Bradford Select Board reconstituted

Former Selectman Christopher Frey appointed

Following the abrupt resignations of both Michael James and Jason Allen from the Bradford Select Board on January 25, 2021, Bradford's remaining Board member, Marlene Freyler petitioned the NH Superior Court pursuant to RSA 669:63 to appoint Bradford resident and registered voter Christopher Frey to fill Michael James' vacant seat. Following the court's appointment of a second selectman, two selectmen would have authority to appoint a third selectman and restore the 3-member Select Board to full membership.

However, at the hearing on February 1st, it was disclosed that the judge indicated that he knew little of the town of Bradford, but was concerned that any candidate would be a caretaker and not a partisan who would side with one side or the other in town disputes.

Frey has deep ties to the town, having served as a Selectman, and on the Budget Committee and the Rescue Squad. He agreed with the judge on what his role would be.

He indicated he was retired and wished only to serve in an interim capacity with no desire to run for reelection. His nomination was supported by Town Moderator and retired Judge Brackett Scheffy. With no one in opposition, the judge confirmed the appointment.

Hillsboro-Deering voters approve a record $23,640,619 School District budget

Hillsborough and Deering voters convened Saturday at the socially-distanced high school to conduct the H-D district's annual deliberative session. Moderator John Seedy deftly guided the assembled through the 12 item Warrant.

Article 1, the election of a Moderator and two School Board members will be dealt with during March ballot voting.

Article 3, dealing with Board and officer's compensation drew no comments.

Most of the discussion centered around Article 3, requesting an Operating Budget of $23,640,619, with a Default Budget of $23,761,766. Board members explained that the figure, which will require an additional $2 million in taxpayer funding, results from $426,424 in increased contractual obligations and a dramatic reduction in state aid. The article generated a lengthy discussion with comments from several individual, but, to the surprise of many, no amendment to reduce the amount was offered.

Similarly, Article 5, setting H-D's share of the SAU #34 budget at 1,018,442 evoked several comments but no amendments.

Articles 6-10 provided funding for various Trust Fund out of any surplus at the end of the year: $50,000 Hvac Fund; $50,000 special education Fund; $10,000 Technology Fund, $10,000 Paving Fund, and $10,000 Roofs fund.

Article 11, asking voters to approve a 5% Contingency Fund survived a proposed amendment to reduce the percentage from 5% to 0%. It was defeated by a vote of 41

Yes to 43 No.

Ballot voting will be held on March 9th for Hillsborough voters from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Middle school Gym and for Deering voters from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m at the Town Hall.

The High school gym provided space for social distancing

Weare School District Deliberative Session - date TBD

The Weare School District deliberative session has been delayed at least two weeks because Moderator Luther Drake thinks holding deliberative session in the Weare Middle School during the pandemic is dangerous and that concern about the virus will disenfranchise would-be voters. February 16 was the latest he could push back the meeting as moderator because after that week it runs into town control of the ballot-voting portion of annual meeting, which is set for March 9. The town of Weare operates under traditional town meeting and has not postponed its meeting or election day.

The school board must invoke the the governor's emergency order for the district to override town control of the balloting, Drake said.

Both the school board and board of selectmen have meetings this week and the situation may change, Drake said.

The Henniker School District and John Stark School District, which is shared by Weare and Henniker, have both delayed their SB2 meeting until at least May.

GUM DISEASE MAY RAISE RISK OF SOME CANCERS

Dr. Esin Narli-Trangaris

People who have periodontal (gum) disease may have a higher risk of developing some forms of cancer, suggests a prospective study. Researchers found that a history of periodontal disease appeared to be associated with a raised risk of esophageal (gullet) cancer and gastric (stomach) cancer. Previous findings on the relationship of periodontal disease and tooth loss with esophageal and gastric cancer have been inconsistent.

The researchers examined the association of history of periodontal disease and tooth loss with the risk of esophageal and gastric cancer in 98,459 women and 49,685 men. The results showed that during 22-28 years of follow-up, there were 199 cases of esophageal cancer and 238 cases of gastric cancer.

A history of periodontal disease was associated with a 43% and 52% increased risk of esophageal cancer and gastric cancer, respectively. In addition, among individuals with a history of periodontal disease, no tooth loss and losing one or more teeth were equally associated with a 59% increased risk of esophageal cancer compared to those with no history of periodontal disease and no tooth loss. Similarly, the same group of individuals had 50% and 68% greater risk of gastric cancer, respectively.

The authors point to possible reasons for an association between oral bacteria (oral microbiota) and esophageal and gastric cancer, with evidence from other studies suggesting that tannerella forsythia and porphyromonas gingivalis—members of the 'red complex' of periodontal pathogens—were associated with the presence or risk of esophageal cancer.

Another possible reason is that poor oral hygiene and periodontal disease could promote the formation of endogenous nitrosamines known to cause gastric cancer through nitrate-reducing bacteria.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

Research presented at the 2019 ACR/ARP Annual Meeting found that a six-week treatment with low-dose oral prednisolone substantially improves pain and decreases signs of inflammation in patients with painful hand osteoarthritis. Osteoarthritis (also known as OA) is a common joint disease that most often affects middle-age to elderly people. It is commonly referred to as "wear and tear" of the joints; it is now known that OA is a disease of the entire joint, involving the cartilage, joint lining, ligaments, and bone. OA is characterized by breakdown of the cartilage, bony changes of the joints, deterioration of tendons and ligaments, and various degrees of inflammation of the joint lining.

A single pill containing low doses of three medications to treat high blood pressure and one to lower cholesterol reduced the estimated risk of cardiovascular disease by 25% in a study published recently in the New England Journal of Medicine. Researchers found that patients were also likely to stick to a medication routine if they only had the one pill to take.

Vitamin D supplementation may slow the progression of type 2 diabetes in newly diagnosed patients and those with prediabetes, according to a study published in the European Journal of Endocrinology. The study findings suggest that high-dose supplementation of vitamin D can improve glucose metabolism to help prevent the development and progression of diabetes. Type 2 diabetes is an increasingly prevalent disease that places a huge burden on patients and society and can lead to serious health problems including nerve damage, blindness and kidney failure. People at high risk of developing type 2 diabetes (prediabetes) can be identified by several risk factors including obesity or a family history of the disease.

Bradford Fire Department Captain resigns after arrest for sexual assault

Russell "Rob" Steiz, 51, a captain with the Bradford Fire Department resigned Tuesday after he was arrested on Monday for allegedly sexually assaulting a woman last spring. Steiz has been charged with one count of aggravated felonious sexual assault in connection with the incident.

Bradford Town Administrator Karen Hambleton said that upon learning of Steiz's arrest on Monday night, town officials informed Steiz "that he could not continue to volunteer with the Bradford Fire Department pending an investigation." Then, on Tuesday, Steiz tendered his resignation. Court documents indicate the alleged sexual assault occurred between May 28 and May 30 of 2020. The investigation is still in its early stages.

According to a release from the New Hampshire State Police, the alleged sexual assault occurred in Bradford, and a formal investigation was launched during the week of January 17.

Steiz was taken into custody on Monday, and is set to be arraigned at 1 p.m. April 8 at Merrimack County Superior Court. If convicted, Steiz could face up to 20 years in prison for the offense.

Progress continues on Newbury's new Fire Station.

Bradford Planning Board recommends repeal of town's Building Code

Earlier in January, the Bradford Select Board had decided that the town's Building Code was outdated and referred the matter to the Planning Board. The Planning Board held a Public Hearing to discuss the code. The Board discussed surrounding towns and what their procedure is with a building code enforcement officer.

The Board discussed that ultimately it would be the home owner's responsibility to make sure that any building would meet the state requirements. Mel Pfeifle expressed feeling rushed and feeling more comfortable with having a building inspector for the town. Sonny Harris questioned if the reasoning not to have a code enforcement officer was due to economics. The building permit fees generated as income were discussed from the year 2020; there were approximately $30k in fees. Sonny Harris questioned the building inspector's salary and proposed that the salary be based off a percentage of fees. Doug Troy expressed that the removal of the building inspector position would be a saving in net costs as well as the liability. The repeal of the Town of Bradford Code Ordinance would be placed as a warrant article by the Select Board. The recommendation of support or opposition by the Planning Board would be added to the warrant article for the annual town meeting. Much like whether the Budget Committee is in favor or not in favor of items the Select Board may propose. Carol Meise motioned to take a vote to maintain or repeal the Town of Bradford Building Code Ordinance. Doug Troy - Remove, Carol Meise - Remove, Mel Pfeifle - Abstain, Carol Troy - Remove.

The conversion of McKenna's Restaurant into New London's new Liquor Store is on schedule.

Greenfield man pleads guilty to planting a bomb in neighbor's vehicle

Alexander Arsenault, 35, of Greenfield, pled guilty to a federal weapons charge, after being arrested and charged with setting off a small homemade bomb in his neighbor's car in 2018.

According to the plea agreement he signed, Arsenault had been arguing with his neighbors. When a small homemade bomb placed in the neighbor's Jeep blew up, damaging the Jeep but not injuring any people, suspicion turned to Arsenault, who had complained about excessive noise coming from his neighbor's home. Joseph R. Bonavolonta, special agent in charge of the FBI Boston Division said in a news release, "Alex Arsenault knowingly and willingly made a home-made explosive bomb, detonated it on their property, and put his fellow citizens in fear for their lives." When police searched Arsenault's house, they found tape and matches similar to what they said had been used in the bomb, and a typed sheet of notes about how Arsenault planned to answer questions from law enforcement about the bomb. Arsenault pleaded guilty to possession of an unregistered firearm and could have faced up to 10 years in prison, but the plea agreement says prosecutors will recommend four years of probation and mental health treatment, and a restitution payment of $4,547. He has been ordered to stay away from his former neighbors.

Bradford Deserves Better

Let me begin by saying that while I've met Mrs. Freyler, I have not met the other two former Bradford Selectmen and I have no knowledge of exactly what it was that sparked the controversy between them. My opinion is based only on the way things were done. The Town of Bradford had to go to court in order to continue to run the Town, costing both time and money. Like a couple of spoiled children stamping their feet and taking their marbles with them, two Selectmen disparaged the third and quit. Quitting in the middle of budget season with Town Meeting rapidly approaching is not only childish and unfair to Freyler but to the entire town. Now that a judge has approved Mrs. Freyler's nomination of Christopher Frey as an interim Selectman I hope they will be able to finalize their budget and Town Meeting preparations as they conduct business for the good of the Town.

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the Editor:

Something to Ponder II:

George Carlin's letter knocked my socks off, and not only for the truth in it. During this pandemic I took the opportunity to go through old photos and news articles saved by relatives since departed. I found a yellowed newsprint article written in the same format about things have changed and important things lost. Carlin states "This paradox of our time in history" I guess every generation needs to be reminded of the important things in life.

Linda Cole, Henniker

To the Editor:

At the annual meeting of the Republican State Committee, Party Chair Stephen Stepanek said that having Republican majorities in the New Hampshire Legislature means they control redistricting. He said, "I can stand here today and guarantee you that we will send a conservative Republican to Washington, D.C. as a Congress person in 2022." Mr. Stepanek is stating in plain sight that New Hampshire voting districts based on the 2020 US Census will be drawn to favor his party. That is gerrymandering, and it means that every vote cast will not carry equal weight.

In 2011 district maps were drawn behind closed doors by three Republican representatives. The representatives who went to public meetings around the state had no plan to explain the process and no maps to show. When maps finally were released, legislators had one week to review them, and members of the public had 24 hours. Essentially, they were a done deal. One of the most blatant examples of gerrymandering in these maps is Executive Council District 2, which extends from Dover on the Seacoast to Charlestown on the Connecticut River. The redistricting process in 2021 must be transparent, with public input. While districts are essentially based on population, they must also be contiguous, compact, and based on communities of interest. They should not be drawn to favor any political party or candidate.

Linda Olson Bundy, Antrim

New London Town Meeting postponed until June 8th

Due to the COVID-19 Health Emergency The New London Town Meeting is postponed until June 8, 2021. The Budget Committee Public Hearing on the FY2022 budget scheduled for Wednesday is cancelled and will be held in May, prior to the June Town Meeting.

Select Board ignores Henniker Library Trustees' request to restore funds

Tuesday's Henniker Select Board meeting opened with a bang and closed with a whimper. During the opening Public Comment segment, Tucker Library Trustee Deb Kreutzer launched a negative, personal attack on Board Vice-Chair Tia Hooper, accusing her of intentionally and deliberately misleading the Select Board into cutting $14,000 from the Library's proposed budget.

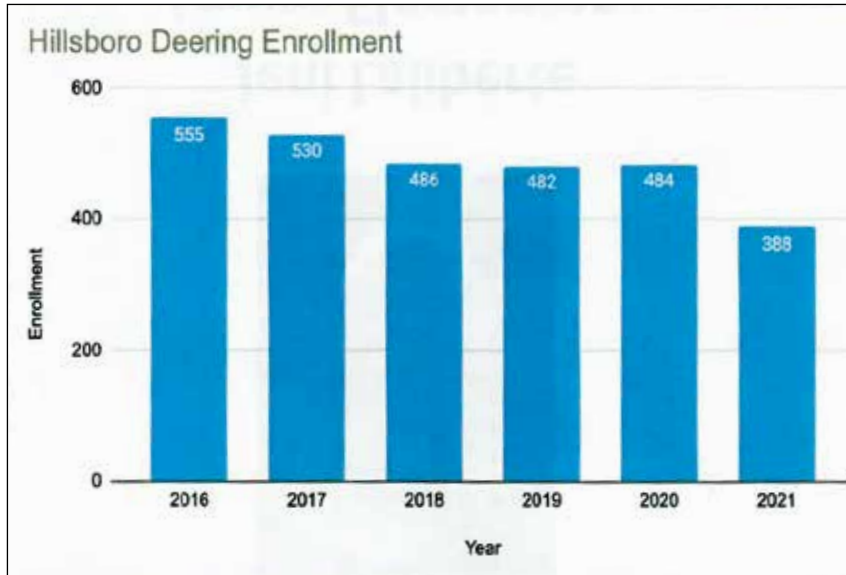

Later, Trustee Chair Patti Osgood more politely requested that the $14,000 be restored.

However, when further discussion revealed the Library is the beneficiary of not one, but two Trust Funds - one at Charter Trust for $300,000 and another at TD Bank for $400,000 - the Board did not even discuss restoring the $14,000.

Faced with a potential tax rate of 11.64/$1,000, the Board proceeded to review each budget line item and Warrant Article for areas to cut.

After a 3+ hour meeting the Board managed to cut another $29,715, reducing the tax rate five cents to $11.59/$1,000.

From 2016 to 2021 H-DES enrollment has dropped 30% (555-388). During the same time the School's Operating Budget has increased 14.9% ($20,560,677 to $23,640,619).

Deering to hold Town Meeting in Hillsborough on March 13th

Deering Town Moderator Phil Bryce discussed the state of current legislation allowing Towns to delay their town meeting date explaining that the bill passed the senate, but was stalled in the house chamber.

The preference was to continue with the March 9th voting for officers and zoning ordinance with the Town meeting occurring on Saturday March 13th. Given the need for social distancing it was determined that the Deering town hall was too small to accommodate the usual number of attendees.

The TA was directed to fill out an application to reserve the Hillsborough Deering High School gymnasium for March 13th. The Board reviewed both the Town Warrant and the town's budget. The warrant consists of 7 articles, three of which are money articles. Article 3 raises $2,205,558 for the operating budget. Article 5 adds funding to already established trust funds in the amount of $407,238, of which $298,850 will come from unassigned fund balance leaving $108,388 to be raised through taxation. Article 6 seeks to raise $15,000 for the purchase of an automated parking kiosk for beach parking. The funding for the kiosk will come from the unassigned fund balance so it will have no impact on the tax rate. The kiosk will be cashless, dispense parking receipts, and not require anyone to visit the site to remove cash as is now the case. It was pointed out that the amount to be raised is $20,000 less than the previous year. During the last 5- years the amount of taxes raised has consistently been similar to the current amount.

The former Village Discount Center in Hillsborough has been purchased by New England Development, LLC from Londonderry. Calls to the company asking for their intended use were not returned.

LOOKING FOR THE BEST MORTGAGE?

By: Joyce Bosse

Shopping around for a home loan or mortgage will help you to get the best financing deal.

Home loans are available from several types of lenders—thrift institutions, commercial banks, mortgage companies, and credit unions. Different lenders may quote you different prices, so you should contact several lenders to make sure you're getting the best price.

You can also get a home loan through a mortgage broker. Brokers arrange transactions rather than lending money directly; in other words, they find a lender for you. A broker's access to several lenders can mean a wider selection of loan products and terms from which you can choose. Brokers will generally contact several lenders regarding your application, but they are not obligated to find the best deal for you unless they have contracted with you to act as your agent. Consequently, you should consider contacting more than one broker, just as you should with banks or thrift institutions.

Whether you are dealing with a lender or a broker may not always be clear. Some financial institutions operate as both lenders and brokers. And most brokers' advertisements do not use the word "broker." Therefore, be sure to ask whether a broker is involved. This information is important because brokers are usually paid a fee for their services that may be separate from and in addition to the lender's origination or other fees. You should ask each broker you work with how he or she will be compensated so that you can compare the different fees.
