

Paula Poundstone brings her comedic brilliance to Concord

Comedienne, actress and author Paula Poundstone will return to Concord's Capitol Center for the Arts on Saturday, October 11, at 8pm with a fresh stand-up act.

Poundstone began nurturing her stand-up comedy talent in 1979 on the Boston comedy scene before moving to San Francisco. By 1990 she had moved to Los Angeles, starred in multiple HBO comedy specials and appeared on "Saturday Night Live." Poundstone was the first woman to receive a Cable ACE Award for a comedy special for her one-hour HBO special, "Cats, Cops, and Stuff." She received her second Cable ACE Award for her self-titled HBO talk show series.

Continuing with many successes throughout the 1990s, Poundstone starred in "The Paula Poundstone Show" on ABC, appeared in her second one-hour special on HBO titled "Paula Poundstone Goes to Harvard," and appeared on camera and as the voice of characters in several television shows including: "Cybill," "Science Court," "Hercules" and "Home Movies." In 2007, she appeared in a BRAVO comedy special, "Paula Poundstone: Look What the Cat Dragged In." Poundstone is the recipient of an Emmy® Award for her field pieces on the PBS program "Life & Times" and most recently appeared in the television documentary "Why We Laugh: Funny Women."

Poundstone is a regular panelist on NPR's weekly quiz program "Wait Wait . . . Don't Tell Me," where her impeccable timing is key to the show's format. She has written several magazine articles, including five years of writing the back page column in "Mother Jones," and has authored multiple books, including "There's Nothing In This Book That I Meant To Say." Her first comedy CD, "I HEART JOKES: Paula Tells Them In Maine," was released in 2009. Her most recent comedy CD titled "I HEART JOKES: Paula Tells Them In Boston," was released in 2013. Both are available at www.paulapoundstone.com.

Canterbury Shaker Village now registering for Fall Workshops

All classes require advance registration. Classes are still being added. For a full schedule, please visit www.shakers.org.

Culinary Arts Workshops

Three demonstration style cooking classes— Chowders on September 7, Fresh Pasta on October 19, and Stews and Braised Dishes on November 16—are offered in partnership with Lakes Region Community College Culinary Arts program, which operates out of the Shaker Table at Canterbury Shaker Village. The classes will be instructed by the Culinary Arts Program Director, Chef Patrick Hall and are $25 for Village Members, $27.50 for Not-Yet-Members. The workshops will be held from 1:00-3:00 pm.

Herbal Workshops

Maria Noel Groves, a clinical herbalist based in Allenstown, NH will host Shaken, Not Stirred: Herb and Fruit Cordials on November 1 from 10:00 am-12:00 pm and the cost is $45.00 for Village Members and $49.50 for Not-Yet-Members. She will also lead a Do-it-yourself Herbal Holiday Bodycare Gifts workshop on Saturday, November 22 from 10:00-12:30pm. The cost to attend is $45.00 for Village Members and $49.50 for Not-Yet-Members.

History

On October 4, Mark Stevens will lead A Walk Back in Shaker History, a guided hike through the woods to one of the old Shaker maple sugar camps. Participants will explore the foundation ruins/remnants of the sugar house, barn, outbuildings, well, etc. and compare the remnants at the site to historic old photos of the sugar camp when it was functioning at its prime. The workshop will be held from 9:00-12:00pm and the cost to attend is $10.00 for Village Members and $12.50 for Not-Yet-Members.

Healing Arts

New this year are two Healing Arts workshops instructed by Patricia Wild. The Healing Power of Art will be held on October 19 from 1:00-3:00pm. The workshop is an opportunity for participants to explore their inner self and their creative potential. Nurturing Caregivers through Art will be held on Sunday, November 2 from 1:00-3:00pm. The cost of each workshop is $50.00 for Village Members and $55.00 for Not-Yet-Members.

Health

Dr. Amanda K. Hegnauer will conduct the three part lecture series, "A Naturopathic Biochemical Tune-Up," that includes sessions on Optimal Body Weight and Composition, Adrenal Health and Thyroid health. The sessions will be held on September 27, October 18 and November 8 from 9:30-12:00pm respectively. The per class fee is $15.00 for Village Members and $16.50 for Not-Yet-Members.

Shaker Crafts

Popular Village demonstrators Jim McNab and Everett Bailey will be offering traditional Shaker craft workshops in letterpress and broom making respectively. McNab's one day letterpress workshop on Saturday, September 27 from 9:30-4:30pm will allow participants to set up and print their own project on a hand fed 19th century platen printing press. The cost to attend is $77.50 for Village Members and $85.00 for Not-Yet-Members. During Everett Bailey's one day broom making workshops on September 14 from 9:30-4:30pm, he will guide participants in the skill of basic broom making. At the end of this workshop, each participant will take home a completed Shaker style broom that offers something out of the ordinary. The cost to attend is $75 for Village Members and $82.50 for Not-Yet-Members.

Advanced registration is required and interested participants can find more details and sign up at www.shakers.org, by calling (603) 783-9077 ext 284 or emailing education@shakers.org.

Six great ways to scare your pants off in Mt Washington Valley, NH

Ignite your inner zombie as we scare up a monstrously wild time throughout the weeks leading up to Halloween in Mt Washington Valley, NH. It's time for BOOt Camp in this little corner of New Hampshire, where everything from ghouls to zombies roam the hills and country side at Halloween time. There are plenty of spirits still hanging around our historic haunted hotels and inns where ghosts knock from inside walls, so come and sleep with a ghost or scream to your heart's content in our frightfully scary boo-doors. Here's plenty of bloodcurdling fun no matter how old or young a believer you are.

September 27: Night Terrors 5K run at Cranmore Mountain & Ghoulog Kick Off Bash: The return of Night Terrors "You Can Run But You Can't Hide" 5k Haunted Run happens on Saturday, September 27 starting at 7:30pm. The 3.1 mile course begins at the base area of Cranmore Mountain Resort. The roads of the surrounding community will be transformed with multiple haunt stations featuring the Ghoulog's favorite characters and scares. All participants will receive a limited edition event t-shirt, glow stick, Jogonalite "Froglite" L.E.D. light, and Finisher's Award. Racers are encouraged to dress in costume. This race was recently awarded Editors Pick in NH Magazine's Best of NH 2014 for Healthy Horror. Newly added to the event this year is the Ghoulog Kick Off Party, held in the Bloody Noose Pub (Zip's Pub and Grille) starting at 5:00pm. The kickoff party is open to competitors and the public and will include DJ, full service restaurant and pub offerings, special appearances from the cast of the Ghoulog and Angry Orchard promotion and sampling. Register online here: <http://nightterrors5k.com/>.

October 3, 4, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 24, 25, 26, 31, November 1: The Ghoulog at Cranmore Mountain: The Ghoulog, now in its 8th season, transforms Cranmore Mountain Resort into the perfect thrilling Halloween setting that will spark fright to those mighty enough to brave the chilling scene. The approximate 60 minute haunt features over 15,000 square feet of indoor space through a series of dark rooms, scary mazes and unknown places, plus an outdoor element which leads the unsuspecting through the dark woods with all of the scares and screams you've come to expect from this Halloween adventure. Plus, Cranmore's 2,000 foot summit offers Halloween marauders breathtaking night-time views of the Moats, Mount Washington and the village of North Conway, NH. Additionally, "The features unlimited rides on Cranmore's Mountain Coaster, Giant Swing and Soaring Eagle Zipline, all of which will receive a Halloween-themed face lift offering a unique night-time experience with special lighting, effects and the occasional ghost or ghoul when you least expect it. Then plan to visit the Bloody Noose Pub, a fully-licensed facility serving up brews, libations and a menu featuring favorites from the grill. The Ghoulog is for ages 10+. Ticket prices vary depending upon date and what is included. For complete ticket information, visit <http://www.cranmore.com/ghoulog/dates/>. Also note: Sunday, October 26th is Local's Night where residents of Carroll, Coos & Oxford counties; enjoy special discounted rates. Saturday, November 1st is The Ghoulog Lights OUT- you will be given a glow stick to navigate your way through the haunt. Full info: <http://www.cranmore.com/ghoulog>.

October 30: Psycho Bash Halloween Party at the Ghollog, Cranmore Mountain: Join the cast of the Ghoulog for the Psycho Bash Halloween Party at the Bloody Nose Pub. For Halloween howlers 21 years and older, get your best costume and enjoy live music, prizes, specials and more. Please note: The Ghoulog is not scheduled to operate this night. Info: <http://www.cranmore.com/ghoulog/dates/>.

Oct 24, 25, 31, Nov 1: Murder Mystery Dinner Train: Dust off your bell bottoms, platform shoes and disco balls and get ready to get down tonight for an adult-only night of groovy murder mystery at Club 54, the trendiest dinner club this side of "Funky Town." You're all going for a ride on the "Love Train" where "Stayin' Alive" will be the order of the night as the drama unfolds and murder "Turns The Beat Around." Who dies? Who did it? Who figures it out and who will be around for the "Last Dance"? It's up to you and others who help solve the murder mystery to solve ▶

Halloween news from Mt Washington Valley, NH

Six family friendly halloween events that won't scare...too much! North Conway, NH – Here are five family-friendly Halloween events to which you won't be afraid to bring any size kid or adult.

5th Annual Halloween Town at Camp Tohcomeupog - October 25: Starting at 3:00pm this East Madison boy's camp is transformed into a Halloween happening kind of place. There will be a food court, bouncy house, face painting and kid carnival games. The "Halloweenie Walk" is designed for younger children. Older children will enjoy the Trick or Treat Trail from 4:00-8:00pm with a little more adventurous route; flashlights and appropriate footwear are recommended. This event benefits the Laura Foundation for Autism and Epilepsy. Info: <http://halloweentown.thelaurafoundation.org/>.

Return of the Pumpkin People, October 1-31: Nearly 75 businesses throughout Mt Washington Valley will create "pumpkin people" displays, each utilizing at least one pumpkin in a sometimes scary but mostly whimsical display to celebrate Halloween. This year the tour has been extended throughout the entire month of October. Info: www.jacksonnh.com/event/81/Return-of-the-Pumpkin-People.

October 18, 25: Silly Spooky Halloween Extravaganza at Santa's Village: Santa is busy gearing up for the holidays, so he's left the park to the Silly Nilly Witch of the North, who will be on board to stir up her own spooky brew and some Halloween fun.

Santa's Village will be transformed into a magical Halloween adventure the two Saturdays before Halloween. Admission for the entire day is $24.00 per person. This includes all the rides and festivities for the day. Last ticket will be sold 2 hours before closing. Info: http://www.santasvillage.com/public/seasons_and_events/events/halloween.cfm.

Pumpkin Patch Express, October 17, 18, 19, 24, 25, 26: Special Halloween trains travel to the "Pumpkin Patch" (White Mountain Cider Company in nearby Glen), where everyone gets off the train, and each child gets to pick out their own pumpkin. All departures are from the North Conway Station. Departures that travel directly to the Pumpkin Patch leave at 1:30pm, Friday-Sunday, with an extra 3:00pm departure on Saturday only. The 11:30am Bartlett Valley Train also stops at the Pumpkin Patch on its return to North Conway. Kids under 4 ride free in coach. Tickets and info: <http://conwayscenic.com/events/event/pumpkin-patch-express/>.

Haunted Happenings at Settlers' Green Outlet Village, Saturday, Oct 25, 10am-2pm: While Mom conjures up some of the most chilling deals at name brand outlet stores here the kids are finding their own great deal. Free candy! There will be Halloween treats for all costumed characters up to age 11 at stores throughout Settlers' Green. Info: www.Settlersgreen.com.

October 31: Trick or Treat Sweet Street, Jackson Village, NH: Visit Jackson on Halloween from 4:00-6:00pm and you'll find a safe old fashioned community trick or treat Block Party for children 13 and under, accompanied by their parents or guardian. Children will stroll through designated businesses on Main Street and collect goodies from displays at local businesses and families, and then register their spooky carved pumpkin in the "Spooky Carved Pumpkin contest. Afterward, join the Spooktacular Costume Parade and play follow the leader through town. Stay warm by the harvest bonfire, drink cider and enjoy some old fashioned "Trick or Treat" fun. Info: www.jacksonnh.com/event/82/Sweet-Street. For more information go to www.mtwashingtonvalley.org.

7th Annual NH Fall Festival & Chili Cook-off

Portsmouth, New Hampshire (September 11, 2014) – What do rare historic breeds of animals, basket makers, sheep dog demonstrations, and chili have in common? They are all featured at the New Hampshire Fall Festival taking place on October 11, 2014 at Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth.

The 7th annual New Hampshire Fall Festival – named a “Best of NH Editor’s Pick” – is presented in collaboration with Prescott Park’s Chili Cook-Off. The festival celebrates harvest time and gives visitors a chance to experience four centuries of traditional home and farm harvest festivities and the feel of an old time New England country fair. Prescott Park’s famous Chili Cook-Off adds to the fun and excitement as well as providing great food for festival visitors. For one ticket price, $17.50 for adults and $6 for kids 5-12 (free under 5), visitors enjoy a full day’s worth of unique entertainment, exciting activities, and the best chili the Seacoast has to offer.

The New Hampshire Fall Festival features live demonstrations of a wide variety of historic crafts and trades including: basket making, 18th century hearth cooking, weaving, furniture making, coopering, blacksmithing and many more traditional crafts demonstrations. The festival will also feature demonstrations on textile crafts and fiber arts, fiber preparation and spinning as well as wool sorting, dyeing, and spinning.

The green space at Puddle Dock hosts farm animals and livestock demonstrations throughout the day including: sheep dog demonstrations, hand shearing of sheep, working oxen teams, sheep, rabbits and more.

Completing its focus on the harvest season, Strawberry Banke gives guests the opportunity to talk to master gardeners and horticulture experts about herbs, seed collecting and heirloom/heritage varieties preserved by the museum and to tour the eight historic gardens on the 10-acre grounds. Programs in the lush museum gardens include Victory Garden details, family activities on the Victorian games lawn and in the Children’s Garden, and period garden crafts with the museum’s garden role-player.

A wide variety of talented New Hampshire craftspeople and artisans will be featured at the fall festival as well and will be displaying and selling their works. In addition to the Chili Cook-Off, local food vendors will also be on hand to provide great food and drink throughout the day for this “don’t miss” fall event. For more information, please visit www.StrawberryBanke.org or call 603-433-1100.

'Ghosts on the Banke' returns to Strawberry Banke

October 24 & 25, 6:00–8:00pm

Trick-or-Treat safely from house to historic house! Portsmouth, New Hampshire (September 11, 2014) – Strawberry Banke Museum's annual Ghosts On the Banke event is an old-fashioned Halloween celebration meant for younger children and their parents. Focused on safe trick or treating, house to house on the 10-acre museum grounds, Ghosts On the Banke calls on the history of the long-dead sea captains, 17th-century shopkeepers, and wayward pirates whose memories haunt the streets and houses of "Olde Portsmouth."

Carved and candlelit jack o'lanterns line the paths. Eerie lights glow in the orchards and strange silhouettes appear in the windows. Explore the tricky maze and gather treats, then join the New Orleans-style costume parade. Ghosts On the Banke is presented on Friday, October 24 and Saturday, October 25, from 6 to 8 pm. Tickets are $8 (children under 1, free.) Purchase ticket in advance on the Strawberry Banke website, HYPERLINK "http://www.strawberybanke.org" www.strawberybanke.org

EVENT ACTIVITIES

Trick-or-Treat Safely: Jack-O-Lanterns light the way, creating flickering shadows of the Ghosts of the Banke, for children trick-or-treating safely from house to historic house. Discover pirate treasure. Visit with a wacky witch, or have your fortune told.

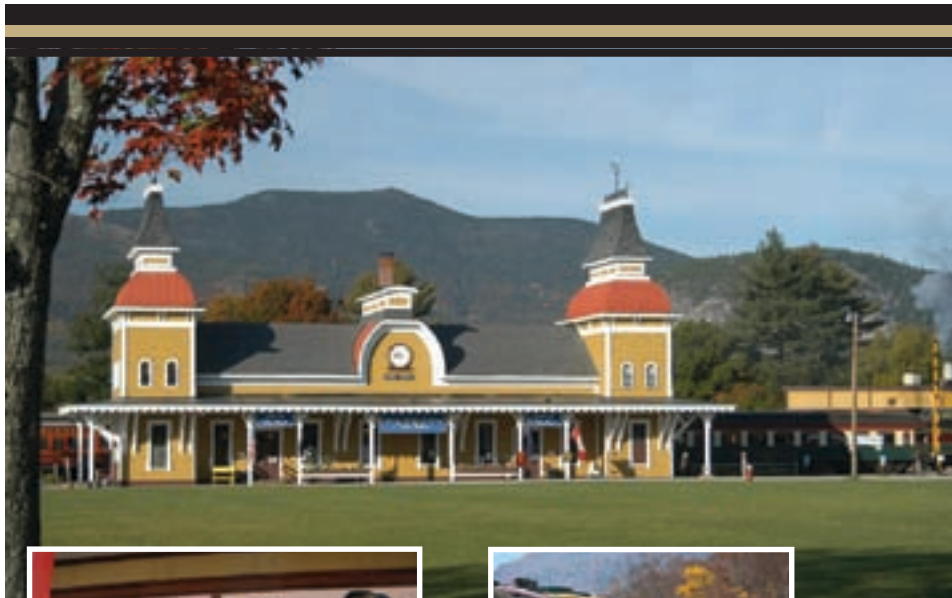

Catch a Ghostly Tale! Community members present spooky plays and interactive improvisational skits that bring the history of Puddle Dock to life.

The Great Bonfire: Celebrate the most ancient of Halloween traditions and warm your weary bones by the All Hallows Bonfire.

Pickwick's at the Banke: Step back through time in the new store on Museum grounds (43 Atkinson Street). Decorated for Halloween, visitors experience all sorts of magic happening inside.

Birds in the Hand

10/4/2014 (8:00AM) Event Fee: $25/ membership
 Let's face it: binoculars can only bring birds so close. Wouldn't it be great to hold six grams' worth of colorful feathers in your hand, just once? In October, you may be lucky enough to do just that, by apprenticing yourself to a scientist who is trained to band migratory birds. Longtime bird-bander Jay Barry will give us an introduction to the science behind bird-banding and show us how it's done in practice. He'll bring us along to check his mist nets, where we may find migrant sparrows such as Song, Swamp, Lincoln's, Savannah, and Dark-eyed Junco, and even such uncommon visitors as the Blue Grosbeak. Odiorne State Park, where his banding station is based, is the perfect place to look for late migrant songbirds this time of year. We'll meet at the Seacoast Science Center in Rye at 8:00 a.m. sharp, and from there walk out along the coast to the banding blind. Bring your binoculars, and your questions! Odiorne State Park, Rye, NH Phone: 603-525-3572

You might be wondering "Why should I use a TRAVEL PROFESSIONAL?"

In today's world of instant online access to unlimited information on travel options, you might be wondering why it makes sense to plan your vacation with one of our travel professionals.

We take the time to get to know you, understanding your approach to travel, what you like to see and do and in what style. Then we match these factors with your budget, schedule and our insider connections with the best travel providers. Our travel professionals are here for you to talk to, answer your questions, and design a vacation perfect just for you. No web site or cell phone "app" can do it our personalized way.

You can rely on Joyce:

For Expert Insights

It's our job and our passion to know the world's greatest destinations inside and out. Our expertise and resources give you an insider's view when planning your next vacation.

To Save You Time

Our extensive knowledge of cruise lines, resorts, airlines and tour operators allows us to cut through the clutter and zero in on the vacation you really want.

To Save You Money

We have access to discounted, limited-time offers and exclusive benefits you cannot obtain on your own.

To Personalize Your Vacation

Through our global network of trusted travel partners, we can custom-tailor your vacation to perfectly match your individual needs and desires.

To Be There When You Need Us

Sometimes the perfectly planned dream vacation hits snags, like a missed plane connection, a front desk clerk who can't find your hotel reservation or a medical emergency. When you book with us, all you have to do is make one simple phone call and we will handle the rest.

Give us a call, we often beat the internet!
Call us at 603-464-4467

Don't just take our word for it, here's what recognized travel experts have to say about compelling reasons to consult a travel professional:

TRAVELER

"Why do I still like agents? A competent travel adviser can be your greatest asset when you're planning a trip. Good travel agents have an edge over almost any other seller of travel. They know what you want. They speak your language. And they're there for you when you run into trouble."

Christopher Elliot, ombudsman,
National Geographic Traveler magazine

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

"It's clear agents can likely save travelers big money and help set a realistic itinerary. Even where they weren't cheaper, the agents competed with what we could find on our own. And we were impressed where they did save us money, in particular with hotels."

"Having a travel agent advise you is now more important than ever," as fees, surcharges, and other travel restrictions have become more confusing for consumers. "Travel is one of the most complicated purchases."

Henry Harteveldt, Travel Industry Analyst,
Forrester Research

Keene Pumpkin Festival

10/18/2014 (12:00PM)

Event Fee: a Carved Pumpkin

Come join us for the 2014 Keene Pumpkin Festival in beautiful Downtown Keene!! Three hundred and sixty-four days a year Keene, NH, is a quintessential New England community with a pristine church at the head of a welcoming square. On October 18, 2014, that square will abound with carved jack-o'-lanterns! The bandstand will come alive with entertainment and a tower of pumpkins so spectacular it is called "spell-binding" will rival the church steeple. Delectables in the Food & Craft Court will send forth aromas of apple crisp and maple cotton candy throughout the pumpkin-lined city streets. After reclaiming the WORLD RECORD in 2013, Keene is on top of the world and Keene Pumpkin Festival is the darling of New England events. Admission is a suggested donation of $5 per adult plus a carved pumpkin.
