New Youth Councilor

Please join us as we welcome our newest Support Staff member. Mr. William Sherman has joined the support staff at Hillsborough Youth Services. Bill is a laid back, positive, friendly, retired Military Veteran who is eager to connect with his community and Hillsboro-Deering Youth. Bill has spent time as a youth counselor, raised a large wonderful family, and enjoys volunteering for his church.

Sean Michael Powers RIP

10 years today we lost a great man who's infectious humor and dedication to his family was unpresidented. You aspired daily to help others in any way you could as a Friend, Son, Police Officer, Marine and one of the best lil brothers one could ask for. RIP Sean Michael Powers we love you and miss you.

Since the Main Street Rebuild Goffstown Police have been cracking down on speeders. Not really, but this photo was too cute not to print.

Neighbors helping neighbors

Area libraries will serve Hopkinton & Contoocook

Hopkinton is a small town and New Hampshire is a small state, which still values the spirit of neighbor helping neighbor.

That spirit was never more evident than when the libraries in Concord, Dunbarton, Hillsborough, Warner, Weare and Webster have all made their resources available to Hopkinton and Contoocook residents, after the lightning strike and fire that devastated the Hopkinton Library last week. In Henniker, both the town and New England College offered up their libraries.

Some libraries will provide a temporary card to anyone who brings in identification proving they live in Hopkinton or Contoocook. Others are simply honoring Hopkinton library cards. The library will be closed for several months while the fire-related damage is repaired. To keep abreast of progress, visit the library's news blog at htlnews.blogspot.com.

Hillsborough: First time on the market in nearly 70 years. Well-maintained Victorian on nearly an acre in town, close to post office, library, churches, school and park. Four or five bedrooms, 3 bathes, very large eat-in kitchen. Fifth bedroom can be a 2nd floor office with direct entry from outside. Formal dining room has large windows and a built in glass front china closet. The den has a striking granite fireplace, hand-hewn beams cathedral ceiling, curved bar and mini-frig. Laundry room, jacuzzi tub and separate bathroom on the first floor. Hallway leads to barn and room for one car plus. Front entry has a stained glass window, double closet and flows to double living room with 9' ceilings, hardwood floors and two bow windows for lots of light. Custom molding and extra storage upstairs too. Third floor attic. Outside has many varieties of flowering trees and bushes and an in-ground heated pool with new liner and pump. Perfect for a large family or a B&B. There's an additional building lot adjacent to this property being sold either separately or together. Historic Hillsborough is located about half way between Concord and Keene, less than an hour from the Manchester airport, and is within 10 miles of two ski areas. Lots of recreational opportunities and well as being well positioned to many scenic and historic areas. $299,900

New England College Economic Impact reaches $161 Million locally

A new economic impact study shows that New England College contributes significantly to its host community of Henniker, NH, and the surrounding region, directly enhancing the local economy and quality of life for local businesses and citizens. The study found that New England College generates $161 million in economic impact each year for the local community. In addition to direct and indirect expenditures, New England College pays $403,000 annually in local property taxes, making the College the largest property tax payer in Henniker.

“As a not-for-profit, private, higher education institution, New England College plays a key role in positively impacting our local and state community,” said President Michele Perkins. “We work hard at being a good neighbor and community partner. We provide high quality jobs and draw students and families into the area who likely would never visit Henniker if the College was not located here.”

New England College has an annual operating budget in excess of $55 million and a payroll of almost $15 million. The report highlights New England College’s economic investment in the local community, including an estimate of student and family community expenditures of $2.7 million annually.

The study also estimates that New England College employees spend over $1 million locally each year at local retail stores and restaurants. With over 585 full and part-time employees the College estimations are likely below the actual impact on the greater Henniker community.

“This important report confirms what we have known for a long time, that institutions like New England College have tremendous economic, educational, and social impact in their local communities,” said Mike Vlacich, President of the New Hampshire College & University Council (NHCUC), a statewide consortium of public and private colleges and universities in Concord, NH. “Not only do New Hampshire colleges and universities, like New England College, provide world-class educational experiences for their students, but they also provide vital support to their local communities, the state, and the country.”

President Perkins added, “Small, private, non-profit colleges generate significant economic benefits for their communities that may not be well understood by our neighbors, government officials, and other stakeholders, which makes this report so necessary. We appreciate all the benefits of being located in Henniker, NH, and look forward to being an important part of the community moving forward.” In 2021 New England College will celebrate the 75th anniversary of its founding in Henniker.

A copy of the New England College Economic Impact Report can be found on the College’s website at: <https://www.nec.edu/economic-impact-report>

Two New Boston weathervanes, one on the Town Hall and the other on the Old Engine House.

New Boston Historical Weathervane talk

"New Hampshire on High: Historic and Unusual Weathervanes of the Granite State." If you want to know which way the wind is blowing, look to the rooftops of New Hampshire barns, churches and town halls. For a fun and engaging look at weathervanes from earliest times to the present, the Historical Society invites you to the New Boston Community Church on Thursday evening, September 13th at 7:00 pm. Glenn Knoblock will speak about the history of weathervanes, their symbolism, and their evolution from practical weather instruments to architectural embellishments. On display will be a historic Fire Department weathervane which was atop New Boston fire stations for over one hundred years. After the program, cross the street to the Historical Society museum for ice cream sundaes and to see our exhibits. New Boston Historical Society programs are free and open to the public.

Bow Safety Center paving bricks sale

The Bow Public Safety Supporters are once again having a brick fundraiser for continued landscaping at the Bow Safety Center. You can have your name or business engraved on a brick that will be permanently displayed at the front of the building. What a great way to leave a lasting impression. Bricks are available in two sizes, 4" X 8" for $ 75.00 and 8" X 8" for $ 125.00. The bricks, engraved with your message, will be installed in Spring of 2019 (weather permitting). If you have any questions, please email Tonia Lindquist or you can call her at 223-3910. Please place your order by December 31, 2018.

Goffstown Police arrest man who fled scene

Goffstown Police arrested Jesse Rondeau, 27, of Manchester for driving as a habitual offender and for having left the scene of a head-on, three-car collision that injured three last month in Goffstown, according to police. Authorities had been looking for Rondeau, maintaining that he had fled the scene of the three-car crash on Back Road on July 21. Officers arrived and found the male operator of a Nissan with serious injuries. A passenger of that car was also transported to an area hospital with unknown injuries. The third person brought for evaluation was a passenger in the Nissan Xterra that officials said Rondeau had been driving.

Representative Daniel Eaton (D-Stoddard) reprimanded by NH House

New Hampshire Public Radio has reported that Rep. Dan Eaton of Stoddard, one of the longest-serving Democrats in the New Hampshire Legislature, was reprimanded earlier this year after a State House employee reported that he had engaged in “a long pattern of behavior” that created a “hostile work environment.”

The complaint alleges Eaton, 62, came into her office on April 26 and said to a colleague, “If you want to have a fun day, just walk into the room and tell [the complainant], I’m male - and I suck. Because she hates all men.” When the complainant confronted Eaton, “he laughed and said, ‘I’m just messing with you,’” according to the complaint. The complainant wrote that she replied, “Yes, you are,” and then left the room. “This is just one incident in a long pattern of behavior that has made me feel uncomfortable. He constantly refers to me as ‘the old bat’ and sometimes the ‘granny in the corner,’” the complaint reads. Eaton has served 14 terms in the House, has been a member of the powerful House Finance Committee for a decade and served as floor leader for the House when Democrats held the majority.

He has also served on the Executive Committee of the New Hampshire Democratic Party and was police chief of his hometown of Stoddard for more than a decade in the 1970s and 1980s.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

Less than half of patients received their insurer's approval for prescriptions of PCSK9 inhibitors, according to new research in the American Heart Association's journal Circulation. PCSK9 inhibitors, like Repatha (evolocumab) and Praluent (alirocumab), work by increasing the removal of low-density lipoprotein (LDL) or "bad" cholesterol from the blood. They have been shown to reduce LDL by 60 percent and decrease major cardiac events but cost much more than other cholesterol-lowering drugs, with an average cost of $14,3000 per year. Prescriptions require prior authorization by health insurance companies. The most significant factor associated with approval rates was insurance type, with the lowest approval rates for private insurance and the highest approval for Medicare.

New research examines the safety of mefloquine (Lariam) for preventing malaria in travelers. A Cochrane review brings together over 50 randomized and non-randomized studies, enrolling over 1,000,000 people, and compares mefloquine with all the alternatives in common use. While mefloquine was found to be at least as effective as other options, there can be no doubt that it does cause more sleeplessness, abnormal dreams, anxiety and depressed mood than the alternatives.

A new study published in JAMA Internal Medicine has found that use of the blood thinner warfarin was associated with lower risk of any cancer and of three of the most common cancers (prostate, lung, female breast) compared to warfarin non-use. In the subgroup of people using warfarin for atrial fibrillation or atrial flutter, cancer risk was lower at any size and in all four common sites (lung, prostate, breast, and colon). Warfarin is a widely used anticoagulant prescribed to as many as 10 percent of adults in Western countries.

Hometown Heroes

Towns share Homeland Security training

NH Homeland Security & Emergency Management joined with local partners for two days of AAIR (Active Attack Integrated Response) Training at Kearsage Regional Elementary School in New London, hosted by the New London Fire Department and conducted by NH Certified Instructors. 30 police, fire, EMS and dispatch officials from Andover, Charlestown, Lebanon, Merrimack County, Newbury, New London, Sunapee, and Sutton participated in the training

Deering Rescue Captain Debra Boyll has successfully completed her Advanced Emergency Medical Technician (AEMT) Course and is now a Nationally Registered AEMT. She put in countless hours of hard work to successfully complete this course. It took her 208 hours! Many hours of classroom work, labs, riding with busy EMS agency, as well as interning at a hospital emergency department. Well done EMS Captain/AEMT Debra Boyll! Congratulations!

Center Woods and Weare Middle School set for opening

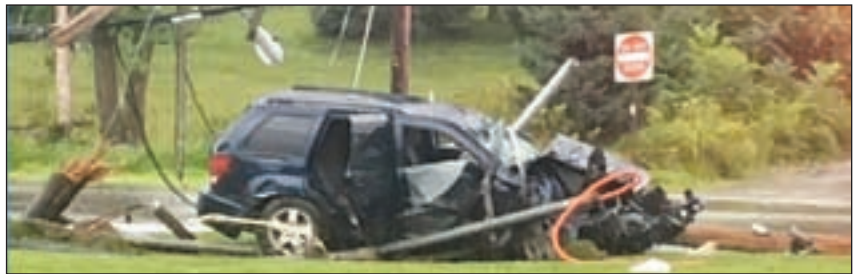

Weare Middle and Center Woods Upper Elementary Schools will share the same start and end times this year with a 7:30 AM start and 2:05 PM end time each day in both schools. "This change to a shared time will allow for a better learning environment for both schools. When we were on different schedules, the building would be noisy for those in class while others were coming to school or leaving for the day. It also lends for greater collaboration for staff across the whole building," said the Interim Principal of Weare Middle and Center Woods Elementary Schools Shawne Hilliard. "It allows more professional growth opportunities due to the consistent end of day schedule," she continued.

Also new this year in the Middle School is what administrators are calling E-Cubed alternatives. What is E-Cubed? "It stands for Enriching, Engaging, and Extending learning opportunities for our middle school students," said Interim Principal Hilliard. During this time each day, 7th and 8th grade students may take a language (French or Spanish) or select classes with expanded learning experiences from all content areas (science, math, reading, writing, and social studies). Sixth grade students do not take a language, so they will have six offerings to choose from for expanded learning for the school year.

"Last year we held scheduling workshops with community members and staff to see what we needed to add or change about our schedule," said Mrs. Hilliard. "We took those suggestions and were able to create a school day that allowed Weare Middle School to have consistent Flex Block times, E-Cubed opportunities, recess for 6th graders, and in 7th and 8th grade, a 15 minute scheduled outdoor break," she continued." Deans Phil Matzke and Brett Gottheimer and I are excited for the new school year for all the students in our shared building," concluded Mrs. Hilliard. Parents of 4th and 5th grade students (CWUES) please check the Weare Middle School bus schedule for bus stops and times. Bus routes are available on each school's website.

A portion of Route 114 was closed last Wednesday night after a vehicle struck two utility poles. The blue SUV, which was badly damaged in the crash, also took out a fence in front of Weare Middle School. There is no word on any injuries from the crash at this time. Police have not released further details, saying only that the accident remains under investigation."

Judge rejects aggravated DWI plea deal

Joseph Mays, 30, of Keene has been charged with aggravated DWI and DWI following an accident on November 10th, which seriously injured Merissa Aldrich, 33, of Peterborough and her 3-year-old daughter in a head-on crash in Hancock. Mays' case was scheduled sentencing on a plea arrangement, but the judge rejected the deal, saying the case should go to trial. A trial date is not scheduled at this time.

Hopkinton traffic detoured near dam

A portion of Route 127, Maple Street, in Hopkinton will be closed to through traffic from Monday, August 20, for about 10 weeks while a penstock can be replaced. The project is part of an upgrade of Hopkinton's hydroelectric dam, a detour that uses Interstate 89 and U.S. Route 202. Route 127 will still be accessible from both sides, but you won't be able to drive through. The 1-megawatt power plant that uses the penstock will be upgraded, during this time.

Congresswoman tours Newport Health

Rep. Ann Kuster toured the Newport Health Center Monday and spoke with local health care providers about the issues facing them. Bruce King, CEO of New London Hospital, of which the Newport Health Center is an affiliate, reminded Kuster that one year and eight months ago, the new building on John Stark Highway opened where the old clinic once stood. The $9 million facility was built with $2 million in local support. It provides primary care and a wide range of outpatient services, including minor surgical procedures, women's health care, lab, and EKG.

Loudon's Big Apple store closing soon

The Big Apple Store in Loudon, next to New Hampshire Motor Speedway, will shut its doors resulting in six employees losing their jobs. CN Brown, the company that owns Big Apple, told employees that business has declined since New Hampshire Motor Speedway surrendered one of its two major NASCAR races to Las Vegas last year. Some of the Loudon workers had been offered positions at the Big Apple Store in Tilton.

Governor Chris Sununu tours Newport on "Governor's Day"

Tuesday was "Governor's Day" in Newport as Gov. Chris Sununu toured the Sunshine Town with Newport native and author of "The Sunshine Initiative" Jay Lucas. The Governor began the event with a noon tour of the Newport Mills on Sunapee Street. He then joined a large group of business people for a walking tour of several area businesses, where he listened to their views and concerns on the town's economic future.

By 2:00 PM the group had filled the Sugar River Bank Community Room for a question and answer session, followed by a return to Sunapee Street for a tour of the Ruger facility.

Peterborough Detox Center approved by Planning Board

The Peterborough Planning Board has given final approval to a proposed 64-bed detox center. The 1810 Realty Group, plans to build the detox center at 25 and 30 Bridge Street, behind the Peterborough Plaza off Route 101. Developers obtained a variance from the ZBA in June, which allows the detox center to operate in the village district, leaving a site plan review by the Planning Board as the last approval needed before the center can be constructed. The facility will be about 30,000 square feet, and hold 32 beds for detoxing patients, and 32 for those post-detox, transitioning to the next stage of treatment. The facility will provide between 50 and 70 new jobs for the area.

Publisher's Perspective by Leigh Bosse

What A Contrast

At the recent Major League Baseball All Star Game, the League hosted 30 Medal of Honor recipients as part of pre-game festivities. As the National Anthem played they, plus all the players stood, not only in respect of these recipients, but of all who served under this flag. By contrast, as the NFL Pre-Season opened, the league is still not addressing the disrespect kneeling during the Anthem represents. A league that banned Tim Tebow from kneeling to pray is hypocritical enough to permit this slap in the face to America and all it stands for.

of the Dallas Cowboys who said those who kneel will not play. If these spoiled millionaires are so concerned, where are their protests in the off season?

Certainly bigotry and racism remain in America, certainly there are incidents of police overreaction, but both are rare and becoming increasingly rarer. When they occur, we should all protest in the loudest and most visible way possible.

Yes, America once condoned slavery, but please remember - white America elected Barack Obama - there are not enough black voters to do so alone.

Guest Editorial

Politically Tone-Deaf Marchand

By Tony Giunta, Mayor City of Franklin, NH

Last week we observed a former one-term Portsmouth Mayor, an outsider with gubernatorial ambitions, lecture the citizens of Franklin about “dumping” their voter approved tax cap. It would have served him well to learn that the City’s tax cap was last approved here with 80% of the vote. And since its 1989 landslide incorporation into our City Charter, “the cap” has also been approved by the citizens of our sister cities of Nashua, Laconia, Dover, Rochester, and Manchester.

Not only is this little-known politician wrong on policy, but he didn’t even have the common courtesy to contact our local police or fire departments, or even return calls from the City manager’s office to inform them of his so-called “rally” on City property.

With such disregard for public safety (and sound fiscal policy), we can only imagine what havoc his administration would unleash upon the citizens of the State of New Hampshire. Every Franklin taxpayer who received their new property assessment letter this past weekend knows how important our tax cap is when it comes to ensuring fiscal sanity in future city spending. Perhaps the former one-term Mayor should have talked to more of them before advocating to run roughshod over our city charter!

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Weare and Deering need good representation in the New Hampshire House of Representatives. In the Republican primary on September 11th, six candidates will be running for the three seats available. One of them stands out and deserves our support: Keith Erf.

Keith is a small businessman; he owns and operates his own software business in Weare. He’s married (to Louisa), and his four grown children attended Weare schools.

He’s involved in town affairs. He’s served for many years on the Weare Finance Committee, where I’ve worked with him in making recommendations to voters on money items on the town and school warrants. He’s knowledgeable, he’s thoughtful, he’s reasonable, he’s fiscally conservative, he believes in smaller government. And he’s an all-around nice guy ▶

-- someone who's easy to talk to, someone who listens thoughtfully. He'll serve us well in the State House.

Please join me in supporting Keith Erf on September 11th.

Dear Editor:

Return to civility, indeed. Leigh, I expect better of you. You have painted a whole party with a very broad brush. I'm as bothered by the behavior of some "Democrats" as you, and have been advocating for new leadership of the party for some time now. Please don't paint those of us who still hold to the historic ideals of the Democratic Party with the same paint you use for the outliers of the party. I won't hold you responsible for the worst the Republican Party has to offer.

John V. Kjellman, Henniker

I have valued your opinion for years, but must disagree. Please name a single leading Democrat who has condemned Kathy Griffins or Maxine Waters. For that matter, where is your letter condemning them? LDB

I wish he would stop tweeting, but the results speak for themselves. Surprisingly, this was broadcast on CNN.

Goffstown rejects changing name to "Select Board"

The Goffstown Selectmen, on a 3-2 vote, decided to keep their current name, rather than changing it to the Select Board. Chairman Peter Georgantas joined members Mark Lemay and John "Allen" Brown in the majority.

"I don't see any reason to change something that we've had in this town for no reason," said Georgantas. "There's no reason for it, there's nothing that's compelling us to do it except that it sounds good, I guess? I'm not really sure."

The change was first proposed by Goffstown resident Karen Hewes in July. She said that changing the name from Board of Selectmen to Select Board would be a move toward a more gender inclusive environment. Selectwoman Kelly Boyer, who joined Seletman David Pierce in the minority, asked Town Administrator Adam Jacobs to research the impacts that a name change would have on Goffstown's government. Jacobs said that the change would have a minimal affect on the town, saying that things like text on the town website and the banner on the town's government internet video stream could be changed within the week.

While Jacobs noted that the board would likely require new stationary and other physical signage, he estimated that the cost of new supplies would range somewhere between $100 and $200. Jacobs reported that at least 40 other New Hampshire towns that have made the change to Select Board.

Late rally drops Goffstown from Regionals

It was looking so promising for Goffstown, the New Hampshire state champions which had a five-run lead entering the bottom of the sixth inning Friday in Bristol, CT. Their pitcher had allowed only three hits, and with just three more outs, the team would play for the New England Championship. It wasn't to be as Coventry, RI scored six runs to stun Goffstown, 6-5, eliminating the team from the Little League New England Regional.

Goffstown Junior Baseball Registration

Goffstown Junior Baseball Fall season registration is now open. TBALL - If you have kids ages 4 to 6 please sign them up for the fall TBall program, our goal is to have these kids play on the TBall field, so we need a good turnout. We want a high number of TBall kids so we can have them play at the TBall level. If we don't get high numbers we will need to combine the TBall kids with the Farm kids.

FARM - If you have kids ages 6 to 8 please sign them up for the fall Farm program. If you have kids that are just turned 8, or will be next spring, you will have the option to have them sign up for Minors. Fall baseball is a good time to have these kids try Minors. If you have kids ages 8 to 10 please sign them up for the fall Minors program.

We want a high number of Farm kids so we can have them play at the Farm level. If we don't get high numbers we will need to combine the TBall kids with the Farm kids.

MINORS - If you have kids that are just turned 10, or will be next spring, you will have the option to have them sign up for Majors. Fall baseball is a good time to have these kids try Majors.

MAJORS - If you have kids ages 10 to 12 please sign them up for the fall Majors program.

INTERMEDIATE 50/70 (12 to 13 yr olds) - GJB will be offering kids 12 to 13 that have aged out of our program this year the opportunity to play in a 50/70 fall baseball league. These teams will play against other towns within our district on 50/70 size fields.

Please go to goffstownjrbaseball.com website and register by August 15. We will be putting teams together and will start playing early September. If you are interested in coaching or helping at any level please let us know.

Giunta leads effort to override veto

Franklin Mayor, Tony Giunta is one of eleven of NH's 13 mayors who support a letter to legislators asking them to override Gov. Chris Sununu's vetoes of two energy-related bills. The letter, drawn up by Giunta and Mayor Karen Weston of Dover asks the House and Senate to reverse the governor's position on Senate Bill 365, which would have required utilities to purchase power from New Hampshire's six independent biomass power plants; and Senate Bill 466, which would have expanded net metering – a system that allows smaller power generators to get credits for electricity they send to the grid. Supporters say the bills would have resulted in cheaper energy. Detractors saw them as subsidies that are passed on to consumers, driving up the cost of electricity in the state. Only Laconia's Ed Engler and Concord's Jim Bouley have declined to support the effort.

45th Annual Newport Apple Pie Crafts Fair

This 45th Annual Apple Pie Crafts Fair on the Newport Town Common is being held August 25th from 9 Am to 3 PM. Every year, more than 2000 New Englanders make their way to Newport from all around the state of New Hampshire, and New England to enjoy more than 100 booths of handmade crafts, including pottery, woodworking, glass, fiber arts and more. The fair also features live music, an apple pie contest & sale, and the Firemen's Famous Chicken Barbecue. In addition to all of the festivities on the Town Common, fairgoers will also enjoy the Richards Library Festival that features an outstanding book sale, cookie walk, crafts for kids, a children's tent, and lunch on the library porch.

Supreme Court to hear NHMS concerts

After losing in Merrimack County Superior Court, Jim Snyder and two other Canterbury residents have appealed to the New Hampshire Supreme Court, saying they believe NHMS should not be allowed to host a country music festival next summer. They cite an agreement with the track made in 1989 that doesn't allow stand-alone concerts. But in May, a Superior Court judge ruled that only applies to the grandstands and racetrack, not the southern end of the property that was purchased later, where the concerts would take place next summer. The trio is currently representing themselves and said they are optimistic about their chances.

Newport Rotary Club donates $3,000 to Newport Senior Center

The $80,000 remaining funds to be raised for the Newport Senior Center's renovation project was reduced this week to $77,000 thanks to the many volunteers of the Newport Rotary Club. The Newport Rotary Club held a Penny Sale recently and part of the proceeds were donated to the Newport Senior Center renovation project.

Seniors went to the weekly Wednesday meeting of the Newport Rotary Club to accept their donation. We also had the added pleasure of listening to their guest speaker who spoke about memberships for clubs or organizations and how important it is to let others know what an impact they are having on the community and the world. This has been something we have been discussing ourselves.

The presenter of the check, Bruce Jasper, stated he was not sure if the $3,000

they were donating was a big help or a little help. To us, this is a great help. We know that the volunteers of Newport Rotary spent many hours to prepare such a successful event that we were the benefactors of and the fact they cared enough about the Newport Senior Center to consider us worthy of their hard work is appreciated more than words can describe.

The $77,000 remaining was further reduced to $76,000 when the center received notification that it was successful in obtaining a $1,000 grant from the Hope Foundation.
