Two towns replacing long-time Department Heads

Antrim Fire Chief Mike Beauchamp, a member of the department since 1969 and chief since 1989, officially retired as of December 31st. Veteran firefighter Marshall Gale became Chief on January 1, 2015. Gale has been Deputy Chief for four years, having previously served as 2nd Lieutenant and 1st Lieutenant in his 39 years with the department.

Beauchamp said he is retiring to give younger firefighters a chance to move up in the ranks, but stressed that he will remain active with the department. Gale said he is honored and excited at the opportunity and hopes to improve recruitment and retention in the department.

In Deering, the retirement of long-time Road Agent Peter Beard has also brought about changes. The Deering Selectmen recently announced Benjamin "Benji" Knapp of Weare will replace Beard as the town's new Road Agent. Knapp has been a member of Weare's highway department for thirteen years, the past eight as foreman. He's also served on Weare's Joint Loss Committee. Knapp will assume his new duties on January 12th at a salary of $53,000/year.

New police officer for New London sought

New London Police Chief Ed Anderson met with the Selectboard on Monday in preparation of the 2016 budget. Anderson said he is looking to assign a part time officer for recovering video from the police station and the patrol cars. The videos are used by defense attorneys to review clients' arrests and bookings. The Chief said he has spent hours getting the tapes processed and having someone assigned to that task as well as keeping on top of policies and procedures would free up more time for patrols. Calls to the New London Police Department have risen from 11,500 in 2013 to over 14,000 this year. Anderson noted that the number of arrests have also risen from 132 in 2012 to 162 in 2013 and to date 220 for this year. The Budget Committee will meet on January 21 to review budget requests and needs.

Newport School's Contingency Warrant

Time constraints won't allow a special school district meeting for Goshen residents to vote if they want to send their students to Newport Schools. Newport instead will have a contingency warrant on their Annual School District Ballot in March for adding the $374,000 to their budget, should Goshen residents vote to send their students to Newport. The advice comes from the school's attorney said Liz Hennig, Chair of the Newport School Board at the first meeting of the Budget Advisory Committee on Wednesday. The Budget Advisory Committee will meet again on Tuesday, Dec. 30 at 6:00 pm in the Lou Thompson Room.

Board OK's Welcome To Goffstown signs

The Goffstown Selectmen have received the summary from the last EDC meeting with a recommendation for the Board to proceed with Thom Sousa for the "Welcome to Goffstown" signs. Chairman Adams didn't like the lines on the design above and beneath the town name. He wanted to see the design without those lines. Selectman Georgantas stated we can deal with a design change but that they needed to award this contract to make it onto the encumbrance list. It was approved 5-0.

Annual "Operation Christmas" aids 60+ Hopkinton families

For over a decade Hopkinton's Human Services Director, Marilyn Ceriello Bresaw in coordination with the Hopkinton Food Pantry coordinator Tamara Saltmarsh, have been organizing 'Operation Christmas' for the local community. Operation Christmas is a program with a mission to collect and distribute gift and food donations during the Christmas season to community members who need extra support at the holiday season. This year, Hopkinton's 'Operation Christmas' collected Christmas gifts and food packages for over 60 families and seniors. It is through the generosity of the Hopkinton community and program volunteers that makes this program possible. A special thanks to the Capital Food Program and Hopkinton's schools, non-profit organizations, churches, local businesses, and private donors who make this a success each year.

Marilyn Ceriello Bresaw, Director of Hopkinton's Human Services Department, begins sorting all the Christmas donations from the community.

Goffstown woman arrested

Dunbarton Police were called to a residence on Robert Rogers Road after the homeowner called to report an unwanted subject at the residence.

It was also reported that there were some instances of past thefts that had taken place at the home. Officers on scene were able to determine several instances of thefts that took place between October and December at the residence.

As a result of on scene and follow up investigation, an arrest warrant was obtained. Around 8:00 PM, an adult female from Goffstown turned herself in to Dunbarton Police on a charge of Theft By Unauthorized Taking, contrary to RSA 637:3, a class A misdemeanor.

She was processed and released on $1,000 personal recognizance bail and is scheduled to appear in the 6th Circuit - Concord District Court for arraignment in February, 2015. The investigation is on-going and additional charges may be filed.

It's Bennetts & Forsters not Hatfields & McCoys

Spencer Bennett, abutter to and critic of Forester's Tree Farm on Mt. Hunger Road in Henniker is at it again.

It was Bennett's objection to the holding of weddings at the Tree Farm that sparked the long-standing battle between owner Steve Forester and the town's ZBA. Recently Bennett submitted a lengthly letter accompanied by several photos, objecting to Tree Farm customers parking along Mt. Hunger Road.

The matter was scheduled for the December 16th Selectmen's Meeting which Forester attended but Bennett did not. After discussing the letter, reviewing the photos and conversing with Police Chief Ryan Murdough, the Board found no parking problem and dismissed the complaint.

Newport sex offender fails to register

New Hampshire State Police have a fugitive in custody Thursday night who allegedly avoided registering as a sex offender. Police say Christopher Lee, 37, was wanted by the Sullivan County Superior Court for failing to register as a sex offender and wanted by Newport District Court for failing to appear in court. Troopers received a tip on Sunday that the Newport, New Hampshire, man was in the northern area of Merrimack County. State police started searching for Lee and received another tip early Wednesday morning saying Lee was in the Andover, New Hampshire area. Troopers say they spotted Lee getting into a car outside of a house just off NH Route 11 in Andover. Troopers followed the car and pulled him over on NH Route 4A in Wilmot, New Hampshire, according to New Hampshire State Police. Troopers identified Lee and said they took him into custody without incident. Lee is being held without bail at Sullivan County Jail pending arraignment in the Sullivan County Superior Court. Police ask anyone with information about this case to contact Trooper 1st Class Joshua Beauchemin at 603-223-4381.

Police arrest Franklin woman for fraud

A Franklin woman was arrested earlier today and charged with Obtaining Controlled Drugs by Fraud. NH State Police say Starcia Kimani, 35, arrested after they received a complaint from a Concord NH doctor saying she was seeing multiple practitioners to get narcotic drugs. Kimani was released on $10,000 personal recognizance and will appear in Concord Circuit Court in March to answer the charge.

Judge denies bail in Sunapee man's trial

A judge has denied bail for a New Hampshire man accused of causing a crash that killed a pregnant Vermont woman and her fiance in December 2013. Fifty-four-year-old Robert Dellinger of Sunapee is charged with second-degree murder in the deaths of 24-year-old Amanda Murphy and 29-year-old Jason Timmons of Wilder, Vermont, and with second-degree assault in the death of the fetus. He has pleaded not guilty. Dellinger's lawyers argued earlier this month that he should be released on bail while awaiting trial, but the Valley News reports that a judge recently denied the request. Police have said Dellinger, a former Fortune 500 executive, was despondent and trying to kill himself when his pickup truck collided head-on with the couple's SUV on Interstate 89.

Henniker Chamber of Commerce makes it Toys For LOCAL Tots

The Henniker Chamber of Commerce launched a "Local Toys for Local Tots" Toy Drive for Henniker children. Since items put in the nationally known donation boxes at local retailers don't stay local, the Henniker Chamber of Commerce teamed up with local businesses to collect toys for families in Henniker. Boxes were set up for drop off locations including the Henniker Farm & Country Store, Henniker Pharmacy, Intervale Pancake House, Edmunds Ace Hardware, TD Bank, New England College and St. George's Café.

In addition to the many toys that were placed in the donation boxes, over $600 of monetary donations was used to purchase gifts from local Henniker businesses. Toys were distributed through White Birch Community Center, The Congregational Church of Henniker and St Theresa's Catholic Church. Many families in Henniker were able to select a toy from all the donations.

"We are happy that the local community embraced this toy drive for our local children and that we were able to coordinate it through our local Henniker businesses," said Rick Hall, Henniker Chamber of Commerce President. "Thank you to everyone who helped give a Henniker child a Merry Christmas," commented Hall.

Sunapee receives FEMA funds

The Sunapee Slectmen recently held a public hearing to accept unanticipated moneys. Scott Hazelton stated that this was the last FEMA disbursement for last year's storm. The amount of the disbursement is $12, 838.65, which Hazelton would like to use to purchase gravel and road salt. After a short hearing the Board unanimously agreed.

The New Hampshire Liquor Commission donated more than 2,000 toys last week to the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program. NH Liquor Commission collect 2,000 Toys For Tots

Last week the New Hampshire Liquor Commission (NHLC) delivered more than 2,000 new, unwrapped toys to the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program. Throughout November and December, NHLC collected toys at its 77 NH Liquor & Wine Outlets and at NHLC Enforcement headquarters. This is the third year in a row NHLC has partnered with the Toys for Tots Program. Exel Inc., which coordinates NHLC's warehouse operations and statewide liquor and wine transportation, collected toys from all 77 outlet locations and stored them for safe-keeping at its Bow warehouse, prior to delivery. "Thanks to the generosity of our customers and employees, and through the hard work of Exel, this Christmas will be more cheerful for some very deserving children," said NHLC Chairman Joseph Mollica.

Henniker Police to receive new Tasers

Henniker Police Chief Ryan Murdough met with the Selectmen to discuss his budget for next year. He informed the Board that he understood and could accept the cuts they made, but believed he could save the town money by using his current surplus to purchase new Tasers. He explained that because he had two officers out for extended periods of time in 2014, there will be a surplus of about $16,000 in the 2014 full-time officer line item. He proposed purchasing 13 Tasers, 13 Holsters, 13 Batteries, Cartridges and 1 Data port kit for $13,672. If the town signs up for the Taser Assurance Plan for the next 4 years, the cost is $2,405 per year. At the end of the fifth year we receive new Tasers. This would result in a $7,923 reduction in his original Taser purchase line item request of $10,328 to $2,405. After a long discussion, the Board unanimously agreed.

Goffstown's Main Street is in transition

Karen Henderson, President of Goffstown's Main Street Program, informed the Goffstown Selectmen that the program had a transition when the former Director left in the spring, and they were without an executive director for a while. She explained that they had hired someone but it didn't work out and Sean Sullivan left as of last week. She said they are very committed to what this program does, and have a good plan of where they want to go. They will begin looking to another to fill the position in the way it needs to be, but would not start the process until mid January. She said she hoped for continued support from the town, as the Pumpkin Festival brought out a lot of new volunteers with good help and talent.

Hillsborough woman killed

On December 27th 2014 at 10: 17pm, the Hillsboro Police and Fire responded to a report of a single vehicle crash in the area of 358 Center Road in Hillsboro. The driver and sole occupant of the vehicle, Debra Trottier, age 24, of Hillsboro was pronounced dead at the scene. A preliminary investigation indicates that the vehicle had left the travel portion of the roadway striking a tree. Speed appears to have been a factor in this collision. Hillsboro Police continue to investigate this unfortunate event.

Why you should use a travel agent:

We had a lively debate recently on the merits of whether to use a live travel agent to book your vacation or to go it alone by using the Internet. Here are some of the reasons to consider a personal travel consultant.

1. You've Googled "Mexico vacation," and come up with 17.8 million responses. Need a little help editing those choices?

2. Remember when you used that obscure website to book your hotel, and when you got there you spent your beach vacation overlooking a parking lot?

3. How many hours were you on hold with the airline when your flight was canceled because of a snowstorm?

4. Did you really mean to spend your honeymoon at that resort whose one tiny pool was filled all day with 12 screaming children?

5. Who knew that when you booked that "villa" in Tuscany, it would be a small room with a kitchenette and no air conditioning? Funny, it looked much better on your computer screen.

6. No one explained to you that in July, it's winter time in Rio, and so you showed up there with nothing but five Hawaiian shirts and three pairs of swimming trunks.

7. How about the time you really needed a restful vacation, and you ended up in New Orleans during Mardi Gras and someone threw up on your shoes?

8. Yes, I guess that hotel must have used a telephoto lens when they took a picture of those guest rooms that you saw on their website.

9. I suppose contacting the Attorney General to resolve the fact that that Internet site has billed your credit card three times instead of once is the only route to take at this point.

10. It was definitely odd that there were no cab drivers at the airport at 3 o'clock in the morning when you finally landed in Costa Rica, but booking a transfer to your very remote hotel would have been a good thing to remember when you purchased your airline ticket and hotel online.

Why you shouldn't use a travel agent:

In the interest of fairness here are 10 reasons why you should NOT be going to your friendly neighborhood Travel Consultant.

1. It is more fun to go searching for lodging, ground transportation, activities, tours from multiple sources than with 1 call to your agency.

2. When problems occur during your trip you enjoy being confrontational and thrive on dealing directly with the source.

3. You'll rob yourself of the experience of flying into the other Charleston airport CHS not CRW/Charleston W.Va.

4. You enjoy all the time consuming detailed work of planning a complex itinerary.

5. You want to work anonymously on numerous websites

6. Documents? What documents? You'll just sort required travel documents like visas and passports as you go. Besides when you sailed 20 years ago you just needed a birth certificate.

7. You don't care that you don't have access to travel suppliers who exercise their clout with hotels, resorts to provide such amenities as early check-in, late checkout, room upgrade; dollar resort credits complimentary meals.

8. Your time and expertise will get you the best bang for your travel dollar!

9. You will thoroughly enjoying blaming yourself when something on your trip goes wrong!

10. There are two trips out there-a great one and the one from hell. You can easily guess which is the great one!

PS: Trip adviser is your best friend and you don't care if one hotelier just posted over 100 glowing reports about his property!
PSS: Of course you know best what to do with your time and money! So why seek expert advice and opinions?
But just in case I haven't convinced you, stop by or contact your local travel agent! They get paid to tell you where to go!

Publisher's Perspective by Leigh Bosse

History has lessons to teach us if we are willing to learn

In listening to the debate over state and federal budget cuts, I am reminded of the old warning that "those who ignore history are bound to relive it." When conservatives talk of restructuring medicare, medicaid and the other "entitlement" programs, they are castigated as "heartless" individuals who care nothing about their fellow man. Though they know that these programs are underfunded and will be bankrupt in the future, liberals refuse to face the reality that the more people who are "entitled" to these tax dollars, there are fewer of us left to provide them.

I hope my liberal friends will take a moment to read what Alexander Tyler, a Scottish history professor at the University of Edinburgh, in 1887, had to say about the fall of the Athenian Republic some 2,000 years prior:

"A democracy is always temporary in nature; it simply cannot exist as a permanent form of government. A democracy will continue to exist up until the time that voters discover that they can vote themselves generous gifts from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority always votes for the candidates who promise the most benefits from the public treasury, with the result that every democracy will finally collapse over loose fiscal policy, which is always followed by a dictatorship."

"The average age of the world's greatest civilizations from the beginning of history, has been about 200 years. During those 200 years, these nations always progressed through the following sequence: 1. From bondage to spiritual faith; 2. From spiritual faith to great courage; 3. From courage to liberty; 4. From liberty to abundance; 5. From abundance to complacency; 6. From complacency to apathy; 7. From apathy to dependence; 8. From dependence back into bondage."

America is quickly approaching step 7. The trend must be reversed!

African Studies at Henniker Community School

The focus of this year's artist-in-residence program for the Henniker Community School Sixth grade has been Africa.

Leading up to the culminating event in January, students have been learning about the history, culture, and geography of Africa in their social studies classes and artist visits. Most recently, they worked with Nigerian printmaker Segun Olorunfemi creating large block prints.

Newport High School joins "Project Sticker Shock"

Don't be surprised when you pick up a rack of beer in Newport if the six-pack has a sticker on it, warning of the penalties for allowing underage alcohol consumption. Project "Sticker Shock", a program sponsored by Drug Free New Hampshire (drugfreeNH.org) and the Newport School District, had a band of Newport students placing stickers on alcohol products in local grocery stores Wednesday, December 17.

The students, earning needed "community service hours" toward graduation requirements, were enthusiastically stickering the products under the watchful eye of advisor, Natasha English. English recently joined the Newport School District as a Student Assistance Counselor through a grant awarded to Newport by the NH Department of Health and Human Services to establish a Student Assistance Program to perform staff and student training and education toward preventing youth from abusing substances.

Quick to start activities in the school and community, English is using the evidence based program, Project Success to structure her substance abuse prevention program. This program includes individual, small group, and classroom counseling/teaching with school-wide initiatives and community activities. She is working closely with Bridgett Taylor of Sullivan County's "Communities United" program to connect youth to community efforts for preventing substance abuse. English reached out to area retailers to gain their support and permission to apply the stickers.

"With holiday celebrations underway and New Year's Eve celebrations right around the corner, this seemed like perfect timing to raise awareness about underage drinking and the consequences for that behavior," she said as she watched students place stickers on racks of beer in Shaw's of Newport. "Prevention and education are the keys to success in any program of this nature," she said, "and what better way to prevent underage drinking than to have someone think twice about the consequences they might suffer if they provide alcohol to minors."

The stickers applied to the alcohol contain the message: "Thank you! For keeping our kids alcohol free! Keep this product secure in your home, remove it altogether if you're going away, and, don't even consider buying this for a minor! Remember... providing alcohol to a minor is a CRIME! Punishable by fines up to $2,000 and up to one year in jail."

The stickers are provided by the NH Department of Justice, Office of the Attorney General, NH Division of Liquor Enforcement, the Partnership for a DrugFreeNH.org and the Bureau of Drug and Alcohol Services. The project was making an impact on the students involved. "The sticker really is a little thing, but if someone comes in and says 'wow. A year in jail', they might not buy this for a minor," said eleventh grader, Riley Jo Busby. The group of students including Tyler Kelley, Taryn Wentzell, Tyler Maheu, Busby, Payton Wilson supervised by English, was heading from Shaw's to Cornonis' Market, Grazi's and Mobil Pitstop to sticker alcohol.

Second grade students at Center Woods Elementary School collected items to send to troops overseas as part of their enrichment project surrounding Veterans Day this fall.

This December, they were able to pack up and ship 79 care packages to men and woman serving overseas.

New Boston seeks improved communications site

New Boston Fire Chief James Brace went to the site with the Goffstown Ladder Truck and is getting a proposal from another communication company.

This project will be a Warrant Article. Another option is to use surplus. A special daytime meeting may be scheduled with Brace or he could attend the January Finance Committee meeting to discuss this. Several things are needed to improve the communication site.

The first proposal was approximately $65,000.

Rodney said it is important to get the police communication system working again and then determine a more long term solution such as the height of the tower. He is looking forward to the second proposal.

Accident leaves Bow homes without power

A car crash at the intersection of Logging Hill Road and Short Street in Bow left a neighborhood without power for some time. Bow Police say 48 year-old Denyce Wallace struck a utility pole around 3 a.m. Saturday, just off of Exit 1 on Route 89. The crash damaged the car and utility pole, and knocked power out to the homes in the area. As of 7 a.m., about 55 homes were still without power. Live wires fell on the vehicle. Police had to wait about 45 minutes for Unitil to arrive to the scene before they could take Wallace out. Wallace was taken to the hospital as a precaution. Police say speed and alcohol do not appear to be factors in the crash at this time, but they are still investigating.

New Boston Road Agent saves town money

New Boston Road Agent Dick Perusse met with the Selectmen to discuss Highway Department updates. He reported that Brian Nault completed his probation period. Perusse held his review and it was satisfactory. He would like to change Brian's status to regular full time employment, which was approved. He also reviewed the engineering estimate for the project at the bottom of Old Coach Road and found areas the town can save money by using materials they have in stock and lower contracted paving prices. Perusse would like to use $350,000 for the Warrant Article, which includes 15% contingency. This project is planned to be paid from surplus. The Selectmen thanked Dick for doing this.

Planning Board - "Show me the money"

Hillsborough Planning Board member Martha Caron said she spoke to Chairman Wiegelman regarding the combining of the Planning Board, Zoning Board of Adjustment and Planning Director budgets which is under discussion with the Town Administrator. She said he suggested the Board follow through with proposing that the Board members be compensated just as the Water and Sewer Commissioners, Selectmen and School Board members are. Caron said that the Board's request for $1,000 doesn't appear to be unreasonable based on what other Board members receive. Vice Chairman Larry Baker asked for an informal vote on whether the Board should propose a yearly stipend for members to the Selectmen. Caron made a motion that Chairman Wiegelman writes a letter to the Board of Selectmen regarding the inequity in the stipends to Board members and the Board's strong concerns regarding the funding of our staff member.

Bow man flees to avoid arrest; later located by Police K-9

A Bow man has been accused of threatening to shoot police officers. Police were called to Birchdale Road on Tuesday night for a report of an assault in progress. Police said the alleged assault involved two men pushing and shoving. Officers said when they arrived, Timothy Hodgman, 46, fled out the back door and ran into some nearby woods. Hodgman allegedly refused to surrender and threatened to shoot the officers, before running deeper into the woods. He was unarmed at the time.

After about two and a half hours, police eventually caught up to Hodgman and used a Taser gun to take him into custody.

Officers said a K-9 unit was able to find Hodgman hiding behind a rock, and they are crediting the dog with the discovery.

Police said they were very familiar with Hodgman, and at the time of the incident he was on probation for a previous conviction.

He was arraigned by video on six criminal charges, including simple assault. Hodgman was held without bail based on a "last chance" agreement stemming from charges in another case.

Henniker Rotary Club President Peter Flynn thanks Peter Beckett for his recent speech to the Club. Peter brought his wife's canoe that he made and explained the craft of building boats. He also assists others, especially children, in the art of boat building in order to keep the craft alive.

Weare may not request additional funds

The Weare Selectmen held a public hearing last week anticipating an emergency funding request "due to unusual circumstances that have arisen during the year." Those "unusual circumstances," included unexpected spending due to the recent snowstorm and fees incurred by the Police Department. Legal expenses for the town were budgeted at $66,900 but $117,867.29 has been spent, with $58,000 just for the Police Department. However, after further review, Chairman Tom Clow said that the board will not apply for emergency funds after all.

Hopkinton seeks dismissal of Fair's suit

The town of Hopkinton is asking that the Hopkinton State Fair Association's civil complaint about its tax status be dismissed and the petition denied. The Association filed the complaint in August, days before the start of this year's fair. The Hopkinton Selectmen had voted in April to deny the Association a charitable tax exemption, which followed its October 2013 vote against renewing a $15,000 tax break for the fair. The fair had this tax break for several years, an agreement that was reached with a previous board.

No arrest yet in Bennington robbery

Goffstown man arrested for heroin & pills

The Goffstown Police Department, in conjunction with the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Department, began an investigation into the sale of narcotic drugs in town. Information gathered during the course of the investigation led to the issuance of a search warrant for a residence on the Goffstown Back Rd. Members of the Goffstown Police Department and the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Department executed the search warrant shortly before 9pm and found a substantial amount of heroin and prescription pills. As a result of that search and the initial investigation, police arrested: Randall Vetrone, 46 of Goffstown and charged him with Sale of a Narcotic Drug, Possession with Intent to Distribute, Falsifying Physical Evidence and Endangering the Welfare of a Child. Vetrone is being held on $50,000.00 cash bail and will be arraigned on December 3rd.

Friends of Mount Sunapee opposed the resort's expansion

As local residents for and against Mount Sunapee Ski Area's proposed West Bowl build-out wait for state officials to decide its future, one local group is asking for more public hearings on the proposal and the resort's entire Master Plan update.

The Friends of Mount Sunapee, which bills itself as an alliance of neighbors, town leaders, conservationists and civic-minded advocates for protection of the 4,085-acre state park for its public values, says the lone public meeting this fall did not answer the many questions the group has for Jeffrey Rose, commissioner of the Department of Revenue and Economic Development. As the state owns the resort, DRED and Rose must approve any changes to the Master Plan. DRED officials said the department will likely make its decision on the West Bowl plan and the proposed Master Plan changes in January.

But Jolyon Johnson, president of the Friends of Mount Sunapee, said Rose should halt consideration of the proposal because the public has not heard enough details about the ski area's plans.

"The biggest thing is we need a whole lot more information," Johnson said. "All we want is for the resort to be open about everything. We want to know where, on the hills, some of the trails will be going, if they'll be going into the oldgrowth wood areas, and a lot more detail than we've heard." The resort's 2014 Master Development plan, which must be approved by DRED and other state agencies, calls for new skiing in the West Bowl in the form of four new top-to-bottom trails and a 5,100-foot highspeed detachable quad chairlift, among other additions.

The West Bowl plan was explained at the public hearing, and comments were taken from the public. After the meeting, DRED officials said they received hundreds of letters from area residents, which favored the West Bowl plan by a 3-1 margin.

But there was little discussion beyond the West Bowl proposal, Johnson said.

"I was frankly caught off guard at the hearing. I really thought there would be full discussion of the Master Plan, how it was being done, when it would be completed, what kind of jobs would be created, and all we heard was talk about the West Bowl," he said.

Catherine Bushueff, a Friends of Mount Sunapee volunteer, said the information given at the meeting fell far short of what is needed. "People want to understand what's in the plan," she said. "When planning future changes for our state park, there needs to be a good understanding of the plan, and we need current impact studies."

The current plan seems to rely on studies that are 10 years old.

New Boston Selectmen review proposed Warrant Articles

New Boston Town Administrator Peter Flynn reviewed the proposed Warrant Articles as follows:

• The last article is for the Old Coach Road project as discussed above.

• The second to last article is for the police detail account. $1,037 will be requested.

• The next article up is for completion of the Town Hall basement renovation project. An amount is needed. Peter is waiting for wording from NH DRA.

• The next article up is another article for the Town Hall renovation. Peter will work on these two articles this week to get the wording right. If this article fails the one after it will be null and void as this article is to appropriate the money and the next article is to expend the money.

• Articles for a chairlift and air conditioning system for the Town Hall will be considered. The town has one estimate for the air conditioning so far but the project will be put out to bid as required. The chairlift could be paid from surplus funds as a $16,400 encumbrance from the 2014 budget and the air conditioning should be a Warrant Article. Brandy asked if the chairlift doesn't solve the handicap accessible issue is it worth the money. A placeholder will be added to the Warrant for the radio.
