Weare Police Sergeant Austin Maguire and Officer Paul Lewis IV were recently presented the John "Jack" Maguire Medal of Honor Award by the New England Police Benevolent Association "in recognition of their many years of dedicated service and commitment to the citizens of Weare, NH and your fellow officers of the Weare NH Police Department.

K-9 Officer Ruby RIP

It is with a heavy heart that the Law Enforcement Division announces the tragic loss of one of our beloved K-9's, Ruby. Lieutenant Bill Boudreau and K-9 Ruby have been patrol partners since 2012 serving within the southwest corner of our state. Ruby has been sick over the past several months. Ruby was born on April 23, 2011, and became Lieutenant Boudreau's partner on June 19, 2012, when their close devoted relationship and training began. In August of 2012, Lieutenant Boudreau and Ruby were nationally certified in fish and wildlife detection, human tracking and evidence and article detection after successfully completing an intensive police K-9 training program. Lieutenant Boudreau and Ruby have continued their extensive training on a weekly basis for the past seven plus years.

The State Police Major Crimes Unit investigated the death of a Hillsborough father and his four month old daughter.

Tragic deaths in Hillsborough

Responding to a 911 call Sunday night, investigators found the bodies of 4-month-old Makenzie Deuse and her father, 39-year-old Miles Deuse inside their apartment at 45 Bridge Street in Hillsborough.

The baby's mother, Tasha Moore had arrived home from work, discovered the tragedy and made the 911 call. The Major Crime Unit arrived and put up caution tape blocking the front and back doors.

Tasha's sister described Miles Deuse as "a loving father, and a good man to Tasha. He encouraged her to continue her education, and provided support when she didn't believe in herself. He always treated Tasha's first born daughter Aubree like she was his own, loved her and treated her like his family."

An autopsy on Monday revealed that Miles died from a gunshot to the head.

Authorities say the cause and manner of Makenzie's death has not been determined pending further studies and investigation.

The Deuse & Moore/Hermis families are planning calling hours Saturday 3-6 at Holt-Woodbury Funeral Home, Hillsborough. Any funds raised will go directly to funeral costs. gofundme.com/f/funeral-costs-for-loving-father.

Bradford couple seeks answers to their daughter's death

A Bradford family is searching for answers after their daughter was killed in a crash in North Carolina last week. Morgan Patten, 24, was traveling to visit her fiance, and her parents said they don't know why she was in the vehicle that crashed. Patten flew into Jacksonville, North Carolina, and checked into a hotel. She wouldn't be able to see her fiance until he was cleared to leave the nearby Marine base the next day. She told her parents she was getting dinner at the Applebee's in the same parking lot as her hotel. Investigators told her parents that at some point, Patten met two other Marines. The Marines left the restaurant, and she later left alone, but somehow, she ended up with them in a truck that crashed and Patten was killed.

Help the Hillsboro Lions Club feed our needy neighbors this Christmas

Messenger Publisher and former Lions Club President, Leigh Bosse is pleased to announce that for the 25th consecutive year, The Messenger, in conjunction with the Hillsboro Lions Club, will be conducting its annual appeal to readers to fund the distribution of Christmas Food Baskets to needy families in the area.

For several years, Hillsboro churches, with donations from area, civic groups, had distributed approximately 100 holiday food baskets to needy families three times each year; at Thanksgiving, Christmas and again at Easter. In the fall of 1994; it was decided to concentrate on Thanksgiving and Easter, primarily because of lack of funds.

Realizing the tremendous hardship that would result, the local Lions Club and The Messenger agreed to step forward and provide this service each Christmas season. Individuals or organizations who wish to contribute to this neighbor to neighbor project may do so by sending their check, payable to "Lions Food Baskets," to The Messenger, P.O. Box 1190. Hillsborough, NH 03244.

Donations of any size are urgently needed. Those who donate to this worthwhile program will be recognized by having their names published in a future edition of The Messenger.

Warner receives $37,850.20 in unanticipated revenue

Chairman Carson opened the public hearing at 7:08 pm for public input on the town receiving municipal aid in the amount of $37,850.20. This money came about as a budget agreement on the State level. There was extra money allocated to municipalities. There are no restrictions on the aid and is for the town as they best see fit. The expectation is to use the money to cover operating expenses in 2019. Martha Mical requested that when the Board makes the decision on what they are going to spend it on, they make the list public. John Leavitt was concerned it is coincidental that 37,000 is almost exactly what the town voted to reduce the operating budget by last year. "If your using it to spend on items that would've come out of the operating budget, its going against what the town voted on. The Board accepted the funds.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Xofluza (baloxavir marboxil) for the treatment of acute uncomplicated influenza (flu) in patients 12 years of age and older who have been symptomatic for no more than 48 hours. This is the first new antiviral flu treatment with a novel mechanism of action approved by the FDA in nearly 20 years. With thousands of people getting the flu every year, and many people becoming seriously ill, having safe and effective treatment alternatives is critical. This novel drug provides an important, additional treatment option. Flu is a contagious respiratory illness caused by influenza viruses. When patients with the flu are treated within 48 hours of becoming sick, antiviral drugs can reduce symptoms and duration of the illness. While there are several FDA-approved antiviral drugs to treat flu, they're not a substitute for yearly vaccination.

According to research presented at the 122nd Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Ophthalmology, people with type 2 diabetes who took a common diabetes medication, metformin, had a significantly lower rate of age-related macular degeneration (AMD). The study suggests that the anti-inflammatory and anti-oxidative effects of metformin can protect against AMD while it controls diabetes.

Mayo Clinic researchers have found that an oral drug, apixaban, used to treat blood clots in patients undergoing cancer therapy, is safe and effective. The drug was associated with fewer major bleeding events and fewer recurrent blood clots, compared to low-molecular-weight heparin. Their findings were presented at the annual meeting of the American Society of Hematology.

KNOWLEDGE OF DENTAL SEALANTS

Dr. Esin Narli-Trangaris

Dental sealants applied in childhood can help prevent cavities, but knowledge of the availability of sealants and their function is not widespread. A new study assessed knowledge of dental sealants among U.S. adults and adult parents of children younger than 18 and the differences in knowledge among demographic and socioeconomic groups.

Knowledge of dental sealants was assessed by sex, age, race/ethnicity, education, household income, and parental status. Multivariate analysis was conducted by using a main effects logistic regression model.

Overall, 46.3% of adults and 55.1% of parents of children younger than 18 had knowledge of dental sealants. Sealant knowledge was highest among parents, women, respondents aged 45 to 59, and respondents with incomes greater than 200% of the federal poverty level and more than a high school education. The strongest predictors of parental sealant knowledge were race/ethnicity, sex, and income.

Recent attention to health literacy highlights the complex relationship between knowledge and actions that support health. A recent analysis of sealant prevalence in children found that among high-income parents (at or above 100% of the federal poverty level), sealant prevalence increased with parental education (a proxy for health literacy). Because oral health literacy is required to make informed health decisions and can affect receipt of services, determining public knowledge of the purpose of sealants is important.

The researchers concluded that disparities in sealant knowledge correspond to disparities in sealant prevalence. Increasing knowledge among low-income and racial/ethnic minority parents could reduce disparities in sealant prevalence and untreated caries.

H-D School Board approves Extended Learning Opportunities

At the recent H-D School Board meeting school Career Counselor Katelyn Cashorali made a presentation about ELO (Extended Learning Opportunities) where students can receive credits for participation in programs outside of the traditional classroom.

All programs must be pre-approved and monitored and are developed with specific goals in mind. Using mentors and resources throughout the community or independent study, travel or private instruction, students can gain knowledge in areas where classroom instruction doesn't exist. Currently there are 54 students that are participating and the hope is that at some point all students will be part of the program.

High School Principal Jim O'Rourke and Middle School Principal Mark Peterson spoke to the Board regarding a single start time for all schools. They explained that there is a great deal of data supporting a later start time that is currently at Hillsboro-Deering. Currently some H-D students must be at their bus stop by 5:40 am. Behavioral issues, lower test scores and increased traffic accidents were all sited as side effects of very early start times. High School schedules with the students attending Vocational Education in Concord would be better aligned and have more class time in Hillsboro. Superintendent Hassett stated that H-D has one of, if not the earliest start times in the State.

Everyone seemed to agree on the advantages of a single (later for High School and Middle School students), but the down side is that in discussing the bus routes, the bus company said that it would take at least more busses for a cost of $201,000.

The Antrim Fire Department could do little to save the workshop at the Cahoon residence at 230 Pleasant Street. The fire consumed the workshop and everything in it, including a tractor and their tools of the trade.

Warner Select Board OK's $1,000 to church

Martha Mical informed the select Board that the the United Church of Warner has received double the requests for Thanksgiving Baskets this year and the Church was wondering if the town would be willing to donate towards the baskets. Chairman Clyde Carson asked if there is any precedent for that? Martha said the Church has never had to ask before, any amount would be appreciated. Last year the requests were for 75 baskets, this year it's for 150. Judy Newman-Rogers said the money can come from the municipal aid money, and moved to provide $1,000 from the municipal aid fund to the United Church of Warner for Thanksgiving Baskets which passed unanimously.

Repairs to SAU Building delayed until Spring

Superintendent of Schools Winfried Feneberg provided a response to the New London Board of Selectmen regarding repairs to the outside of the SAU building. He informed the Board that the renovation project schedule was developed in the most cost-effective manner possible and is expected to be completed in the summer. The renovations to the inside of the building are fully underway. The outside work, including the new entrance and repairs to the side of the building, will be started in the spring; it was determined that doing the work in the winter would be more costly than in the spring. Superintendent Feneberg asked for the public's understanding of the process and offered to answer questions that might arise.

Kearsarge Middle School water contaminated

Superintendent Winfried Feneberg reports that the Kearsarge Regional School District is taking action after one faucet at the Kearsarge Regional Middle School tested positive for elevated levels of a regulated chemical called PFOA. While the district has been notified that this is not an emergency situation, the district has placed all water fountains out of service at the middle school. Additional testing is also underway at all schools in the district.

Antrim Tax Rate reduced $1.00 to $26.97

Antrim's tax rate has been reduced by a dollar. The 2019 tax rate is $26.97, down from last year's $27.97 per $1,000 assessed value. The town portion of the tax rate decreased 4.34 percent, from $11.05 to $10.57. The county portion decreased 4.2 percent from $1.18 to $1.13. The state school portion of the tax rate increased 3 percent from $2.03 to $2.09, and the local education portion decreased from $13.71 to $13.18, or 3.87 percent.

Henniker Select Board seeks to preserve assets & encourage business growth

The Henniker Select Board spent much of Tuesday's meeting planning for the future. Margaret Blank Project Engineer for Underwood presented the Asset Management Plan for the Wastewater System.

In order to plan for the repair and replacement of the $30 million system, Underwood recommends that the Base Rate for Sewer be raised from $240 to $250, semiannually the Base Gallons be decreased from 17,000 to 15,000 and the overage charge be increased from .20/gallon to .33/gallon.

The Board took it under advisement. Town Administrator, Joseph Devine, briefed the Board on RSA 72:81 and RSA 79E, both designed to give businesses a strong, compelling reason to either open shop in Henniker or expand an existing Henniker business. RSA 72:81 provides incentives to businesses to build, rebuild, modernize, or enlarge within the municipality.

RSA 79-E provides short-term property assessment tax relief and a related covenant to protect public benefit as provided under this chapter are considered to provide a demonstrated public benefit if they encourage substantial rehabilitation and use of qualifying structures, or in certain cases, the replacement of a qualifying structure. Devine also reported that Superintendent Bergeron is having trouble keeping the swap shop operational because of lack of staffing. He recommended that they close the swap shop for wintertime and design a volunteer program. The Board voted to close the shop as of December 1st.

Weare Selectwoman Sherry Burdick (standing) presents the town's Boston Post Cane and a proclamation honoring her mother Estermary Hadley, 96, as the town's oldest resident. She was joined by her older brother Howard Towne, 100, the Boston Post Cane holder in New Boston.

Publisher's Perspective by Leigh Bosse

Support your local businesses

Here are several reasons why it is more important than ever that we all shop locally this holiday season.

1. Protect Local Character and Prosperity: By supporting locally-owned businesses, you help maintain our unique community. Can you imagine Henniker without the Pharmacy? Hillsborough without Eaton's? Bradford without Barns? New London without Peter Christians, Newport without MJ Harrington's, Goffstown without Sully's, Franklin without Grevoirs or Antrim without Antrim Lumber?

2. Community Well-Being: Locally owned businesses build strong neighborhoods by sustaining communities, linking neighbors; and by contributing to local causes. Edmunds, Clarke's Hardware, New Boston Hardware and Lumber Barn carry the same quality products as Lowes or Home Depot and they support our Lions, Rotary Clubs, schools and churches.

3. Local Decision Making: Local ownership means that important decisions are made locally by people who live in the community and who will feel the impacts of those decisions. Wymans, Benson's Unique Ford, Hillsboro Chrysler and Hillsboro Ford do more to support local scouts and youth athletic organizations than big city dealerships.

4. Keeping $$ in the Local Economy: Dollars spent in locally-owned businesses have three times the impact on the community as dollars spent at national chains. If you buy a snowmobile from Livingstons you support Gene and Steve as they give back countless hours and services to the community. Buying a chair or sofa from Grevoirs or Eatons as oppose to Bob's Discount, is recycled locally many times.

5. Jobs and Wages: When shopping locally, you create jobs and promote community development. Locally-owned businesses create more jobs locally and generally provide better wages and benefits than chains do. You can buy them in Concord or Keene, but if you buy a snowblower from Tyler's, or a tool box from Goffstown Hardware, you keep local people employed who also spend their money in town.

6. Support Entrepreneurship: Entrepreneurship fuels our economy and elevates our families. Eating at Peter Christians, Tooky Mills, Bubba's, The Franklin Studio, The Local, Foothills, or Daniel's does more to keep our neighbors employed and our communities flourishing than the same meal at Longhorn or Olive Garden,

7. Product Diversity: A multitude of small businesses, each selecting products based on the needs of local customers guarantees a broader range of product choices. Have you seen the selections at Hubert's, or Morse Sporting Goods"? They carry the same great products as Dick's or Cabela's and their profits are recycled locally.

Hopkinton volunteers again restocked the Sean Powers Wood Bank.

The 2019 H-D-Hopkinton Redhawks. Congratulations on a great season!

#1 Seeded Lebanon Raiders defeat Redhawks in Division III Semifinals

#1 Lebanon 41, #5 H-D-Hopkinton 0: Even the high powered Redhawks offense was no match for the tenacious Raiders defense.

After seeing Colby Quiet runs for four touchdowns in the Redhawks' win over No. 4 Monadnock, the Raiders knew that stopping him was goal #1 if they were to advance to the championship game. Every time Quiet touched the ball, multiple Lebanon defenders were zeroed in on him. Coach Jay Wood gave credit where it was due.

"They just outplayed us today. They were the better team." he said

The 6th and 7th grade football team, the Junior Varsity, from the Kearsarge Wildcats program won the Granite State Football League championship this past weekend.

Make room for your passions: How to maximize your garage space

(BPT) - Did you know over half of Americans (59%) feel that engaging in hobbies helps relieve stress? This was one finding in a survey of over 3,000 Americans conducted in 2017 by Kelton Global on behalf of Gladiator, the nation's leader in customizable garage and household organization solutions. While work and family obligations may prevent many from pursuing their favorite activities, the survey revealed that another factor acting as a roadblock was having enough space to store equipment or supplies needed for hobbies. Whether you love biking, crafts or other activities, chances are you need easily accessible space to store your gear. Here's where your garage comes in. The same survey found that 3 out of 4 Americans prioritize storage as the leading use for their garage - but that 28% of Americans can't even fit a car in their garage because of the clutter. What's the solution? Get motivated to optimize your storage space so you can easily access all the things you love to do. Once you've rid yourself of the clutter, you can start clearing out even more floor space for your vehicle, woodworking bench, arts and crafts or drum kit for your garage band.

Here are some smart ways to make the most of your garage.

1. Figure out your needs: First, determine how much room your vehicles take up, then map out how much floor space you'll need for any other items, such as a work bench or space to maneuver items you use frequently. Group the items you want to store in your garage according to category, then get ready to create more storage possibilities for all your gear.

2. Optimize your walls: Take a good look at all the wall space that's currently being unused in your garage. Fortunately, there are solutions for your walls that don't involve building bulky shelving that further encroaches on your floor space. For example, the Sports Caddy GearTrack Pack by Gladiator can hold much more than just basketballs and baseball bats. It installs easily on the wall and includes a ball caddy, which holds up to 25 pounds, that you can use for anything from helmets to sleeping bags, bags of potting soil or other bulky items you want kept off the floor. It also has two scoop hooks for heavier sports gear, backpacks, purses, garden tools and more.

3. Foldaway storage solutions: Another versatile option is to use a storage product that can transform from a wall installed storage cabinet to a sturdy work surface. Gladiator's Ready-Assemble Foldaway Work Station provides both a space-saving storage cabinet and a functional work surface that can be mounted to their GearTrack or GearWall for easy wall storage. The versatile work station can be used as a gardening center, paint station or as a cabinet for power tools.

4. Look up: There's another area of your garage that is most likely underutilized - the overhead space. To safely use overhead storage space in your garage, you'll need a very secure, heavy-duty solution like the steel Overhead Storage Rack made by Gladiator, which has a weight capacity of 750 pounds spread across 96 cubic feet of storage space. The unit is flexible, and its height can be adjusted so you can lower the rack for easier access. With smart solutions that use every area of your garage both safely and efficiently, you can make the most of your garage this year. Optimizing your garage storage space allows you to make more room in your life - for all the things you really love to do.
