Tim and Heather Lorenz delivered 30 pizzas to Weare Middle School and Center Woods Upper Elementary School for teachers and staff to enjoy. When asked why, this is what they told us, "The reason is simple. In a similar fashion to the drive-through pizza party the district coordinated for the kids, this small token of appreciation is the least we could do to say Thank You for what they have done."

Goffstown woman murders mother

Pleads guilty to shooting her mother as she slept

Jennifer Clow, 51, of Goffstown has pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in the 2019 shooting death of her mother. Her plea bargain avoids a possible life sentence had she taken the case to trial and lost.

Appearing in Hillsborough County Superior Court, Clow pled guilty to killing her mother, Sally Miller, in Miller's Rachel Circle home in June 2019. Clow was arrested at a Florida hotel several days after Miller's body was discovered.

Clow had faced three alternative murder charges — first-degree murder and two second degree murder charges, one specifying she knowingly murdered Miller, the other that she did so recklessly. She pleaded guilty to the reckless charge, the lowest degree of culpability.

Clow told state police she hated Miller for staying with her husband despite revelations of past sexual abuse against their children. Clow said she had her own mental health and substance abuse issues and contemplated killing herself at times. In 2008, she wrote in a diary, "if I could shoot (Miller) & get away with it, I would."

According to prosecutors, she shot Miller as she slept, covered the body and came and went for the next eight days, covering the body as the stench grew.

Henniker Select Board defers changing Transfer Station hours

The Henniker Select Board had a full agenda Tuesday night. Monica Rico requested permission to operate the Farmers Market season beginning on May 20th.

She also asked permission for a vender to sell wine on Town property, and permission to close the driveway between the bandstand. The Board approved.

Highway Superintendent Leo Aucoin appeared before the Board of Selectmen to recommend awarding the 2021 paving RFP for • Bennett Road • Elm Street • Depot Hill Road • Circle Street • Old Hillsboro Road (approximately 5700 feet) to Busby Construction for $629,751.45 • R&D Paving $656,632.10 • GMI $677,402.00 • Advanced Excavating & Paving $706,509.00 • United Construction $754,678.25. He also recommended awarding the 2021 Crack Sealing RFP for • Quaker Street • Craney Hill Road • French Pond Road (Old West Hopkinton to French Road) • Western Ave. (Cannel Bridge to Cote Hill Road) • Ramsdell Road • Patterson Hill Road • Flanders Road (Rt. 114 to Craney Hill Road) to H.W Dow for $19,000, and awarding the RFP for curbing along the sidewalk of Depot Hill Road to Tri State Curb for $15,428.50. All were approved.

Transfer Station Superintendent Kristen Mix requested eliminating Sunday openings and to adjust the hours to: Tuesday 12:00pm

– 5:00pm; Thursday 12:00pm – 5:00pm; Saturday 8:00am – 6:00pm.

Upon learning that Tuesdays were the lowest volume and Sundays the 2nd highest, the Board tabled the matter until they could get hourly breakdown of use of the facility.

Finally the Board approved increasing the Town's contribution to dental insurance as detailed by the Town Administrator and to change to plan 17A.

The Appleflungle Family Band will be having a mini concert outside their home. Bring your lawn chairs across the street to be distanced. Grateful Dead songs on the porch, April 30th, 4-6pm at 85 West Main Street, Bradford.

New London Select Board will not support purchasing the Stahlman Building

The New London Select Board began their meeting with a Public Hearing for the purpose of receiving public comment on a $1.1 million Bond to pay for the purchase of the property on 74 Pleasant St., commonly known as the Stahlman Building.

Over a period of more than an hour people spoke on the pros and cons of the purchase. Bill Helm, a petitioner for the article pointed out that an additional Town Building that is centrally located would provide flexibility for the Police Department and other Town offices.

Chief Cobb also pointed out that the department's current location has limited parking, and although the total square footage would stay the same as what they have now in the Buker building, not all square footage is equal in its use.

The tower at the Buker location is going to have to be added on to so the tower at the Stahlman building would be about the same. Bob Bowers, Chair of the Building and Facilities Committee stated that the committee is charged with the welfare of the whole town, which includes taxes, and feels that combination of continued maintenance of Buker, new maintenance costs of Stahlman and the loss of tax revenue of Stahlman would be a burden on taxpayers.

The projected tax impact on a $400,000 home would be an additional $108.00 per year. Several other members of the public spoke both for and against the purchase. The Article will be on the Warrant in June, and after closing the public hearing, the Board voted 2-1 against it.

In what was classified as a possible first, the Board disbanded a subcommittee, namely the Former Selectmen's Panel on Fiscal Policy.

The Town Meeting has been set for June 9 at the Historical Society. A tent will be ordered.

Quick response by Antrim Firefighters contains blaze

Last Thursday, Antrim Firefighters responded to an illegal burn barrel fire which had spread to the surrounding woods and destroyed a snowmobile. When First responders arrived at 194 Old Hancock Road, they found that the elderly landowner had been trying to put the fire out himself after it spread through the holes in the bottom of a burn barrel onto the surrounding leaves. The man, who had inhaled some smoke, refused further treatment after being checked out by ambulance personnel. Antrim Fire Chief Marshall Gale reports the fire jumped a stone wall and traveled into the woods, consuming a snowmobile and damaging a trailer, but firefighters got it under control before it reached two nearby outbuildings. Gale said it was fortunate there was a lack of wind, or the situation could have been much worse.

Water issues dominate discussion at Emerald Lake's District Meeting

A crowd of about 30 people attended Saturday's Annual Meeting of the Emerald Lake Village District, held at Hillsboro-Deering High School.

The first article discussed was a proposed $1.260 million for placing water mains on three district streets, $315,000 funded from the Drinking Water Groundwater Trust Fund and the remaining $945,00 to be bonded. The article was amended to remove the number three, so that other streets could be added if the funds allowed. The bond passed by the necessary 3/5 vote. The Operating Budget was posted at $289,174, but was reduced to $236,174 by an amendment proposed by the Commissioners. The amended article passed.

Also approved was the $545,848 Water Department budget, $21,414 to erect security fences around the District's well, $57,000 to the Roads and Bridges Capital Reserve Funds, $63,000 for Water System Capital Reserve fund, $6,000 to build a pavilion at the beach, $25,000 to purchase property for economic development, and $120.00 to raise the District Clerk's stipend.

30 people at Magdalen College test positive

As of Tuesday, April 13th, 30 people in the Magdalen College community have tested positive for COVID-19. The college continues to be under DHHS observation and is cooperating with its directives. Most of the remaining population of students were tested Tuesday, April 23rd. The college has instituted isolation protocols for all students and staff. On the direction of DHHS, a total of 27 students are cleared to leave room isolation, being considered no longer infectious. Some cleared students went home by car to finish their quarantines there and finish the term remotely. DHHS knows where they are and has been in touch with them. But most of the 27 are in residence on campus and such students may be in the general population, while on campus continuing to don masks and to socially distance, all classes being held remotely. By DHHS's determination they pose no danger to the community. DHHS continues to track every student at Magdalen and in the coming two weeks the college expects to have all students and staff off isolation and free of infection, and expects to finish the year in-person.

Hillsboro-Deering Schools to begin launching Project AWARE

Superintendent Patricia Parenteau opened Monday's Hillsboro Deering School Board meeting by proudly announcing that all H-D Schools are now offering in-person learning five day per week.

School Psychologist Heather Garcia briefed the Board on Project AWARE, which utilizes the Multi Tiered Solutions of Support for Behavior (MTSS-B) Program that is being implemented in all three schools. She reported that staff members in all schools of SAU 34 have been working hard to develop and implement a multi-tiered system of supports to improve and promote the social, emotional and behavioral wellness for students. The goals of Project AWARE include the following:

1. Provide Youth Mental Health First Aid and Mental Health First Aid training to teachers, athletic coaches, playground attendants and others who can detect and
2. Use a multi-tiered framework that reduces school violence, bullying, behavior problems, suspensions, substance abuse and punitive/exclusionary discipline practices;

BURNING MOUTH SYNDROME IS OFTEN DIFFICULT TO DIAGNOSE

Oral pain that feels like a scalded mouth and can last for months has baffled dental researchers since the 1970s, when burning oral sensations were linked to mucosal, periodontal, and restorative disorders and mental or emotional causes. It's called burning mouth syndrome (BMS), and it's gaining the attention of dental researchers. Between two and five percent of the U.S. population acquires BMS but the syndrome especially strikes women between age 50 and 70, and from three years before to 12 years after menopause.

Although the exact cause of BMS is unknown, the suspected origin is deterioration of the nerves beneath the oral lining. The deterioration isn't visible, which explains why the mouth appears normal when examined and can delay diagnosis. Still unproven is the role hormones may play in BMS, given the link to menopause.

The pain from BMS often results in quality of life issues, from poor nutrition to the sufferer withdrawing from social situations. In some cases, the pain is so severe it has driven people to commit suicide, Pinto said. Patients can receive relief with special mouthwashes, analgesics and other topical and systemic treatments. People with persistent mouth pain are urged to check for the following symptoms that might be caused by BMS:

- Persistent burning tongue and oral pain with no apparent dental cause
- Abnormal taste or dry feeling in the mouth
- Symptoms that disappear when eating
- Burning sensations may migrate across several oral areas

Even if oral pain is present without these symptoms, people should consult a dentist for a thorough exam of the teeth, gums, mouth and throat.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

New findings from a large European study of patients in 18 countries, published in the journal European Journal of Preventive Cardiology, show that while many patients are able to reduce their risk through taking statins, those at the highest risk of cardiovascular events may benefit from combinations of lipid-lowering therapies. The authors explain that even among patients who are already receiving optimal doses of statins, greater use of other, non-statin cholesterol-lowering drugs could help to further reduce cholesterol levels and potentially improve health outcomes for those most at risk.

None of the 41 most common high blood pressure medications increased the risk of depression, while nine medications appeared to lower it, according to a study from Denmark, published in Hypertension, an American Heart Association journal. Depression is common among patients with high blood pressure (also called hypertension), heart disease and stroke, and this is the first study to systematically investigate whether individual blood pressure medications might influence the risk of developing depression. The four main categories of blood pressure-lowering medications were reviewed: angiotensin agents (angiotensin converting enzyme inhibitors, ACE inhibitors and angiotensin II receptor blockers, or ARBs); calcium antagonists; beta-blockers; and diuretics. None of the 41 most common high blood pressure medications increased the risk of depression. Nine individual high blood pressure medications were found to significantly lower depression risk: enalapril and ramipril (angiotensin agents); amlodipine, verapamil and verapamil combinations (calcium antagonists); and propranolol, atenolol, bisoprolol.

Rotary District Scholarship honors Henniker's Janice McElroy

The Janice H. McElroy Scholarship Committee has extended the deadline to receive scholarship applications to May 15, 2021. District 7870 is proud to honor Janice's service to Rotary, the district and the world through this scholarship. It is the hope that many non-traditional students will apply for this generous scholarship with the support of the Henniker Rotary Club.

This scholarship fund is to be used to support the college education of non-traditional students from Rotary District 7870. Applicants must be 21 years of age or older and must have completed high school or have earned a G.E.D. There must be at least a three-year gap between graduating from high school and full time college attendance or a record of part-time college for three years after graduating from high school. Scholarship recipients earning a B average or better may apply for a subsequent year of support, allowing the possibility for support to continue until the supported course of study is completed. The scholarship can be used for expenses at a four-year or a two-year college, or for another type of accredited institution. The scholarship award will be in the amount of $2,500 and will be presented at a District Rotary meeting. The application can be downloaded from the District website.

Publisher's Perspective

Twice Blessed

The Town of Hillsborough has been twice blessed. For several years the town was fortunate to have Peter Brigham serve as its Youth Services Officer. Peter's talent and dedication are remarkable and under his leadership, the youth of Hillsborough were well served.

When he retired, the Town celebrated Peter Brigham Day where he received accolades and awards from the Select Board, Hillsboro Lions Club, Masons, Project Genesis and CASA. During that ceremony I couldn't help but wonder what would happen to the office and its fabulous programs.

Not to worry. The Select Board hired Chelsea Mather as his replacement, and what a perfect fit she has been.

In her short time here, Chelsea has not only maintained but has expanded both the program offerings and group attendance. Chelsea will soon be having a baby. Please, Select Board, give her a generous Maternity Leave, but don't let her go. She also, is a blessing for the town and its youth.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Interested in making a difference?

When I moved to NH in 2012, I had never heard of CASA – Court Appointed Special Advocates – but I knew I wanted to get involved in the community. After reading in the newspaper that CASA was looking for volunteers, I signed up for the training course. It turned out to be a life-changing experience.

I wasn't naïve. I had done humanitarian work abroad for 30 years, but had little sense of the needs here at home. I knew that New Hampshire ranked among the best places in the U.S. to raise a family, and I had no idea the state's Division of Children, Youth and Families received so many calls from citizens concerned about maltreatment of children. I didn't know that CASA trained volunteers to advocate, 365 days a year, for children who have suffered abuse or neglect.

CASA's training program was rigorous, thorough and professional. In pre-Covid days, training was in-person, but now it can be done on Zoom. I've been a CASA Guardian ad Litem (GAL) for eight years, working with children and their biological and foster families, and making recommendations to the Family Court about what I believe is in children's best interests. The work isn't easy and sometimes it's emotionally draining, but as CASAs, we make sure that children's needs are front-and-center, and that their voices are heard. What could be more important?

If you are interested in advocating for children, think about becoming a CASA. You can find out more at www.casanh.org or by calling Diane at (800) 626-0622.

H-D Board joins ConVal's education funding lawsuit

During a Special Meeting Wednesday, the H-D School Board voted 4-1 to join the ConVal lawsuit against the State of NH. Peterborough - based ConVal argues in the original lawsuit that the state's $3,636 per-pupil adequacy grant is nowhere close to covering the cost of an education. ConVal argued that the state needs to cover the cost for teacher salaries, maintenance, transportation and food. The true value of the grant should be closer to $10,000 per pupil, the district argued.

Expert tips for maintaining your pet's healthy weight

Overweight pets tend to be less active, experience joint pain, groom less and develop more health conditions, so it's important to take a proactive approach to help your pets live a long, healthy life. Two of Purina's pet experts, behaviorist Dr. Annie Valuska and veterinarian Dr. Callie Harris, help by answering frequently asked questions about pet weight concerns:

How can you tell if your pet is a healthy weight?

"A great way to start is to give your pet a 'healthy hug,'" advises Dr. Harris. This involves three steps:

1. Evaluate the ribs: Place your hands gently on your pet's sides. You should be able to run your hands down their chest and feel their ribs without having to "press" or "dig" in.
2. Evaluate the waist: Stand above your pet. You should be able to see a waistline or an "hourglass" shape.
3. Evaluate the abdomen: Stand to the side of your pet. Your pet should have a nice abdominal tuck.

"If you suspect your pets are overweight, consider switching to a weight management food for adult dogs and cats to help them achieve and maintain a healthy weight," she says.

How much should you feed your pet? Dr. Harris says, "Be sure to feed your pet with the amount instructed on your pet's food labels. You can find specific directions for Purina products on each bag of food. However, if you are still concerned about over or under feeding, discuss with your veterinarian so they can evaluate your pet and make nutritional recommendations."

Dr. Valuska adds, "No matter how much your pets try to convince you otherwise, feeding them table scraps is never a good idea. Remove the temptation to give them a bite of your dinner by training them to spend meal time away from the table - in a crate, for example - and reward their good manners with pet-appropriate treats and praise."

How do you incorporate exercise into your pet's routine? Dr. Harris says, "One easy way for pet owners with dogs to exercise is to take them on daily walks. However, if outdoor walks are not obtainable due to weather, consider creating activities in the home with your dogs such as 'find the treat' using treat mats. You can even be strategic about where you place your food and water bowls to encourage your dog to get up and move."

Dr. Valuska adds, "Cats need exercise, too! Engage their instincts with a game of chase - this can be with a laser pointer, a ball or a toy on the end of a wand. Some cats prefer to 'hunt' toys along the ground, while others are more excited by trying to catch toys out of the air." (BPT)

No reasons given for Weare Select Board refusal to reappoint Lori Davis

The Weare Select Board discussed appointments to Conservation Commission. Chairman Andy Fulton stated that the Commission welcomes Marc Phillips as a new alternate member and recommend Lori Davis the reappointed as a full member. If Lori Davis is not reappointed, Chairman Fulton asked for an indication why so they can be better informed.

Chairman Hippler asked for clarification as to the intentions of the Commission, are they in favor of Lori Davis as a full member and Marc Phillips as a full member. Chairman Fulton replied if Lori is reappointed, the Conservation Commission would be full and Marc Phillips could be an alternate. If Lori was not reappointed then Marc Phillips would be interested in the seventh position on the Commission. Hew then reiterated his request for communication as to why a member would not be reappointed. After giving Phillips an opportunity to speak, Marc Phillips was appointed as a full member to the Conservation Commission. And it passed Passed 3-0-2, with Selectman Burdick and Chairman Hippler abstaining. Chairman Fulton stated again, that if Lori Davis's renewal is not to be acted on, he requests an explanation, needing to understand why a member in good standing is not to be reappointed. Is there a reason not related to her on the job performance. On the Commission, she has been honorable, reasonable and faithful. Selectman Van stated the Board is not denying, there is just no motion. Perhaps individual Board member's have a reason, but not a Board reason.

Chairman Fulton understands and would like an email or a phone call. Chairman Hippler stated he personally has no reason. Chairman Fulton then asked could the Commission have done anything to help this reappointment. Chairman Hippler responded this was not a Commission issue.

Concord VNA, Central NH VNA & Hospice merge to form Granite VNA

The unified organization serves 82 communities with offices in Concord, Laconia, and Wolfeboro

Visiting Nurse Association (Concord Regional VNA) and Central New Hampshire VNA & Hospice (Central VNA) announced the merger of the two agencies. The unified organization will be known as Granite VNA and will serve the home- and community-based healthcare needs of residents across 82 communities in the greater Concord area and Lakes Region of New Hampshire.

Concord Regional VNA was formed in 1899 as the Concord District Nursing Association and grew to offer a wide array of home-based health care and wellness services in 44 communities. Central New Hampshire VNA & Hospice was formed in 2010 through the merger of Community Health & Hospice in Laconia and the VNA & Hospice of Southern Carroll County in Wolfeboro. The agencies began the merger process in March 2020, just as the coronavirus pandemic began; they finalized the merger yesterday, March

Granite VNA will be governed by a board of trustees comprising members of the former Concord Regional

VNA and Central NH VNA boards. Beth Slepian, former president and CEO of Concord Regional VNA, will serve as President and CEO, and Lisa Dupuis, ▶

Bellamy Fields (603) 516-8888 Watson Fields (603) 516-8810

www.bellamyfields.com

former CEO of Central NH VNA, will serve as Chief Operating Officer.

"Over the past 121 years, our name and location have changed, our technology has advanced and our services have expanded, but our mission remains true to the goal upon which our agency was founded – to provide home-based health care to all members of our community," said Slepian. "This merger allows us to improve access to care for individuals and families, respond to growing demands for specialty clinical services, enhance and expand community wellness programming, and attract, retain, and develop a highly skilled workforce."

Concord Regional VNA has led the way in population health, from Tuberculosis clinics in the early 1900s, to family planning and homemaker services in the 1970s, to sexually transmitted disease services in the 1980s, to senior care services and wellness programs in the 1990s, to flu clinics, wellness programs and more in the 2000s. In 1994, the agency opened New Hampshire's first Hospice House, which marked its 25th anniversary in June 2019.

Central NH VNA & Hospice has been caring for residents of the Lakes Region since it was founded in 1918 as VNA Wolfeboro and Vicinity. At that time, the agency operated with one part-time nurse. It became Medicare certified in 1967 and merged with Hospice of Southern Carroll County in 1994, then with Community Health & Hospice in 2010.

The unified organization employs more than 470 highly-skilled clinicians and staff members who provide unmatched care through a broad array of services, including home care, hospice care, palliative care, pediatric and maternal child health and personal home services. The agency also offers community clinics and wellness programs to help people maintain their health, wellbeing and independence.

"Our agency has endured and expanded over for more than a century by understanding the needs of our community and adapting to provide the best possible care," said Slepian. "We are excited for our future as Granite VNA."

Granite VNA's main office is located at The Slusser Center, 30 Pillsbury Street in Concord, and the agency will maintain branch offices in Laconia and Wolfeboro. To learn more about the merger, services offered and service area, or to contact Granite VNA, visit www.granitevna.org.

Atty. Charles A. Russell on Bankruptcy: Chap. 13 & 7

A Chapter 13 Petition gives someone time to catch up on their bills over 3, or 5 years. If foreclosure is an issue for an overdue mortgage, then a Chapter 13 filing can stop, or delay it. Under a Chapter 13 filing mortgage payments coming due, after filing, must be paid when due. Additionally, a Trustee is paid a monthly amount which is to pay down the pre-bankruptcy mortgage balance.

A Chapter 13 filing could also buy time to list and sell a home, letting an owner keep any remaining home equity, after mortgage is paid off. Any non-exempt property may be kept under Chapter 13 by paying Trustee its value during plan period.

A Chapter 7 bankruptcy is a liquidation process where all non-exempt property is sold with proceeds given to creditors. Exemptions are claimed to protect and keep someone's property from being sold off to pay bills. However, in over 90% of N.H. Chapter 7 cases, people retain all their property as being totally exempt. Exemptions carry out the goal of bankruptcy to give someone a "fresh financial start" after their debts are discharged.

Customary exemptions cover household goods, clothing, jewelry and a computer. Other ones protect social security benefits, retirement accounts, $10,000 equity in a motor vehicle, and $120,000 equity as your homestead exemption. Also, an $8,000 wild card exemption can protect bank accounts, cash, tax refunds, or any other items not covered. Married couples can double these amounts when each claim their own exemptions.

This is general information on bankruptcy. Everyone's situation is different, and must be reviewed by experienced bankruptcy counsel before pursuing a bankruptcy filing.

Retirement risks that could undermine your careful planning

By Jim Braun

Few things feel better than to – finally – arrive at retirement confident about all the planning and saving you did to cause it to happen. It was decades in the making, but now it's here. Unfortunately, you may not be out of the financial woods yet. A number of risks to your retirement strategy can still lurk even as you appear to have safely arrived at your post-work destination. Some of the most common ones include:

A significant market drop shortly before or early in your retirement. We all know that what the market gives, the market can take away. But a sudden market drop right when you are reaching retirement can be especially devastating. You have less time to make a comeback, especially when you are starting to withdraw from those accounts at the same time the market is giving you fits. Think of it this way. If you have $1 million, and take a 10 percent loss, that's a $100,000 drop, taking you to $900,000. Now let's say the market rebounds 10 percent. That means you recover only $90,000 of the $100,000. And if you had withdrawn some of the money to live on, you will recover even less. One way to at least partially avert this risk is to begin moving some of your portfolio into more conservative investments as you near retirement age. When you were relatively young and in the accumulation phase of investing, you could afford to take some risks. But now your investment strategy needs to focus more on keeping what you have.

Inflation that reduces your spending power over time. Even when it seems like you have enough money in retirement, it's possible you don't if you failed to factor in for inflation. Let's take a look at that $1 million again and say that each year you plan to withdraw 4 percent, or $40,000, for living expenses. That $40,000 won't have the same spending power in year 10 of retirement as it did in year one. That's why it's important to account for inflation as you are creating your financial plan and trying to determine how much money you need for retirement.

Unexpected medical and/or long-term care expenses. As you age, health problems can emerge that could quickly drain your money as you pay for hospitalizations, expensive prescriptions, and numerous visits to specialists. At some point, you could require long-term care, which comes with a staggering price tag. The average cost of a semi-private room in a nursing home is $7,756 a month, according to the Genworth annual cost of care survey. Genworth also reports that seven out of 10 people will require long-term care in their lifetimes. One option for planning for this is to purchase long-term care insurance, but there are other routes to explore as well.

Outliving your assets. People are living longer than ever, which is great, but longevity increases the odds that you could outlive your money. If you are calculating that you just need enough money for a 10 or 20-year retirement, you could be in for a surprise. For example, more than one in three 65-year-old women will live to be 90. For 65-year-old men, it's more than one in five. Of course, many will live beyond 90. It's best to expect a long life and plan your finances accordingly.

While all of these factors pose a significant risk to your retirement, a financial professional should be able to help you create a plan that will reduce some of your exposure. Retirement should be a time of enjoyment, not a time to fret over every dollar and how tomorrow could bring unpleasant surprises.

Now is a good time to prepare for the future!
