Head-On Collision

2nd in two weeks at nearly identical location

For the second consecutive Friday, First Responders were called to a head-on collision on Route 9 near Breezy Point Road. Unlike last week's accident in which both drivers were killed, no serious injuries were reported in this crash. Police reports indicate that Joe Miller, 51, of Brattleboro, Vermont, was driving an Audi eastbound when he crossed the yellow line hitting a Ford F350, driven by Travis Horak of Antrim, traveling west.

Miller was transported to Concord Hospital and subsequently arrested for DWI and Driving after Suspension. He was released on bail with a court date on the alcohol and driving charges. Horak was not injured. Both vehicles were towed from the scene. Hillsboro Police were assisted by the Antrim and Washington Police departments in this incident.

Henniker Police arrest man for attempted abduction

Charges are being filed against a driver after a report of an attempted abduction of a juvenile in Henniker. At 6:15 p.m. on Wednesday, Henniker Police received a call about an attempted abduction by an individual driving a grey Audi. The caller said the car was being driven recklessly on Western Avenue, then saw the car again a few minutes later on Davison Road, where the caller witnessed the driver stopping to speak with a juvenile who was walking. The caller saw the juvenile run from the Audi, and then the car was gone. The caller was able to get the vehicle plate number and provided it to police. Henniker Police notified nearby agencies about the incident along with a vehicle description and plate number. They went to the juvenile's home to check on the child. The juvenile was shaken, but safe. The Audi and its driver were located by Newbury Police and charges are being filed.

Dunkin' Donuts in Bradford is now just Dunkin'

The restaurant closed for renovations early in March. Just before Easter, it was resurrected as a newly styled and slicked-up coffee mecca.

Matt Aldridge, the manager at the Dunkin' in Bradford operated by Sagris Enterprises, said "we brightened up the colors and have given it a more open appeal." He said beverages are now on tap in front of customers, and the baked goods case is "right up on the front counter" instead of on a back wall. Sagris operates four Dunkin' Donuts locations in New Hampshire.

A store in Pasadena, California became the first Dunkin' last August. It was then they announced plans to become a "beverage-led brand and coffee leader." A Quincy, MA location became the first New England store to make the change. Dunkin' Donuts corporate headquarters released a statement saying "the Bradford location is the third of 50 or more new and remodeled Dunkin' restaurants that will test variations of the new design this year." There are 221 Dunkin' Donuts locations in New Hampshire.

Dunkin' Donuts began as Open Kettle in Quincy, Massachusetts, in 1948. Two years later, it became Dunkin' Donuts. According to the company's online history, doughnuts were 5 cents and coffee cost a dime. Now, there are more than 12,000 shops worldwide in 45 countries and they serve 1.9 billion cups of coffee each year.

Their "beverage-led" plan apparently didn't include some of the drink products. The company slashed some items from its menu earlier this year, removing certain food and drinks, including mango smoothies.

Aldridge said Dunkin' in Bradford also has nitro coffee. Nitrogen gas is introduced into the brew, a technique used in some boutique-style coffee shops. "Right now, it's the only one," he said about any future plans to give a new look to an old brand favorite in New Hampshire.

Beverages are now dispensed via tap at the Bradford Dunkin'.

Weare Police Department understaffed with excessive overtime

Weare Police Chief Sean Kelly discussed the issue of overnight coverage now that the warrant article for the 12th officer did not pass. He suggested a couple of options. The first is to have an MOU with the NH State Police to cover the 3 AM – 7 AM shift. The agreement would consist of 4 hours every night at the overtime rate. An additional cost would be incurred if there was a need for extra personnel needed to complete the call. The other document in place is the CBA in which there is specific language for employees to have right of first refusal to work overtime. With the current roster of officers at the current levels, the Town has 70 hours a week of overtime needed to cover that shortfall of staffing. For the next 22 weeks we have to be compelling our officers to work far in excess of what would be beneficial for their health and wellness matters. Both options are in excess of $100,000, and being on a default budget there are no funds. Chief Kelly recommends that the Board have the Town Administrator contact our personnel attorney to review the CBA specifically regarding allowing a consultation between the Town and the Union. That would be his recommendation. Vice Chairman Hippler questioned that after the vote the agreement goes away, correct? Chief Kelly stated that was correct. It was an agreement between the troop commander and the Chief. Mutual aid with the abutting towns was mentioned as a possibility for assistance. The Board agreed to have Town Administrator Bolton contact Town Counsel.

Henniker Select Board Chair Kris Blomback (l) presented Wayne Colby (r) with a proclamation and a clock in recognition of his 18 years of service as Town Moderator.

Peterborough receives $750,000 settlement from engineering firm

The Town of Peterborough has received a $750,000 settlement from a law suit it filed against Woodard & Curran Inc, a firm out of Portland, Maine, claiming the firm "breached its contract with the town and was negligent in its work to close the town's three wastewater lagoons."

According to Peterborough's Town Administrator Rodney Bartlett, the town has received the money and plans to use it toward the closure of two lagoons at the wastewater treatment facility. Peterborough hired Woodard & Curran in 2001 and worked with the company through 2013, to reduce the wastewater treatment facility's effluent discharges in anticipation of more stringent phosphorus, ammonia and total nitrogen levels being handed down from state and federal officials.

Woodard & Curran was hired to reevaluate alternative effluent discharge strategies, making upgrades to the town's wastewater treatment facility, and closing three of its existing lagoons, according to court documents. The project was slated to be completed in two phases; the first was aimed at upgrading the wastewater treatment facility, and the second, to decommission the three lagoons.

Boscawen & Salisbury crimes

On April 11th Troopers from Troop D, along with the State Police Major Crimes Unit, and Boscawen PD executed search warrants and 1 arrest warrant in Salisbury and Boscawen, in relation to numerous burglaries over the last few months. Brandon Beck, age 35, and Salisbury Beck have been arrested and charged with burglary.

A young woman was seriously injured in a one-car crash in Weare on Saturday in the vicinity of 1429 River Road around 3:20 p.m. On arrival, the crew found the vehicle had struck a tree pinning the driver in the vehicle. The Jaws of Life were needed to extricate the driver. The young woman was treated and then transported to Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center via DHART Air Medical Transport.

Sharon (Fife) Simpson resigns unexpectedly

At the end of the March 21st Deering Select Board meeting, member Sharon (Fife) Simpson unexpectedly announced that she was resigning her position. She expressed regret that she was accepting a new employment opportunity that will preclude her from serving on the Board, and further explained that she was also going back to university to complete her undergraduate work. Simpson said that this would be her last meeting. The Board congratulated Ms. Simpson on her new opportunities and wished her well with completing her undergraduate studies and continued success with her career. Simpson noted that she will stay involved with the community.

Haskins appointed Northfield Selectman

On April 3rd Selectmen Wayne Crowley and Glen Brown appointed Scott Haskins to fill the vacancy on the Northfield Board of Selectmen created when Dennis Allen resigned last month. Scott was chosen from a field of 5 residents who filed letters of interest with the town. He will serve the remaining year of Dennis' term and will be eligible for re-election at the March 2019 elections. Scott had deep roots in the community, he owns 4 Daughters Decks and Landscaping in Northfield and is active in the Tilton/Northfield Rotary, Tilton/Northfield Recreation Council, Old Home Day Committee, and many other groups.

Wrong way driver stopped on I-93 in Bow

A Manchester man driving the wrong way on Interstate 93 was forced to a stop early Saturday and charged with DUI. Troopers said they avoided being struck by Allen Peterson, 26, around 4:45 a.m. as his vehicle traveled southbound in the northbound lane of I-93 in Concord. After radioing for help, Sergeant Vincent Grieco was able to catch up with Peterson in Bow and tried to pull him over. Peterson's vehicle didn't stop and again "narrowly" missed striking Grieco's cruiser, according to a state police release. Troopers stopped all traffic in the southbound lane and Grieco was eventually able to use his cruiser to force Peterson to a stop. Peterson was arrested without a struggle and charged with DUI, reckless operation and disobeying a police officer, the release stated. No injuries were reported.

Host family needed for Italian exchange student at John Stark

Henniker and Weare families, if you have room in your home and space in your heart, please consider serving as a host family for a Rotary International high school exchange student the 2018-19 school year. The student is being sponsored by the Henniker Rotary Club. The young man hails from Italy, speaks some English and will likely be enrolled as a junior at John Stark. He will live with two or three host families between mid-to-late August through June.

Families with or without children in Henniker and Weare schools can host. Essentially, he would become like a son to you and as a brother to your own children while in your home. You would provide the same for him as you would your own, although the Rotary Club provides a monthly allowance to the student for personal expenses. Even though a student may be old enough to drive, exchange students in our program are prohibited from driving, so transportation would be part of their needs. We have several club members who can help with that as well. If you would be interested in this opportunity, please contact: Lisa Hustis, Henniker Rotary Youth Exchange Officer at ehustis@comcast.net or call or text her at 603-491-7065.

State of NH overtaxes Salisbury

Tax bills in Salisbury will be higher than they should be this June due to a mistake by the state. The town had proposed removing $79,110 from capital reserves to pay for a new fire tanker in their budget submitted in December, but the agency accidentally included that money in tax rate calculations. As a result, the $24 per $1,000 tax rate should be decreased by 51 cents.

Common Sense Conservative

By JP Marzullo

Our sermon today at church had to do with hopelessness. When I returned home I read in the Sunday paper that homeless tents were demolished. That one homeless camp had been bulldozed this past winter and that city officials in Manchester were taking steps to eliminate two more camps. Apparently downtown business owners have put pressures on Mayor Joyce Craig and Police Chief Nick Willard to address the increasing number of homeless people sleeping on the streets. So help me understand this, there are too many homeless people on the streets in Manchester so they believe the solution is to destroy the homeless camps? What am I missing here? I am very involved at Liberty House in Manchester, a transitional home for our homeless Veterans. We service about 150 homeless people a week, with our priority being our homeless Veterans, however, if we have enough food or clothing left after serving our Veterans we help the homeless. In fact a woman who has been living at her camp on the bank of the Merrimack River in Manchester for about 15 years, mentioned that she gets food from Liberty House and Blessed Sacrament Church that operate food pantries. It is my experience that many of our homeless people would rather live in a camp than in a facility. I would ask that the police and the city officials have some alternative plan for these people before destroying their homes. Yes, I said their homes; a home doesn't have to be a palatial estate and to these homeless people living in a tent by the Merrimack and not bothering anyone is home to them. Unless you have a plan on how to care for them, please leave them alone. We continue to spend literally millions of dollars on the Opioid crisis in NH, not only receiving Federal Funds but also receiving $50 million from NH Hospitals to correct the opioid problem. We have Narcan to revive the heroin addicts when they overdose and it doesn't seem to help since they continue to do it again and again. Yet our solution seems to be to throw more money at the problem. We hire more police officers, enlarge the budgets of our "Safe Stations" and hire more healthcare professionals to deal with the opioid crises. What are we doing for our homeless people? Demolishing their homes. I find that both of these problems have to do with hopelessness and need to be addressed on a different level other than just throwing money at it. Now before you think that I have no empathy for those who are addicted to drugs please understand that I know many, whose family members have died of heroin overdoses or alcohol abuse. I am just saying that it is hopelessness that brings them to despair. Now, back to church and our sermon today, this is what I took away from it. I went home and read Isaiah 58:7 "Is it not to share your food with the hungry, and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter when you see the naked, to clothe them, and not to run away from your own flesh and blood?" Should we not respond to the hungry, the homeless, the prisoner, the debtor, the poor and the hopeless? It's time to take politics out of our lives and take care of each other! You see, I did listen to the sermon this morning and actually plan to do something positive because of it.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I want to thank the residents of Deering for the opportunity to serve as a member of the Board of Selectmen. I have great respect for the trust you bestowed upon me. When I first took office, I equated service with sacrifice. Over time I came to the realization that service on behalf of others is a rare privilege. Community service was difficult and frustrating at times. Yet, it is such a positive experience that I encourage others, particularly women, to step forward and serve. I have no regrets other than having to leave because of opportunities for continued professional and personal growth.

The current team in Deering accomplished much during the last four years. The level of service is up, the amount of debt is down, property values are rising, and our Capital Reserves are well funded. Taxpayers are getting more for their dollar. Deering is seeing a revitalization of the town center ▶ because of our great community volunteers, the annual town BBQ is now a tradition, meetings run smoothly, there is less petty drama and you can feel the blossoming of community spirit.

I have every confidence that members of the board will do their best to appoint someone who will be just as committed to Deering as I, Allen, and Aaron have been. There is never a good time to resign, it is always a difficult decision particularly when you serve with such good people.

It is one of my greatest pleasures in life to have been part of something so important. It is an honor and rare privilege to serve. Thank you for such a wonderful opportunity.

Dear Editor:

Just thought I'd mention, that the intersection of Rt 149 and Bear Hill Roads, need some modification. Three times in the last 2 weeks I've almost been T-boned coming into town by a car coming out of Bear Hill rd. If you're coming onto 149 from Bear Hill, you can't see up 149 because the mill blocks your view. Maybe making that part of Bear Hill a one-way road so the cars can't come up the hill would work, or possibly a stop light. My .02 cents.

Alcohol Awareness Month at Sunapee High

April is National Alcohol Awareness Month. Sunapee Middle High School is participating in various events during the week of April 16-20 recognizing alcohol awareness. Events planned include a mock vehicle crash caused by an impaired driver, discussions on the effects of alcohol, drinking and driving, alcohol abuse and its impact on families. Students will also have the opportunity to wear goggles while operating the Sunapee Police Department's golf cart which will simulate the effects of alcohol impairment while driving. There will also be a crashed vehicle on display outside the entrance of the school for all to view which will be used in Lt. Cobb's presentation of the demographics of a car crash. The Fire Department will demonstrate an extraction of a crash victim using the jaws of life.

Northfield may dismantle its skate park

The Selectmen discussed the future of Northfield Skateboard Park at their recent meeting. The skate park, located in Surrette Park off of Park Street, was built by a group of volunteers approximately 15 years ago. The town provided space for the park on the condition that volunteers equip and maintain the facility. Little maintenance has been done in recent years and the facility is no longer safe to use. There are holes in many of the ramps and the fence has started to come loose from its support structures. Because of these conditions the Selectmen closed the facility last month, only to find that people have been using bolt cutters to gain access. At their meeting of April 3rd the Selectmen agreed that unless volunteers step forward to help repair and maintain the park it may have to be dismantled as it continues to be unsafe. Persons interested in helping to maintain the park should call the Town Administrator at 286-7039.

Epsom considering full-day kindergarten

A committee in Epsom is looking into the costs and logistics involved in expanding to a full-day kindergarten program in fall 2019. According to Alison Scheiderer, who sits on the school board and committee, was formed after a parent came to the school board in the fall asking them to consider moving to a full-day program. The group has talked to Chichester, Allentown and Barnstead to learn from their experience. The committee estimates a full-day program would require the district hire one additional teacher and one additional paraprofessional, for a total of about $135,000 in new spending, with $10,000 of that cost as one-time supply costs. The committee is expected to present its recommendation to the school board in June.

Statins used for the treatment of high cholesterol may have other beneficial effects, but there has been reluctance to prescribe them to patients with liver disease because of concerns that they may cause abnormal liver enzyme levels in the blood. In a new Alimentary Pharmacology & Therapeutics analysis of data from the Danish National Patient Registry, patients with cirrhosis of the liver due to alcohol had a 43% lower risk of dying prematurely than patients not on statins. The results add to previous studies indicating that statins might help patients with chronic liver disease, including cirrhosis.

Antidepressant medications, most commonly prescribed to reduce depression and anxiety, increase the risk of death, according to new findings published in the journal Psychotherapy and Psychosomatics. Most commonly used antidepressant treatment for depression blocks the absorption of serotonin by neurons. However, all the major organs of the body — the heart, kidneys, lungs, liver — use serotonin from the blood stream. Antidepressants block the absorption of serotonin in these organs as well. The researchers reviewed studies involving hundreds of thousands of people and found that antidepressant users had a 33% higher chance of death than non-users. Antidepressant users also had a 14% higher risk of cardiovascular events, such as strokes and heart attacks. Taken by one in eight adult Americans, antidepressants are among the most frequently used medications. They are often prescribed by family doctors without a formal diagnosis of depression, on the assumption that they are safe. Since depression itself can be deadly — people with depression are at an increased risk of suicide, stroke and heart attack — many physicians think that antidepressants could save lives by reducing depressive symptoms.

NEC actively seeking Mount Ida students

New England College has set up a streamlined admissions process, including automatic acceptance, for students of Mount Ida College in Massachusetts, which will shut at the end of this academic year. The Henniker college said current Mount Ida students, as well as those already admitted for the upcoming fall term, can receive automatic acceptance with no application fee, including "transfer of all their academic credits" and "degree completion in the same amount of time as would have been the case at Mount Ida for the same or similar majors." NEC said Mount Ida students "will be offered financial aid that results in the same net cost of tuition, fees, room and board as at Mount Ida, renewable each year until graduation."

Lock-Down at Hillsboro-Deering High

On Wednesday, there was a threat on a bathroom wall at the Hillsboro-Deering High School. The building was evacuated immediately to the Middle School. The State Police in conjunction with the Hillsboro Police and Fire Departments conducted a search and the building was cleared for re-entry. The students had lunch at the Middle School and then returned to the High School, resumed their schedules and enjoyed an assembly with Recycled Percussion at the end of the day. The students, faculty, administration and first responders all did an excellent job.

Business as usual at Island Park this year

Voters of both Northfield and Tilton agreed at Town Meeting to explore transferring ownership of a shared island to the town of Tilton, but taking the necessary steps will be a long and expensive process, so there will be no operational changes this year, according to Northfield Town Administrator Glen Smith. Northfield-Tilton Island Park lies in the middle of the Winnepesaukee River, which serves as both a county and a town line. Tilton is in Belknap County, while Northfield is in Merrimack County, and ownership of the island is shared.

Colby-Sawyer presents Honorary Degree to Senator Jeanne Shaheen

Colby-Sawyer College will celebrate its 180th Commencement on May 5, graduating approximately 265 undergraduate students and recognizing them and other individuals for academic excellence, outstanding contributions to society, and service to the college and community. The ceremony will begin at 10:30 a.m. on the college's front lawn.

Colby-Sawyer will also graduate its first cohort of graduate students in its Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.) program. The 21-month M.S.N. program, developed in collaboration with Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, meets the demand for the education of the advanced generalist nurse as a Clinical Nurse Leader and is structured around the quality and integrity standards of the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education's Essentials of Master's Education in Nursing.

For her dedication to the state of New Hampshire, for her leadership and service to its citizens, and for being a champion of access to quality education at all levels, Colby-Sawyer is proud to recognize U.S. Senator Jeanne Shaheen (D-NH). Senator Shaheen will offer remarks during the Commencement ceremony.

Senator Shaheen is the first woman elected both Governor and U.S. Senator in American history. She completed three terms in the New Hampshire Senate before winning her first of three terms as Governor in 1996. After serving as director of Harvard University's Institute of Politics' Kennedy School of Government, she was elected to the U.S. Senate in 2008, where she is a member of the Senate Committees on Armed Services, Foreign Relations, Appropriations, and Small Business and Entrepreneurship.

Students planted a blue pinwheel around the Sugar River Valley Regional Technical Center and Newport Middle High School as a part of the "Every child matters" initiative to prevent child abuse and neglect.
