are interested in donating building materials or volunteering, contact Louise Carr at lmcarr03229@comcast.net or 746-3370. Thank you for your help.

Map of Henniker's hiking & biking trails

Toby Jutris of Henniker's Trail Committee met with the Selectmen seeking permission to publish the group's map of the trail network the group has identified for hiking and mountain bike riding. After a short discussion the Board approved with the notation that trails for ATV and snowmobiles can be located by contacting those groups. Members thanked and congratulated the group for their good work.

State has reopened Henniker's Long Pond

The cyanobacteria cell concentration in Long Pond, Henniker, NH, is below a level of public health concern. As a result, the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services (DES) has removed the cyanobacteria lake warning issued on August 6, 2014. Samples collected and examined August 8, 2014, had no visible signs of cyanobacteria in the samples.
