

Deering Police arrest pair for selling dogs/puppies without license

Deering Police Captain Thomas Cavanaugh and Officer Stephen Bell, assisted by Animal Rescue League of NH Director of Outreach & Investigations Maureen Prendergast, conducted a joint investigation into the sale and transfer of several ill and contagious dogs and puppies during October and November 2015 in Deering.

Initial complaints were received by the Deering Police about a "Dog Adoption Day" advertised through a Facebook Page for "Pawfect Puppy" that had occurred in Deering, NH in early October. At this adoption event, several of the puppies were severely ill with the highly contagious and often deadly canine disease Parvoviral Enteritis and other diseases, worms, parasites, infections and other illnesses, which then were transmitted to other family pets after adoption. Several animals died as a result.

Following an investigation, which included undercover purchases of puppies, Cavanaugh and Bell arrested Shawna Boutwell, 44, of Chesnee, South Carolina, and Dawn Disorda, 43, of Chesnee, South Carolina.

Each Defendant was charged with multiple counts of Selling Dogs/Puppies without a License, Selling Dogs/Puppies without Health Certificates, Sales of Diseased Animals, and violations of Animal Quarantine requirements. They were bailed and released pending a scheduled arraignment.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

Alzheimer's disease and other dementias are common, affecting one in six people over age 80. The main drug treatments, a class of medications called cholinesterase inhibitors (i.e., donepezil, galantamine, rivastigmine), are marginally beneficial for most patients and may have serious side effects such as gastrointestinal symptoms. These medications could result in harmful weight loss, according to a study in the Journal of the American Geriatrics Society. Weight loss is a significant problem in dementia patients and linked to increased mortality.

The controversial practice of administering pre-surgery beta-blockers to patients having noncardiac surgery was associated with an increased risk of death in patients with no cardiac risk factors but it was beneficial for patients with three to four risk factors, according to a report published online by JAMA Surgery.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Odomzo (sonidegib) to treat patients with locally advanced basal cell carcinoma that has recurred following surgery or radiation therapy, or who are not candidates for surgery or radiation surgery. Skin cancer is the most common cancer and basal cell carcinoma accounts for approximately 80 percent of non-melanoma skin cancers. Basal cell carcinoma starts in the top layer of the skin (called the epidermis) and usually develops in areas that have been regularly exposed to the sun and other forms of ultraviolet radiation. According to the National Cancer Institute, the number of new cases of non-melanoma skin cancer appears to be increasing every year. Locally advanced basal cell skin cancer refers to basal cancers that have not spread to other parts of the body, but cannot be curatively treated with local treatments, specifically surgery and radiation.

Kearsarge Indian Museum's Winter Celebration Dec 5th

Join us for a day full of family activities as we celebrate the beginning of winter. Winter is the traditional time for Native Americans to tell stories and we are pleased to have Native storytellers who will share their stories with us. The day's events also include Native flute performances, a talk on Native plant use, a beadwork craft, games, traditional Native foods and a sale at the museum store. During the beadwork craft everyone will learn Peyote stitch and will make something to take home.

Winter Celebration is held in the museum Saturday December 5, 10am-3pm at 18 Highlawn Road in Warner. Visitors can stroll through the arboretum, walk the trails in the Medicine Woods, play in the tipi and tour the museum itself, in addition to all the festival activities. Admission is FREE for members and $5 for non-members. Non-members who choose to become members that day will receive free admission.

The Christmas Appointment

Twas the night before Christmas
And all thru the shop,
A lone groomer was standing
And trimming non-stop.

The wash towels were hung
By the dryer with care,
And matted one terrier
Soon to be bare.

The puppies were nestled
All snug in their crates,
Unaware of the groomer
Clipping in haste.

They sleep nice and tight
Snuggled in a warm bed,
As visions of rawhides
Float thru their heads.

When up on the roof
There arose such a clatter
The groomer did guess
Just what was the matter.

Away to the window
Mrs. Pedzik did dash
For there a late client
All brazen and brash.

Clothed up and down
in red and white suit with prints all around from his sooty black boots.

Oh, Groomer I see you,
come out lickety-split
Emergency hair-dos
Yes PDQ Quick.

Do Dasher and Prancer
come polish their toes
quiet their nickers and keep them composed Prancer and Vixen
a bath and a fluff
Comet and Cupid
cologne, just a puff.

Donner and Blitzen
A clip and snip Bows for them all before we start on our trip.

I know you can do them.
And finish before twelve
Time is a wasting
I'll lend you some elves.

Gee, you sure look like You've gone there and back.
Hope I don't give you
a big heart attack.
So can't you just sneak them into your shop
do them up pretty
a bath and some glop?

Mrs. Pedzik bone-tired
stoked up her pride
St. Nick was the one you just could not deny.

Over worked, underfed
just a little bit dizzy,
all thoughts of that leave my head when I'm busy.

Then standing agasp,
I thought wait just a moment,
did he call, did he yell,
did he make an appointment?

Did he make an appointment
well in advance?
Oh, no, not at all
He just picked me by chance.

The clock was tick-ticking and moving towards twelve my scissors and blades
now put on the shelves.

Out went the deer
Their coats oh so, so shiny
Leaping with joy.
The pelts piled high behind me.
Finished in time with seconds to spare.
For the end of this rhyme
They really don't care.

But please I do beg,
Just to keep myself sane
Unless you're St. Nick
by any other sweet name.

A grooming takes time,
love, care and devotion.
Don't delay, don't you dither
No, no I'm not joking.

Make an appointment,
Book a long stay
The sooner the better lest Mrs. Pedzik says nay.

Call your dear friend
The crazy dog groomer
and make your holiday appointment
Just a little bit sooner.

Happy Holidays!

Obituaries: Friends & Neighbors Remembered

Janet Withington

HILLSBOROUGH - Janet Withington, 67, of Hillsborough, passed away at the Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon on Saturday night, November 21, 2015 from injuries received earlier that evening in an automobile accident on Route 9 in Antrim that also took the life of her husband James "Jim" R. Bouchard. Janet was born in Peterborough, in 1948 to Richard and Mary Withington. Janet was preceded in death by her mother, Mary Withington in 1980; by her father, Richard W. Withington in 2008 and by her loving husband, Jim, who died earlier the same evening at the scene of the automobile accident. Janet is survived by her sister, Nancy Bell of Tennessee; her brothers, Richard Withington Jr. of Antrim, and Robert Withington of Portsmouth; several nieces and nephews; her son, William Guinn of Concord; her husband Jim's daughter, Michelle Zvonkovic and Michelle's two children, Spencer and Cecilia, all of Connecticut. Donations may also be made to the Janet Withington Scholarship, c/o Concord Hospital Family Tree Health Care, 19 Farrington Corner Road, Hopkinton, NH 03229 to help establish a nursing scholarship in Janet's name at St. Anselm College in Manchester where Janet often attended continuing education classes to keep her nursing license current.

James R. Bouchard

HILLSBOROUGH - James "Jim" Bouchard, 63, of Hillsborough, lost his life on Saturday night, November 21, 2015 in an automobile accident on Route 9 in Antrim that also took the life of his beloved wife, Janet Withington. Jim was born in Concord, NH in 1952 to Robert and Joyce Bouchard. Jim also spent countless days in Hillsborough Center working to keep up the grounds or helping with the buildings often "donating" his time. He also served as member of the Hillsborough Historic District Commission. Jim's other great passion in life was music, playing bass guitar in local rock and roll bands in his younger days. In addition to his parents, Jim is survived by his brothers, William Bouchard of upstate New York and Paul "Rick" Bouchard of Keene; several nieces and nephews; his daughter, Michelle Zvonkovic and his grandchildren, Cecilia Zvonkovic and Spencer Zvonkovic, all of Connecticut; and his wife Janet's son, William Guinn of Concord. Donations may be made to the Hillsborough Center Preservation Fund, c/o Town of Hillsborough, PO Box 7, Hillsborough, NH 03244. This fund has been established in memory of Jim and his wife Janet to assist in the maintenance of the historic buildings and grounds which they unselfishly helped to maintain.

A private graveside service will be held for family members at the Hillsborough Center Cemetery. The public is invited to pay their respects to Janet and her husband, Jim anytime between 1:00 and 4:00 pm at the Center Club House in Hillsborough Center on Saturday.
