Tribute to the Beach Boys to kick off Arts summer concert season

Entering its 34th season, Arts Jubilee is staging a 5-week summer concert series which runs weekly on Thursday nights from July 14th through August 11th, hosted at Cranmore Mountain, North Conway. Performances this season will pay tribute to many famous groups, including the music of the Beach Boys (July 14) and the music of Simon & Garfunkel (July 21). Music of the 60s will be highlighted on July 28, with Roots, Rock & Soul taking the stage on Aug. 4. The series will culminate with the traditional Pops Concert including fireworks on August 11th.

This Thursday, the Beach Boys tribute will be presented by The Beach Bums, a Canadian-based band whose sole purpose is to bring back those memorable Beach Boy sounds. During the summer of '98 six artists grabbed their instruments and talent to put together "The Ultimate tribute to The Beach Boys" and named themselves 'The Beach Bums'. The goal of the show is to recreate the magic and essence of the 60s on the California beaches. The "Beach Party", the cars, the sun, the endless summer . . . This is what The Beach Boys music is all about. Arts Jubilee kicks off the summer series with music made popular over 5 decades ago – creating fond memories of beach parties, surfin', and endless summer!

Headliners take the stage at 7 PM but the audience is encouraged to come early and enjoy a picnic supper while listening to the music of local musicians who contribute their time and talent for the love of entertaining. Kicking off the Season's early concerts at 6 PM will be the dedicated musicians of the Mt Washington Valley Band under the baton of Russell Gage.

The series continues on July 21st when Arts Jubilee hosts "Old Friends" as they Remember Simon & Garfunkel's 1981 concert in Central Park – one of the largest and most beloved concerts of all time.

Arts Jubilee's outdoor festival concerts are found at the base of the North Slope at Cranmore Mountain in North Conway, New Hampshire. Headline concerts begin at 7:00 PM and an early concert performance highlighting some of the area's best musicians begins at 6 PM. Beverages and food available on the Deck at Zip's Pub with a full view of the stage. Picnic suppers are permitted - but no alcohol, please. Provide your own seating with a blanket or lawn chairs. Admission is family friendly: Adults are $10, Seniors: $8, Students are $5 and kids 12 and under are free. Arts Jubilee is a non-profit organization with support from area corporate sponsors, private donations, and grants. Our host sponsor, Cranmore Mountain provides ample free parking, indoor restrooms, and beautiful mountain views in a natural amphitheater setting. For additional information and a view of the entire 5-week season as well as music samples of each headline act, go to MWVEvents.com.

Newburyport Chamber Music Festival Musicians: August 14

"Pipes and Strings" to feature Newburyport Chamber Music Festival Musicians: August 14 Concerts on the Hill performance pairs organ and string quartet

Concerts on the Hill presents "Pipes and Strings," on Sunday, August 14, 2016 at 4:00pm at St. John's Episcopal Church in Portsmouth, NH. This is the fourth of six performances in the series. There is a suggested at-the-door donation of $15 for adults and $10 for students and seniors. Children under 16 are welcomed and encouraged to attend at no charge.

"Pipes and Strings," a pairing of organ and a string quartet, will feature musicians of the Newburyport Chamber Music Festival, joined by Margaret Harper on organ. This concert will include the world premiere of a new work by Philadelphia-based composer Scott Ordway, along with works by Jehan Alain, Gyorgy Kurtag, Beethoven, and Bach's famous Toccata and Fugue in D Minor.

Of his commissioned work, Ordway says, "Mistral takes its inspiration from the wind, a force that has defined and empowered maritime communities for millennia and which, in captivity, so to speak, powers the 'King of Instruments.' [This piece] also reflects the relationship between humans and the wind: we are often able to harness this great power, and to live comfortably in its presence, but we can never alter its course."

"It's always thrilling to hear the sound of the mighty pipe organ," notes Margaret Harper, Director of Music and Liturgy, St. John's Episcopal Church. "But the combination of the organ's majesty with the subtlety of string instruments is truly astounding."

Scott Ordway's Mistral brings together these forces in a captivating piece that reflects on a pillar of seacoast life: the wind."

At each performance of Concerts on the Hill, audience members will have the opportunity to hear directly from the performers about the musical selections and the featured instruments.

The next Concerts on the Hill performance, "Expressions of Life and Death," featuring rising star and organist Katelyn Emerson will take place on September 11. St. John's Episcopal Church is located at 100 Chapel Street in Portsmouth, NH. For more information about Concerts on the Hill or St. John's Episcopal Church, please visit www.stjohnsnh.org/COTH.

About Concerts on the Hill

Concerts on the Hill, a production of St. John's Episcopal Church, is dedicated to providing the Seacoast community with concert experiences of the highest caliber, where audiences are invited to engage with music in a dynamic way. The series of concerts from May to October is open to music lovers of all ages, including younger audiences looking to develop their interest in a range of musical styles. Photographer George Steinmetz Headlines Mariposa Benefit

On August 11th, beautiful Lakefalls Lodge in Stoddard will host a benefit for the Mariposa Museum featuring the work of photographer George Steinmetz. The evening will offer the first glimpse into Steinmetz's latest project, Feed the Planet, for which his famous lens and eye have focused on the global food industry and large-scale agriculture.

In contrast, guests will be able to sample the produce and tastes of local farmers and chefs, "celebrating how this part of the planet is fed," said Mariposa Board Chair and Lakefalls Lodge owner Joyce Healy. The event will be held from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and will also feature cocktails, wine and beer, plus raffle items and a silent auction. Bowling to Mother Nature, Healy added that this year's event is planned for inside Lakefalls' Adirondack style lodge, though visitors are welcome to enjoy the venue's lakeside lawns and paths.

George Steinmetz's appearance at the event is made possible by Francis H. Williams. Tickets are limited and are $50 in advance or $55 at the event (subject to availability). Tickets may be purchased on the Mariposa Web site (www.mariposamuseum.org) or by calling (603) 924-4555. The event benefits the Mariposa Museum and World Culture Center in Peterborough, a non-profit organization dedicated to fostering peace and understanding across cultural boundaries through compelling exhibits, programs and performances, and state-wide educational partnerships. The museum's current exhibits include Rich Entel's Cardboard Menagerie (through July 31st) and Different Roots, Common Dreams: NH's Cultural Diversity, featuring photography by Becky Fields of refugee and immigrant residents. The museum is open Tuesdays through Sundays from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. George Steinmetz' photographs are prized by publishers and art collectors alike. The 58-year-old photographer is best known for his aerial views shot from a lightweight one-person paraglider or a tiny two-person helicopter.

Inside Music Series kicks off with two concerts this weekend

Attitash Mountain Resort, Bartlett, NH – Attitash Mountain Resort is now open 7 days a week from 10am to 6pm and starting this Saturday will host the Mountainside Music Series every Saturday at the Attitash Base Area.

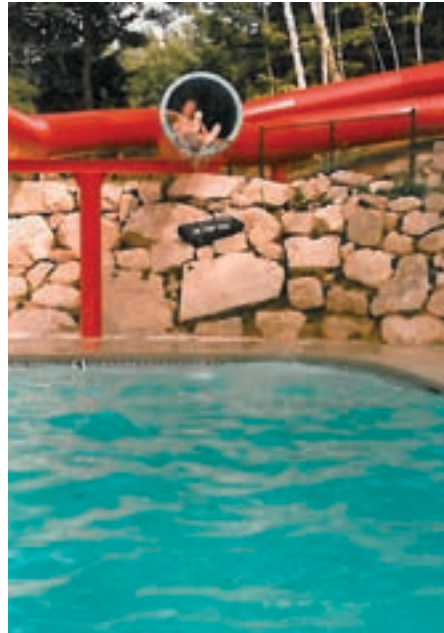

This year marks the 40th Anniversary of the Alpine Slide and summer operations at Attitash. Back in the summer of 1976 the mountain featured the Alpine Slides, The Alpine Garden, a Bavarian-style restaurant serving up luncheon daily, and the Craft Village, a series of 11 small buildings, where craftsmen produced and sold a variety of items at the mountain.

“The alpine slide is an amazing attraction and after all of these years is still one of our most popular attractions,” stated John Lowell, President & General Manager of Attitash Mountain Resort.

When the Alpine Slide made its debut it was called the “Super Slide” and was 4400’ long. Today there are two slides stretching over a mile long providing guests the longest ride in North America.

In its fourth season, the Mountainside Music Series provides live performances on an outside stage for guests every Saturday from 3pm – 6pm through Labor Day Weekend.

Guests visiting Attitash Mountain Resort this summer will also be able to enjoy attractions such as the Mountain Coaster, three water slides, a children’s play pool, slacklines, a eurobungee trampoline, a giant airbag free fall, and New Hampshire’s longest single span zip line the ZipTour.

“The ZipTour is thrilling and in three years easily has become our most popular addition to our summer offerings,” Lowell stated. “The adventure is truly one of a kind, and we’re proud to offer visitors a very unique view of the surrounding White Mountains.”

Guests can also choose to enjoy the Attitash Mountain Resort grounds on the saddle of a bike or horse. Attitash offers over 20 miles of mountain bike terrain on both Attitash & Bear Peaks as well as numerous cross country trails. Those with bikes may access the trail system via lift by purchasing a General Admission ticket. Attitash also offers a full fleet of rental bikes & equipment inside the base lodge for guests wishing to get out on the mountain. Across from main resort are the Fields of Attitash where ▶

Acoustic Duo gives outdoor concert

The Nashua Public Library's final Summer Concert on the Plaza of 2016 will feature pop music by the Bill McGoldrick Acoustic Duo on Thursday, August 11, at 7 p.m. Guitarist Bill McGoldrick graduated from Berklee College of Music and has gone on to play with bands like September, Struggle, and Herb Reed and the Platters. Vocalist Danielle Jean, who owns and operates The Voice Studio in Derry, N.H., has appeared with the New Hampshire Philharmonic Orchestra. She had the honor of performing the national anthem for President George W. Bush. The library concert is free and open to the public. In the event of rain, it will be held indoors. The library is located at 2 Court Street. Visit nashualibrary.org/visit/directions to find out where to park. For more information, call (603) 589-4610.

"ENCORE: the best of Shorts Films" Sat., August 6, 2016

The Rochester Museum of Fine Arts presents "ENCORE: the best of Shorts Films", an evening comprised entirely of audience favorites from past screenings. The event will take place at the Rochester Opera House on Saturday, August 6, 2016 at 8pm (doors open at 7pm). This celebration of movie-making excellence brings together film enthusiasts, filmmakers, and artists, to discover the best in contemporary cinema. The RMFA's Short Film Series has been very successful, attracting large audiences from far and wide. The museum will curate a night containing "only the best" shorts, screened previously. Selections will be made based on audience feedback cards from past events. The RMFA film series, at the Rochester Opera House, is supported in part by Rochester Main Street, NH State Council On The Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts. Tickets $8. Reserve tickets at the box office (603) 335-1992, W/F from 12-5pm and 1-hour before the show. Cash Bar. Under age 18 must be accompanied by an adult. The Rochester Opera House is located in City Hall, 31 Wakefield Street, Rochester NH. Visit www.rochestermfa.org/film or www.rochesteroperahouse.com for more information.

Mt Washington Valley's "watering holes" offer up great natural swimming opportunities

During the dog days of summer escape to one of these many natural watering holes and let the cool mountain streams and lakes cool you off. Mt Washington Valley, NH offers a number of easily accessible free swimming spots and popular "watering" holes". Take note: you swim at your own risk when enjoying these natural offerings.

ECHO LAKE STATE PARK

From North Conway, turn west on River Road, then left onto Old West Side Road. Then follow signs to Echo Lake State Park. The lake is set directly at the base of White Horse Ledge with dramatic views of this well-known cliff. It's one of the few places in Mt Washington Valley where you'll find a sandy beach. There are also picnic areas, restrooms and changing rooms. You can access hiking trails from here, too. This is the only swimming hole where a nominal fee is charged. Admission is $4 for adults; $2 for children ages 6-11; children ages 5 and under and NH residents age 65 and over are admitted free.

DIANA'S BATHS

From North Conway, turn on River Road which turns into West Side Road. You'll pass the turn off for Echo Lake State Park, in just under a mile you'll come to the parking area for Diana's Baths on the left. A self-service pay station which requires visitors to purchase and display a daily pass for $3 on the dashboard of your vehicle. Hike along a well-marked, wide gravel trail about 6/10 of a mile to a wonderful group of cascading falls and pools, waterspouts and granite basins that go for about .75 feet in distance and make up Diana's Baths. This is the ideal way to cool off on a warm summer day. Swimming below the falls is allowed, but is prohibited above them as the public water supply intake pipes are located there. On a warm full-moon night, this is the most romantic spot in Mt. Washington Valley!

bridge. You don't have to go far from North Conway to find a great spot for a dip! Head for the Saco River for your swim, and the adjacent fields are perfect for a picnic, sunbathing or a game of Frisbee. Many people like to bring rafts or tubes and float in the River here as it meanders slowly. This is also a popular place to put-in a canoe or kayak. Chances are, you'll find company enjoying each of these.

JACKSON FALLS

From Route 16A in Jackson, turn on to Carter Notch Road and follow the falls up to a picnic area at the side of the road. Park there and then enjoy climbing out on to the rocks and sitting in any number of small pools created by the falls. On a hot summer day, the gently flowing water will fall over your shoulders for the perfect water massage.

KANCAMAGUS HIGHWAY, LOWER FALLS & ROCKY GORGE

From Route 16 in Conway, head east on the Kancamagus Highway. Seven miles from Conway you'll come to some of the best swimming spots in the Valley. First you'll find Lower Falls, especially popular since it offers both fast and slow-moving water in small falls, small sandy beaches, picnic tables, parking and changing rooms. You can expect to run into fellow swimmers here as it's very popular. Rocky Gorge, is just 2 miles further down the road. Rocky Gorge is another easy walk along the Swift River that takes you over a foot bridge across the Swift River and takes you to a viewing area where there are informational postings. Head for the pools above the falls, as swimming is prohibited in the Gorge. Rocky Gorge offers a 10' drop and rapids through the gorge. This is a very powerful waterway, even during dry weather, making swimming dangerous.

CHOCORUA LAKE

From Conway, head south on Route 16 about 10 miles. Chocorua Lake is on the right. Not only will you find the opportunity for a cool dip, but with Mt. Chocorua at the apex of this lake, the scenery is beautiful. There are two sandy beaches on the east side of the lake. One is open to the public and the other is reserved for town residents.

WESTON'S BEACH

From Main Street in Fryeburg, go north about

3/4 miles to Weston's Farm Stand. Across the street, you'll find a wonderful sandy beach on a curve in the Saco River, and certainly some company enjoying the wading and swimming from here. Again, this is a popular place for canoers and kayakers to put in, and the parking here makes access easy. The river is shallow enough here for the younger set too.

FOUNTAINS AT SCHOULER PARK

While it's not natural and it's not a swimming hole, one very popular place to take the kids to cool off is the playground at Schouler Park, adjacent to the North Conway Community Center right in the center of North Conway Village. Here a built-in sprinkler fountain shoots water at varying heights thrilling the younger kids.

Pygmalion. A comedy by George Bernard Shaw. Running August 3 - August 14, 2016 at Peterborough Players. First presented on stage to the public in 1913, Pygmalion is the story of Professor of phonetics Henry Higgins who makes a bet that he can train a bedraggled Cockney flower girl, Eliza Doolittle, to pass for a duchess at an ambassador's garden party. Shaw's play has been adapted numerous times, most notably as the musical My Fair Lady and the film of the same name. Pygmalion features Karron Graves (NH Theatre Award Winner for The Voysey Inheritance), Greg Wood (Absurd Person Singular), Dale Hodges (NH Theatre Award Winner for Outside Mullingar), and Michael Page (Outside Mullingar, Charley's Aunt).

Directed by Gus Kaikkonen. Rated PG For Box Office Information: Call (603) 924-7585 or Visit PeterboroughPlayers.org to Steampunk at The Cog. Steampunk is a melding of the Victorian age fused with modern technology with a Goth, science fiction, Comic Con edge. Steampunk participants of all ages create a world of modern machines set in the age of steam power. Here, Peppersass and the Victorian age burst to life in a colorful celebration of all things steampunk—including vendors, a fashion show, and a themed steam train ride to the top of Mount Washington. To round out the event, participants and visitors may also view the newly renovated Cog Museum.

Living History Event - Fort Stark

August 20, 2016 Free
Fort Stark Historic Site
211 Wild Rose Lane, New Castle, NH
Phone: 603-271-3556

After last year's very successful one day World War II Living History Event at Fort Stark, it has been decided to expand the event to an entire weekend. In conjunction with the Living History Association, the reenactors hope to portray various military groups from the Revolutionary War until the present. Some of the things which may be presented are: Camp setups, military vehicles, field offices, the home front and displays of military memorabilia which will allow the public to interact and learn about life for men and women during the wars. Reenactors will be dressed in period military and civilian attire to help represent the branches of the military as well as those who supported the war effort at home. The Civil War ladies will demonstrate a camp laundry and ladies' fashions. Other eras will have similar demonstrations which they will present. Some military groups may be able to give a presentation on how to properly load and fire their muskets and military drills may be given at various times during the day.
