Bring in the birds for winter

By Melinda Myers, gardening expert, author & columnist

Brighten your winter days by inviting birds into your landscape. Their beauty and motion help enliven the garden and lighten your spirit. Not only do they provide entertainment, but also an opportunity for all ages to stay involved with nature year-round. Increase the number of visitors to your yard by including all the essentials these winged visitors need; food, shelter and water. Plants are the easiest way to bring birds into your landscape. These natural feeders provide seasonal food and shelter for the birds. Take a walk through your yard and look for trees, shrubs and perennials that provide food and evergreens that provide year-round shelter. Plan on adding a few of their favorites that provide food and shelter and seasonal beauty you can enjoy.

In the meantime, add a few feeders. This is a great way to increase the number and diversity of birds visiting your garden. Place feeders in a quiet, sheltered location where you can easily watch these visitors come and go. Avoid placing feeders too close to plants that provide easy places for squirrels to jump onto the feeders and cats to hide while hunting for a meal.

Select feeders to attract the type of birds you want to bring into the garden.

■ Tube feeders with metal ports keep the seeds fairly clean and dry and are somewhat squirrel resistant. Feeders with short perches attract small birds like chickadees, titmice, and finches. Those with the perches above the feeding port are suitable for birds like goldfinches, chickadees and pine siskins that can feed upside down.

■ Thistle feeders and socks have extra small openings designed to hold the small seeds of thistle. You'll find small songbirds like finches feeding at these.

■ Suet feeders hold blocks of high energy food made of animal fat filled with seeds and berries. They attract woodpeckers, nuthatches, chickadees, titmice, jays and starlings.

■ Platform feeders attract the greatest variety of birds, but give squirrels easy access to the seed. Plus, the open environment subjects the seeds to spoilage from damp weather and droppings from feeding birds. Enclosed hopper or house feeders are attractive to most birds, but once again the seed can be exposed to the weather and spoil.

Be sure to thoroughly clean the feeders monthly to avoid the spread of disease. Cover droppings and spoiled seed on the ground with a fresh layer of mulch.

Add additional feeding stations by dressing up your evergreens with bird-friendly ornaments. You can purchase seed coated ornaments or make your own. Roll an evergreen cone in peanut butter or suet and coat with birdseed. Coat a stale bagel with peanut butter and seed. Hang these on the tree with colorful yarn. Add a few orange slices and strings of cranberries for added food and color. And once the holidays are over move a discarded holiday tree into your bird feeding station. It provides shelter from cold winter winds and makes another place to hang a few edible ornaments.

Keep the birds coming by adding a birdbath for a constant supply of water for drinking and bathing. Shallow birdbaths with sloping sides and a maximum depth of two inches in the center provide easy access for all birds. Keep the water flowing despite cold temperatures with the help of an immersion heater designed for birdbaths or purchase a birdbath with a built-in thermostatically controlled heater.

Peterborough Players inaugural winter season returns in February

Fresh off the heels of the successful run of The Santaland Diaries in December, the Peterborough Players Inaugural Winter Season returns to the stage in February for the final two shows of the season.

Mass Appeal by Bill C Davis takes to the stage on February 1. Starring Gus Kaikkonen and Adam Sowers, directed by Keith Stevens, Mass Appeal is “a tender comedy about the meaning and power of both secular and religious love”. It tells of the close and often times comedic Friendship between Father Tim Farley and an idealistic young seminarian, Mark Dolan. Mark challenges both Fr. Farley’s humorous sermons and some long held traditions of the Church leading to a conflict that raises difficult questions for both men: What is the price of honesty? How far do ends justify means? Mass Appeal runs February 1-11.

The season closes in with Robert Harling’s classic play, Steel Magnolias featuring Lisa Bostnar, Alycia Kunkle, Katelyn Manfre, Kathy Manfre and Pamela White, directed by Gus Kaikkonen. Six strong Southern women gather weekly at Truvy’s beauty shop, where all the ladies who are anybody go to have their hair done. Full of heart and humor, the play is a funny and moving story of love, loss, and enduring friendship. Playwright Robert Harling said “... while gorgeous, magnolias are fragile and bruise easily—qualities often attributed to Southern women. My extraordinary life experiences with my sister and mother showed me that women are indeed gorgeous, but their lives can be fragile. But underneath, they possess a tensile strength stronger than anything I could ever muster.” Steel Magnolias runs February 15-26.

“Our patrons and supporters have been asking us to expand our season for some time now,” says Artistic Director Gus Kaikkonen. “Based on our many conversations the consensus was that February in the Monadnock Region was ripe for some added excitement. We are eager to present these plays as part of our inaugural Winter Season and hope this will become an annual undertaking.”

Single tickets are $39 and a 6-ticket flex pass can be purchased for $180. Both options are on sale now. For more information on the Peterborough Players Inaugural Winter Season, call the box office at 603-924-7585 or visit online at www.peterboroughplayers.org. The Peterborough Players is located at 55 Hadley Rd in Peterborough, NH.

Top ten reasons to visit Mt Washington Valley

Recently USA Today/10 Best readers voted North Conway among the top five ski towns in America. Unlike any other region in the country, the Mt Washington Valley, NH garnered a second USA Today/10 Best award for Jackson Ski Touring Foundation, voted among the top ten XC Resorts in the country. If this alone isn't a great reason to choose Mt Washington Valley for your winter vacation, we'll give you ten more reasons to consider the Valley your premier destination for winter vacations.

13 ski resorts & XC Centers within 40 minutes or less from North Conway. Where else in New England would you find so much variety and terrain than in Mt Washington Valley? With seven alpine ski resorts and six XC Centers, there's the promise of something for everyone. Look for everything from steep and deeps to gentle and beginner terrain. There's back country skiing and snowshoeing, along with scenic wooded trails for XC skiers too.

Plenty of ways to get down the mountain for nonskiers. Not a skier? Fear not. There's so much going on at our ski resorts and XC Centers that there are plenty of options for non-skiers to enjoy the thrill of the trails too. How about a mountain coaster to take you speeding down the hill at Cranmore Mountain Resort. It's just about as thrilling as speeding down the hill on skis or a snowboard. Look for tubing parks at the Cranmore Adventure Park, at King Pine Ski Area, Great Glen Trails Outdoor Center, and at Bretton Woods at the Omni Mount Washington Resort. There's the Soaring Eagle Zipline at the Cranmore Adventure Park and for the ultimate thrill, take in the views from above the canopy of the trees by experiencing the Canopy Tour at Bretton Woods. And for the only winter sightseeing opportunity on Mount Washington, try out the SnowCoach at Great Glen Trails, where you'll take in the winter views from the warmth of this specially fitted van, going up to as high as 4000 feet on the mountain.

Tax free shopping at 200+ shops, boutiques and outlets.

Enjoy post-holiday sales and fill in where Santa might have forgotten at Mt Washington Valley's 200 shops, boutiques and outlets. You'll find everything from apparel and accessories to zippy gadgets and more. Best of all, it's all tax-free. There's no sales tax in New Hampshire.

75 restaurants for après ski and dining

For many, a day of skiing or riding is simply not complete without an evening of après skiing and hearty dining. Mt Washington Valley offers up 75 restaurants, meaning there's something for every palate – even the pickiest. From Italian to Irish to Indian to American, you'll find it in Mt Washington

Valley. Whether you prefer elegant and fine or casual and inexpensive, Mt Washington Valley's dining scene has something for everyone. And keep an eye out for the yellow and black fork and plate flags at restaurants indicating membership in The Valley Originals, a group of independently-owned restaurants that give back to the community.

Sledding – with dogs, on snowmobiles and on coasters. When it comes to sleds, there are many options in Mt Washington Valley. Start out with snowmobile rentals at a choice of a businesses throughout the Valley, offering everything from guided tours to hourly, daily and weekly rentals and accessories. With this year's snow, the trails throughout the Valley ► will offer seemingly endless terrain for snowmobiling. How about sleds pulled by dogs? Muddy Paw Sled Dog Kennel offers year-round dog sledding adventures that range from 2-50 miles. Participants ages 2 and up are given the opportunity to meet and greet our rescue and second chance sled dogs, help harness and hitch their team and even help drive the sled (at musher discretion for guests and dog safety of course)! There are several sledding hills in Jackson and North Conway offering up good ol' fashioned sledding fun. BYO sled!

Sleigh rides. What could be more romantic than snuggling under the blanket of a horse drawn sleigh? The Farm by the River B&B and Stables offers up a variety of carriage and sleigh ride options. Sleigh rides can also be reserved at Bretton Woods/Omni Mount Washington Resort and at Purity Spring Resort too. Many a proposal of marriage have occurred in Mt Washington Valley on these sleighs.

Skating. Show your lift ticket from your day on the slopes or trails at King Pine Ski Area, and you'll be treated to free skating. Lace up the skates and cruise around Purity Spring Resort's illuminated, Zamboni-groomed Tohko Dome ice rink after skiing at King Pine. If you prefer the warmth of an inside rink, or are interested in lessons, free skating or pick-up hockey, the Ham Arena offers year-round indoor skating. Weather depending, you'll also find town-sponsored rinks in North Conway's Schouler Park and in Jackson too.

Live entertainment. From concerts at the Leura Eastman Performing Arts Center and Stone Mountain Arts Center to live performances at M&D Playhouse, Center Stage Theater in Fryeburg, and the Medallion Opera House in Gorham, you'll find plenty of live entertainment in Mt Washington Valley's music and theater venues. In keeping with true tradition, plan to attend Hoot Night at Wildcat Tavern, the longest running open mic in Mt Washington Valley for over 30 years or take in one of the bands on weekends at the Red Parka Steakhouse & Pub, Ptarmigan's Pub at Attitash or the Wildcat Pub. Click here to access the Arts and Cultural Calendar.

A packed events calendar. For many vacationers, the ski destination is determined by the events happening throughout the week. The Mt Washington Valley events calendar is packed during Christmas and February vacation weeks with everything from fireworks to music, family races, and special train rides. To check out the most up-to-date calendar of events in Mt Washington Valley, click here to go to the Mt Washington Valley Chamber of Commerce master Valley-wide calendar.

Plenty of fires to warm your toes by. From cozy inns and B&Bs to larger hotels and resorts with stone lobby fireplaces to outdoor fire pits to cook s'mores by, you'll find a wonderful fire to warm up next to in Mt Washington Valley. Choose from more than 150 lodging properties – many offering in-room private or lobby fireplaces. You'll also find fire pits at some of our ski resorts too.

To plan your winter vacation getaway, go to www.Mtwashingtonvalley.org where you'll find all the resources you need for accommodations, dining, events, shopping, entertainment and more. If you'd like to speak to a vacation planning concierge, call 1-800-DO-SEE-NH (800-367-3364). And to plan a trip to anywhere in New Hampshire, go to www.VisitNH.gov.

Swing & jazz band Honest Millie to appear at the CCA's Spotlight Café 2/10/17

Honest Millie will appear at the Capitol Center for the Arts' Spotlight Café on Friday, February 10, 2017 at 8pm. Playing tunes about frogs, coffee, spies and – of course – love, the band entertains the entire family. The performance is sponsored by Rath Young Pignatelli, The Rowley Agency, Melanson Heath, and RBC Wealth Management.

Drawing from years of rehearsing vocal harmonies in various well-known combinations such as Sweet, Hot & Sassy and Swing a Cat, Honest Millie brings together members of these groups for stellar harmony singing and strong instrumentation. With Valerie Blachly on upright bass, Agnes Charlesworth on piano/keyboard, Lee Anne Ames on saxophone and clarinet, Ellen Carlson on violin, and Jim Prendergast on guitar, Honest Millie brings audiences music from the 1930s, '40s and '50s. There's lots of swing, some blues, and a bit of jazz and bossa.

Tickets for the February 10 performance are currently on sale at $15, plus any applicable fees for phone/Internet orders. They may be ordered by calling the Capitol Center for the Arts at (603) 225-1111 or online at www.ccanh.com. Tickets may also be obtained at the CCA's box office at 44 South Main St., Concord, NH, which is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 11am to 6pm and Saturdays from 11am to 2pm.

Cardboard Box Sled Derby

Start planning now for one of our more fun and creative winter programs, and join us as we team up with the Moultonborough Recreation Department on Saturday February 25th for a Cardboard Box Sled Derby! Work with your families and friends to create your very own sled out of cardboard and try it out on the snow at Castle in the Clouds. Cardboard Box Sleds and riders will be judged on creativity, design, and theme.

Ribbons will be awarded in multiple categories. After the derby, guests are invited to stay and continue the sledding fun. Warm up by the fire pit and enjoy hot cocoa and goodies, compliments of Castle in the Clouds and the Moultonborough Rec Department. In order to practice safe sledding, riders are encouraged but not required to wear safety gear such as helmets and sturdy boots. This free event is open to the public. Donations are appreciated to help us provide additional programs like this one in the future. Please remember to use Ossipee Park Road (the main entrance will be closed.) You can park in our main parking lot and take a short walk to the meadows where the sledding will take place. This event will take place "snow or shine" – we will cancel if inclement weather prevents roads from being cleared. In the event of cancellation, we will post it on our website's home page as well as on our Facebook page.

"Kindie Rock" Queen Laurie Berkner to appear at the CCA 2/11/17 for a family show

Best-selling children's recording artist and preschool television favorite Laurie Berkner will bring her Greatest Hits Solo Tour to the Capitol Center for the Arts at 11am on Saturday, February 11, 2017. This all-ages concert will feature such popular hits as "Bumblebee (Buzz Buzz)," "Victor Vito," "We Are The Dinosaurs," and "Pig on Her Head." As a special treat, the Concord show will be among the first at which Laurie performs songs from her new album, Superhero, which is comprised entirely of all-new songs. Dubbed "one of children's music's biggest success stories" by USA Today, Laurie Berkner's original songs, albums, DVDs, music videos, and books make her the uncrowned queen of children's music and the power behind the progressive "kindie rock" movement. She was the first artist to ever appear in music videos on Nick Jr. and was featured in nearly all the episodes of the channel's Jack's Big Music Show. She currently stars in the animated musical short-form series Sing It, Laurie! on the Sprout preschool channel and has made frequent appearances on Sprout's Sunny Side Up morning show. Laurie is also a familiar presence on SiriusXM's Kids Place Live. The Wall Street Journal called Laurie "one of the most popular children's performers in America ... her music is distinctive because it speaks to kids without talking down to them, charming youngsters without boring grown-ups."

Tickets for the February 11 performance are currently on sale. They may be ordered by calling the Capitol Center for the Arts at (603) 225-1111 or online at www.ccanh.com. Tickets may also be obtained at the CCA's box office at 44 South Main St., Concord, NH, which is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 11am to 6pm and Saturdays from 11am to 2pm.
