Two Bees or not Two Bees

Henniker Community School hosted both their Spelling and Geography Bees the first week of February. Peter Bill (8th grade) took top honors as the 2020 Henniker Spelling Bee winner with the word "fungi." During the school's Geography Bee, top honors went to another 8th-grade student, Brody Jones. Both Peter and Brody will now compete in the respective state bees.

Ryan Flaherty, JSRHS sophomore participated in the Capital Area Student Leadership 2020 Program offered by the Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce.

Henniker Municipal Budget up 17%

Select Board declines support for Tucker Library requests

During Monday's Public Hearings, the Henniker Select Board trimmed its proposed budget slightly to $5,628,228, an increase of only $199,794 or about 3.6%; never the less, with several other big ticket items on the warrants, taxpayers are facing a 17% increase in the Municipal Tax Rate alone, without adding the school portion.

The 2020 Warrant also includes requests for $177,949 for road improvements, $1,047,501 for a series of Expendable Trust Funds, a $350,000 Bond to install a new water line under Route 202 and a $3.2 million Bond for improvements to the Waste Water Treatment Plant. Originally the tax rate was set to increase 23% from $10.28 to $12.68, but after applying $250,000 from the 2019 Unassigned Fund Balance, the increase was reduced to $12.05 or 17%.

To the surprise of many, the Select Board, while supporting the Tucker Library's requested $229,379 Operating Budget, declined to support the Trustees requests for $109,250 to continue the design and planning of the accessibility project, and $30,000 to hire a fund raising consultant.

Hopkinton budgets $1,862 million for 3 year teacher contract

A relatively small crowd attended Wednesday's public hearing on Hopkinton's School and Municipal budgets.

School voters are being asked to support an operating budget of $21,416,331, which was approved by a 3-2 School Board vote and a 7-3 Budget Committee vote.

A new 3-year collective bargaining agreement with the teachers calls for raises of $307,669 in 2020-2021, $315,149 in 2021-2022, and $309,462 in 2022-2023. Total three year cost is $1.862 million. A smaller contract with the custodial staff is also up for approval.

Voters will also debate and decide whether to adopt the provision of SB2.

Henniker and NEC returning to normal after 3am shooting

The atmosphere in Henniker and on the New England College Campus is returning to normal after three people were shot early Sunday, prompting a campus-wide lockdown. Two women and a man, with non-life-threatening injuries were found on Bridge Street at about 3 am. Merrimack County Attorney Robin Davis said that the two women were students at New England College.

All three shooting victims were taken to Concord Hospital, where they were treated and released.

Local and state police responded and secured a perimeter around the scene, and students received a campus alert text saying there was a report of a person with a gun at Colby Hall. The notice advised students to shelter in place until further notice and lock their doors.

Wayne Lesperance, New England College vice president for academic affairs, said that the college is encouraging students to reach out to their parents and let them know that they're all OK. He added later that counseling services would be available Sunday and Monday at the Simon Center.

Henniker/NEC shooting update

County Attorney Robin Davis and Henniker Police Chief Matthew French have released additional information regarding the incident that occurred at approximately 3:00 a.m. on Sunday, February 9, 2020 at 4 Bridge Street in Henniker, New Hampshire. The investigation to-date has revealed that this shooting was an isolated incident involving attendees of a house party in Henniker in proximity to New England College. At approximately 3:00 a.m. on Sunday, February 9, 2020, a firearm was shown and discharged twice during an encounter at the party which resulted in injury to three individuals. At this point, it does not appear that the victims were targeted. This was an isolated incident; however, the exact facts relating to the discharged firearm remain under investigation. As an added precaution, there will be a heightened presence of local, county and state law enforcement in Henniker and New England College.

As we go to press, the suspect is still at large.

Henniker Selectmen issue statement on recent shootings

The Town of Henniker Board of Selectmen would like to thank the numerous first responders and law enforcement agencies who responded to Henniker and assisted in the morning hours of February 9, 2020. Some of these agencies include NH Homeland Security, NH Attorney General's Office, Merrimack County Attorney, NH State Police, and many more. We would also like to thank our local first responders which included the Henniker Police, Fire and Rescue Departments.

Henniker Board of Selectmen Chairman Kris Blomback said "The safety of our community is one of our top priorities and we have heard from some residents about the lack of information being provided and the timeliness of it." "We understand the frustration and concern expressed. However, we would like to remind our community members that this remains an active police investigation and some information cannot be shared at this time. We would also like to take this moment to assure the residents of Henniker that there is no known imminent threat to the community," stated Vice Chairwoman Tia Hooper. Since this remains an active investigation, Henniker residents will see an increased police presence in the downtown area for the next few days.

We thank you for your understanding and your support. We will keep you informed as additional information becomes available.

Antrim Select Board supports hiring a 6th Police Officer

With fewer than 20 people attending Antrim's Budget Hearing, comments were predictably low, although discussion of the police budget brought a number of questions from Selectman Michael Genest to the police chief, particularly about the need for a 6th full time officer.

Chief Scott Lester explained that although the budget included a 6th officer in 2018, he didn't add it into the budget for 2019 because so many other towns around Antrim had full time openings. Now those positions have been filled and there are more qualified people looking for openings.

Many members of the public argued that having full time coverage is an important safety issue and Antrim shouldn't have to rely on mutual aid. John Robertson read letters of support for the police department and in the end, the budget article was passed 3-0 by the Select Board.

Weare's Ava Whitney is a nine year old girl who was enjoying her love for horses on Feb. 10, when she suffered a head injury resulting in emergency surgery. She was airlifted to a Boston hospital where she is currently in a coma. Her family is hoping for their baby girl's full recovery. Please consider a donation to help support the family so they can focus on Ava's healing. Any amount appreciated. All funds raised will go directly to Ava's medical expenses. <https://www.gofundme.com/f/medical-funds-for-ava-whitney?>

Antrim Police Chief Scott Lester outlined the need for an additional Police Officer.

Our presenters are New Bostonians Deb Jardine, a great-granddaughter of William Fiske, and her husband Dick Jardine, formerly a professor at West Point and Keene State College. Program is free and open to the public. Refreshments served at the Historical Society museum, across the street. Business meeting to follow.

Judge dismisses suit against Peterborough

The Superior Court has dismissed a lawsuit against the Town of Peterborough by the former Recreation Director, claiming he was wrongfully terminated. Jeffrey King claims that he was fired by the town in August after he was accused of harassment and taking a "prurient" photograph at the town pool. King claims he was denied his due process rights to defend himself against false allegations when the town fired him "for cause." Judge Amy Messer ruled in favor of the town, saying that Jeffrey King has no due process rights as he was an "at will" employee, meaning that the town could fire him for cause, or no cause, at any point.

Goffstown man's DWI demolishes bobhouse

Peter Gosselin of Goffstown was driving a snowmobile on Lake Winnepesaukee Friday night, when he crashed into the side of a bobhouse, which was ripped apart with two people inside. Fortunately, no one was hurt. Meredith and Center Harbor firefighters, Stewart's Ambulance Service, Meredith Police, and conservation officers from the state Fish and Game Department responded to the crash. They found the fishermen helping Gosselin walk off the ice. Gosselin was arrested and charged with driving while intoxicated and driving with a suspended license. The crash is still under investigation, but the Fish and Game Department statement noted that the bobhouse had the required reflective material on all four sides and had an exterior light on when the snowmobile hit the hut.

Peterborough man injured in Antrim crash

Justin Stonesifer, 28, of Peterborough was driving a Ford Explorer on Clinton Road in Antrim last Thursday when he lost control due to bad weather and drifted off the road. He was taken to Monadnock Community Hospital in with minor injuries, while his Ford Explorer was towed from the scene.

Hopkinton Select Board proposed spending increases Tax Rate by 7.87%

During Wednesday's Public Hearing on Hopkinton's municipal budget, Select Board Vice Chair Ken Traum announced that the Board has set a goal of limiting any spending increase to 4%; unfortunately, they were unable to achieve that goal.

The town's 2020 municipal budget is being proposed at $7,703,736, an increase of $421,350 or 5.79%. However, if the budget and all warrant articles are approved, the total tax rate would increase by 50 or 7.87%.

Those articles include: A $2.2 million Road Bond, $819,000 deposited into 13 Existing Capital Reserve Funds and $71,500 into 3 Expendable Trust Funds.

Voting will take place at Town Meeting on March 21st at the Middle/High school.

Crotched Mountain ends daycare

Crotched Mountain School has announced that it will close its Wonderworks daycare facility this week with no plans to reopen the indoor pool. According to Marketing and Communications Vice President David Johnson, officials made both decisions reviewing which programs the finances could support. The pool was closed in July, and the decision to keep it closed came after several months of searching unsuccessfully for a potential partnership throughout the fall, Johnson said. "Wonderworks, the daycare at Crotched Mountain School, had been serving between 15 and 20 children, toddlers through pre-K. The program had been open to the public as well as families of staff members, and was supported by other funds and revenues within the school," Johnson said.

Greenfield Fire Department recently transported a patient to a landing zone at Oak Park, to the right of the gazebo, to meet the DART Helicopter for transport to a level 1 Trauma Center.

Small group attends Bennington's Deliberative

Less than two dozen people attended Bennington's deliberative session, making only a minor change to the wording of one article. Article 2, a zoning ordinance amendment, was amended to say that the full text is available in the town offices rather than attached to the warrant. The solar tax exemption on the warrant was approved with minimal discussion. Voters approved appropriating funds for a fire truck, rescue vehicle, police cruiser, and highway heavy equipment. Voting will be held on March 10 from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. at Pierce Elementary School.

The Hillsborough Police have assigned their newest cruiser to K9 Gibbs (and his handler too). The extra room for gear and the 4WD capability make the truck an ideal K9 vehicle.

Deering approves PILOT Agreement with Solar Revision Impact Partners

At the 2019 Town Meeting Deering voters again reinforced a commitment to renewable energy by approving the town enter into a Power Purchase Agreement with Revision Solar Impact Partners, LLC and voted to establish the Solar Energy Expendable Trust Fund.

On December 19, 2019 the Selectmen executed the Power Purchase Agreement with Revision. The town will make necessary roof shingle repairs in the spring and the Solar facility will be mounted in the second quarter of 2020.

RSA 72:74 allows owners of renewable generation facility and the governing body of a municipality to enter into a voluntary agreement to make a payment in lieu of taxes for not more than five years.

If the town assessed the facility the cost of the taxed would be rolled into the energy rate, the town will pay for energy generated by the facility, raising the energy cost for the town and in effect paying its own tax. The PILOT agreement of $100 a year demonstrates Revision's corporate responsibility without raising the expected energy cost.

The Agreement has been vetted by both parties' legal counsel and the Selectmen support.

After hearing all comments and questions, the Select Board unanimously approved the agreement.

As a life-long Republican, I didn't expect to agree with much of what was promoted, but as a proud American, I was saddened and disappointed that the Democratic National Committee refused to post an American Flag on the dais during the debates. LDB

Publisher's Perspective by Leigh Bosse

Henniker Taxpayers Insulted & Ignored

If our Republic is to survive, elected officials must trust their constituents and those constituents must have faith that their voices will be heard by honorable representatives acting in good faith, in the best interests of those constituents.

As we all know, the "Trust Gap" between the two has grown wider and wider with each election cycle as congress routinely sacrifices the good of the country in favor of party bickering and political posturing.

Unfortunately, this lack of trust is now infecting even the most local forms of government. At last Tuesday's Deliberative Session the Henniker Community School Board slipped through a proposal obligating taxpayers to a $2 million installation of solar panels on the school. Traditionally such a major, new capital expenditure would be presented to voters as a bonded warrant article requiring a 2/3 vote of approval. Not trusting its community, the board structured the project as a 15 year lease, which requires only a majority vote.

This back-door tactic is unfortunately legal and is exactly the process the Hillsboro-Deering School Board recently used to fund its own $2 million capital project.

The Henniker Board members should be ashamed of themselves. Their lack of trust is a slap in the face of taxpayers and an insult to our very form of government.

The only way to send them a message is your resounding NO vote at the poles. Tell them to do it correctly the next time.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor-The Messenger:

I had submitted my name to be a candidate for the Hillsborough Planning Board. I have since decided not to run and understand that it is too late to take my name off the ballot. If you put a notice in the paper concerning town candidates, please post that I have rescinded my candidacy.

Police found May to be in possession of Heroin, Methamphetamine and in possession of a stolen 9mm Handgun. Upon placing May under arrest May resisted but was quickly subdued and charged with Possession of a Controlled Drug, Transporting Drugs in a Motor Vehicle, Receiving Stolen Property - Firearm, Resisting Arrest, and Felon in Possession of a Dangerous Weapon. May was held without bail and transported to the Valley Street Jail in Manchester. May was not injured during the collision; the vehicle he was operating sustained heavy front-end damage and was towed from the scene.

REDUCING INDOOR HUMIDITY

By: Joyce Bosse

- If your basement has a dirt floor, cover the floor completely with plastic to slow down water vapor coming through the soil.
- Use ventilation fans in kitchens and baths to control moisture. Check to make sure fans vent directly outside. In some cases the vent fan may have been installed to vent into the attic or become disconnected or blocked.
- Your clothes dryer should be vented directly to the outside. Inspect the vent duct. Make sure it is attached securely to the dryer. Check that it is clear of obstructions (e.g. lint). Check for holes that leak air. If your vent duct is damaged, replace it with a metal duct. The vent duct should be cleaned at least once a year.
- Ask a heating and cooling contractor to check your heating and cooling system to make sure it is sized and operating properly to remove humidity. If your system is too big or the airflow incorrect, your air conditioner will not remove humidity as it should. Also, ask the contractor to check your duct system for air leaks, and proper size and air flow to each room.
- Sealing air leaks and sealing duct air leaks can help to prevent high humidity levels in your home.
- During hot humid months, using a dehumidifier in the basement can reduce condensation on the walls. This may work better after you've sealed air and duct leaks to reduce the amount of humid outdoor air you are bringing into the basement.

WHAT HAPPENS DURING A ROOT CANAL?—PART V

Dr. Esin Narli-Trangaris

You will need a root canal if your tooth has damage to its dental pulp, the soft tissue that surrounds nerves in the center of the tooth.

The most common causes of pulp nerve damage are:

- Infection. This is often caused by tooth decay (cavity) reaching the nerve or a cracked tooth. This can allow harmful bacteria to reach the nerve, resulting in infection and decay.
- Injury. An injury to a tooth or the jaw can cause damage to sensitive nerve tissue in the tooth.

Without treatment, the infected dental pulp will spread to the bone around the tooth. This makes it unable to hold the tooth in place.

Alternatives to a Root Canal

The only alternative to a root canal procedure is having the tooth extracted and replaced with a bridge, implant, or removable partial denture to restore chewing function and prevent adjacent teeth from shifting. These alternatives not only are more expensive than a root canal procedure but require more treatment time and additional procedures to adjacent teeth and supporting tissues.

Root Canal Prevention

Since some of the reasons why the nerve of a tooth and its pulp become inflamed and infected are due to deep decay, repeated dental procedures on a tooth and/or large fillings, following good oral hygiene practices (brushing twice a day, flossing at least once a day, and scheduling regular dental visits) may reduce the need for a root canal procedure. Trauma resulting from a sports-related injury can be reduced by wearing a mouth guard.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved the first generic version of Advair Diskus (fluticasone propionate and salmeterol inhalation powder) for the twice-daily treatment of asthma in patients aged four years and older and maintenance treatment of airflow obstruction and reducing exacerbations in patients with chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD). According to the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute, asthma is a chronic lung disease that inflames and narrows the airways. Asthma causes recurring periods of wheezing (a whistling sound when you breathe), chest tightness, shortness of breath and coughing. The coughing often occurs at night or early in the morning. Asthma affects people of all ages, but it most often starts during childhood. In the United States, more than 26 million people are known to have asthma; about seven million of these people are children. COPD is a progressive lung disease that makes it hard to breathe and may become worse over time. COPD can cause coughing that produces large amounts of mucus, wheezing, shortness of breath, chest tightness and other symptoms.

Patients at high risk for heart attacks, strokes and blood clots who were treated with a novel blood thinner (apixaban) and an antiplatelet drug such as clopidogrel had a significantly lower risk of bleeding and being hospitalized compared with patients who received an older blood-thinning medication such as warfarin, according to research presented at the American College of Cardiology's 68th Annual Scientific Session. In addition, patients who received clopidogrel without concurrent aspirin, which has been standard for these patients, had an additional 47 percent reduction in bleeding events with no increase in heart attacks, strokes or blood clots when compared with patients who received aspirin.

Hillsborough Planning Board offering four Zoning Amendments

This year there are four Planning Board warrant articles on the 2020 Town Meeting ballot. The first two pertain to the definitions of “Dwelling Unit” and “Family”. The dwelling unit article clarifies the definitions of “Single Unit”, “Two Unit”, “Three and Four Unit” and “more than Four Unit” dwellings. It also states clearly that only one “Single Unit Dwelling” is allowed by right on a single lot.

The second amendment to the definitions section deletes the definition of the term “Family” because the town cannot define what a family is.

Third on the ballot is the “Commercial/Multi Family/Combined Use Site Maintenance Ordinance.” This ordinance applies to the Central Business and Commercial Districts only.

The Purpose of this ordinance is to achieve a well maintained and attractive Central Business District and Commercial zones to attract businesses to town. Well maintained businesses and properties encourage businesses to come to Hillsborough, support property values and ultimately benefit the commercial base and the quality of life for the residents of Hillsborough.

The fourth and final article is the “Historic District Ordinance.” This ordinance, which is a zoning ordinance has not been updated since 1979 and is out of compliance with state statute.

The purpose of this change is to update the ordinance to comply with statute and clarify the scope of the jurisdiction of the Historic District Commission. The ordinance will be integrated into the main body and charts of the zoning ordinance.

The traveling science program from the SEE Science Museum in Manchester visited 3rd and 4th-graders at the Henniker Community School. The Henniker students worked with energy and matter, cause and effect, stability and change, chemical reactions and the engineering process. AARP Community Challenge Grant Program now accepting 2020 Applications

The program funds quick-action projects that help make communities better for all ages; Application Deadline is April 1, 2020.

AARP has opened applications for the 2020 AARP Community Challenge grant program to fund "quick-action" projects that spark change across the country. Now in its fourth year, the program is part of AARP's nationwide work on Livable Communities. Grants can range from several hundred dollars for small, short-term activities to several thousand, or tens of thousands for larger projects.

"We are thrilled to bring this grant opportunity back to New Hampshire in 2020 and we encourage all eligible organizations to apply," said AARP New Hampshire State Director Todd Fahey. "We've seen tangible results from the AARP Community Challenge grant program supporting communities in the Granite State as they make quick changes and inspire long-term progress."

The AARP Community Challenge is open to 501(c)(3), 501(c)(4) and 501(c)(6) nonprofits and government entities. Other types of organizations will be considered on a case-by-case basis. AARP will prioritize projects with permanent or temporary solutions that aim to achieve one or more of the following outcomes:

- Increase civic engagement with innovative and tangible projects. New in 2020, this category is intended to bring residents and local leaders together to address challenges and facilitate a greater sense of community inclusion and diversity;
 - Create vibrant public places that improve open spaces, parks and access to other amenities;
 - Deliver a range of transportation and mobility options that increase connectivity, walkability, bikeability, way-finding, access to transportation options and roadway improvements;
 - Support the availability of a range of housing that increases accessible and affordable housing options.
 - Demonstrate the tangible value of "Smart Cities" with programs that engage residents in accessing, understanding and using data, and participating in decision-making to increase quality of life for all.
 - Other innovative projects to improve the community.
- Since 2017, AARP has awarded 376 grants through the AARP Community Challenge to nonprofit organizations and government entities representing 50 states, D.C., Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Visit www.AARP.org/CommunityChallenge to see some of the 2019 winners in action. The 2020 application deadline is 11:59 p.m. ET, April 1, 2020, and all projects must be completed by November 9, 2020. To submit an application or learn more, visit www.AARP.org/CommunityChallenge. AARP New Hampshire works in collaboration with communities across the state, bringing people together, and providing resources and expertise to help make New Hampshire's counties, towns and cities great places to live for people of all ages.

Why brighter headlights are better

The end of daylight saving time marked the start of longer, darker nights. That means many of us have been spending more time driving in the dark, relying on our headlights to light the way. Are your headlights up to the task?

If you have older halogen headlight bulbs, they may not be. That's a safety concern. Sylvania Automotive's Headlight Savings Time campaign highlights headlight safety.

Halogen headlight bulbs actually dim over time - up to 20-30%. As halogen bulbs age, the glass walls haze, blocking some of the light. Also, the filaments become faceted and thin in some places, leading to irregular light distribution.

Unfortunately, most drivers are unaware of this fact, not realizing they need to replace bulbs before they wear out. Or, drivers will only replace one bulb, even though the other bulb is most likely the same age and already worn, creating an uneven field of vision. A good rule of thumb is if you can't remember the last time you replaced your headlights, it's probably time.

"As the leading headlight manufacturer in North America, educating drivers about headlight safety is important to us. Tires, brakes, and wipers are synonymous with driver safety, but headlights and headlight replacement need to be part of the safety conversation," said Joe Verbanic, managing director of Sylvania

Automotive. "Your headlights are the most important safety device when driving at night. If you can't see what's on the road ahead of you, your tires and brakes can't be used effectively."

Verbanic added, "During the day, your vision is limited by just your eyesight. But at night, your headlights define your field of vision. You can't react to what you don't see, which means better headlights lead to safer driving."

A 20-30% dimming of your headlights means less light on the road and makes a huge difference at night, especially when traveling on dark roads with minimal overhead lighting. A recent AAA study found that over 80% of the vehicles on the road have halogen headlights, and that these lights may fail to safely illuminate dark roads at speeds as low as 40 mph.

When it comes to replacing your headlight bulbs, you have options. Not all halogen headlight bulbs are created equal. Most halogen headlights that come with new cars are basic level bulbs. They're OK. They meet minimum requirements. Upgraded bulbs go far beyond basic bulbs to offer brighter, whiter light, and farther downroad visibility.

So, with the end of daylight saving time, it's time to think about your headlights. Headlights are your first line of defense. To stay safe, make sure yours are providing the best protection. For more information, visit <https://headlightsavingstime.com>. (BPT)
