Bennington exodus continues

Road Agent, Town Administrator, Town Clerk & 2 Cops

The exodus of town employees continues in Bennington. In recent weeks, the Road Agent, Town Administrator, and Town Clerk have each been removed from their positions, and now, the town could soon be without a Police Department. Police Chief Brett Sullivan announced his retirement effective May 31st, and while the Bennington and Hancock Select Boards discussed a regional Department, Hancock has hired away Sgt. Jason Lepine, the only remaining Bennington Officer. On April 20th, Lepine asked the Select Board to be named as Sullivan's replacement, but he was informed that the Board was considering regionalizing the department. Neither Lepine nor members of the Board would comment, although Hancock Police Chief Thomas Horne acknowledged he hired the sergeant, saying, "He's a highly qualified officer, and we're fortunate to get him."

Asst. Commissioner of Safety to address Hillsboro Lions

The Hillsboro Lions Club has announced that Assistant Commissioner of the Department of Safety, Eddie Edward will be the Guest Speaker at their May 25th meeting. Prior to his appointment, Edwards served as a member of the Law Enforcement Accountability, Community and Transparency Commission

(LEACT), where he was a public member appointed by Governor Sununu. As Assistant Commissioner, his duties will include, in part, overseeing the Department's operations, diversity initiatives, and LEACT report progress. Edwards has also served as the Director of the New Hampshire Liquor Commission Enforcement Division and as Chief of the South Hampton, NH Police Department.

Emergency warning lights to be installed at New London Fire Station

New London Fire Chief Jay Lyon told the Select Board to request funds in the amount of $39,900 in order to replace the emergency warning light in front of 237 Main Street, the New London Fire Department. The Chief has been working on this project for several years, after being notified by PSNH that the current signalized intersection did not meet code compliance.

Recently, Fire Inspector Mike Matthy has also been working on this project, and has met with all parties involved. NH State DOT has approved the replacement, only if two lights were installed, one over each travel lane. Currently, there is one light head hanging in between the lanes. The Town of New London would also have to agree to maintain the signal. This is a valid safety need, as every year there are multiple "close calls" between fire trucks backing into the station and vehicular traffic. Currently their policy is to have their firefighters get out of the apparatus to stop cars, but they won't always have sufficient personnel when returning from still alarms, refueling, or other incidents not requiring the entire department to respond.

Town Administrator Kim Hal-

lquist had recommended that surplus funds be used to complete this upgrade. If approved, East Coast Signals would complete the project in June before the summer residents arrive, as they have given us a lead time of four weeks. The Board approved.

Bennington Daisy Girl Scout Troop #10914 used some of their cookie sale proceeds to spruce up the Bruce Edes Memorial Forest entrance. With a little help from the Conservation Commission, scouts planted flowers around the rock.

Henniker tradition continues with a Memorial Day Parade May 31st

The Henniker Memorial Day Parade will be held Monday, May 31st at 10:00am. This year the parade will host the New Hampshire Pipes & Drums, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to fostering the advancement of pipe band music through performance, competition, and education, by creating an atmosphere in which pipers, drummers, supporters, and leadership work together in the spirit of mutual respect, appreciation, cooperation, and enjoyment, united in the pursuit of musical excellence at all levels.

The parade will start forming at 9:00am at the Henniker Community School. The Henniker Fire & Rescue will lead off the parade in full dress uniform. Veterans from town will march and are asked to form at 9:30am. Those who would like to participate but cannot march will be provided local jeeps to ride in.

The parade route goes through the center of town and proceeds to various memorials where a firing squad and Taps will be sounded in honor of veterans from all branches of the military who lost their lives or served in the service of this great country.

The parade will finish at the Angela Robinson Band Stand in Henniker Community Park for a brief program. Fr. Marcel Martel of St. Theresa Parish will deliver the speech and additional music will be from the NH Pipes & Drums.

17th Annual MainStreet Warner Literacy Day celebrated

May 17, 2021 marked the 17th Annual MainStreet Warner Literacy Day at Simonds Elementary School in Warner, keeping this tradition alive despite COVID restrictions requiring a Zoom presentation. This year's author-in-residence was Matt Forrest Esenwine (http://www.mattforrest. com/), a Warner children's book author of nationally acclaimed picture books and poetry. He presented his book Don't Ask a Dinosaur to the kindergarteners and first graders, the just released Once Upon Another Time to the second and third graders, and Flashlight Night to the school's fourth and fifth graders. Each child received an autographed copy of the book in advance, with Matt reading to the classes and fielding their questions about the writing process. He presented a compelling narrative to the students of the joy of living a creative life along with the need to maintain perseverance and tenacity, as each book could be 10 years in the making.

MainStreet Warner Literacy Project (https://mainstreetwarnerinc.org/projects/literacy/)

This has become an endearing tradition between the non-profit MainStreet Warner, Inc. and the community elementary school. Initiated in 2005, local children's authors and/or illustrators have visited the children to discuss their work and their motivation. The students receive exposure to excellent writers and artists from the surrounding area, that have demonstrated through their books their impact on the lives and literacy of children across the country. Past authors-in-residence that have visited the students include Steven Kellogg, Maxine Kumin, Barry Moser, Mary Lvn Rav, Jim Arnosky, and Caldecott Award Winner Beth Krommes.

This year's community partnership between MainStreet Warner, Inc., Simonds Elementary School, and MainStreet BookEnds is made possible through the generous donations of many local families, MainStreet BookEnds, and with additional funding from the Kearsarge School District and the Nancy Sibley Wilkins Town of Warner Trust Fund of the New Hampshire Charitable Foundation.

Hillsboro-Deering 2021 Yearbook wins prestigious National Award

Jostens, the leading producer of yearbooks and student-created content, today announced that Hillsboro-Deering High School's yearbook program has achieved the Jostens 2021 National Yearbook Program of Excellence award at the Gold Level. The National Yearbook Program of Excellence recognizes engaging yearbooks that reflect a broad representation of the student body while helping students develop 21st century skills such as communication, collaboration, and information and communication technologies (ICT) literacy.

"This was an incredibly tough year to create a yearbook. With the majority of the school year being in hybrid and an extended period of time fully remote after Thanksgiving – finding opportunities to take pictures, and interview students and staff was difficult. I am super proud of this team and the final result and cannot wait to reveal it!" said Mr. Payeur.

This year, only 127 programs out of over 15,000 earned the Gold Level Award. That means that Hillsboro-Deering's program was in the top 0.8% of all schools. "Jostens is proud to recognize those individuals who have created an exceptional yearbook for their school and community," said Tammy Whitaker, Jostens VP and COO Yearbook Division. "These schools did an exceptional job on multiple levels, despite the challenges presented by this school year. Yearbooks are a critical part of capturing and telling a school's story, and Jostens is dedicated to supporting yearbook staff members as they do their important work."

Hopkinton School District is hosting a vaccine clinic May 21st from 3:15 p.m. to 5:15 p.m. at Maple Street School for students and community members ages 12 and older to be vaccinated against COVID-19. Rite Aid employees will administer the Pfizer vaccine, the only vaccine currently approved by the Food and Drug Administration for children ages 12-18. There will be a follow-up clinic June 11 for students to receive the second dose. Parents or guardians need to accompany their children to the event for both doses. Although Hopkinton school nurses won't be administering the shots, they will be coordinating and assisting at the clinic. The clinic is intended for Hopkinton families, but it is open to anyone age 12 and older, including adults and students who aren't in the public school district, as long as they sign up in advance to attend.

Farmers Market & Artisans Fair Vendors

The Hillsborough Farmers Market & Artisans Fair is drawing a diverse number of both food providers, artisans and craft people. This year's event is being held in the large field in back of Hanna's Diner on Preston Street. Unlike former renditions, the large lots, formerly used for BalloonFest parking, provides ample space for both off-street parking and vendors displays. Held Saturdays and Sundays from May 29th to Sept. 5th the cost to vendors is only $10/ weekend, or $150 for the 15 week season. Seasonal prepay is only $100. There is still room for more vendors, but space is going fast. See the application in today's paper.

Hillsborough Police respond to auto accidents at Shaw's & Family Dollar

On May 18, 2021 at approximately 1520 hours, Hillsboro Police responded to the Shaw's intersection for a report of a motor vehicle accident.

The investigation showed that a grey Mini Cooper being operated by Leah Callahan of Hancock was coming from Shaw's, turning left, and that a blue Subaru Crosstrek being operated by Patricia Patten of Hillsboro was coming from the Osram Sylvania parking lot straight to Shaw's.

Both vehicles had green lights, however Callahan failed to yield the right of way and struck Patten. No injuries to either party.

Both vehicles were towed from the scene.

On May 19, 2021 at approximately 1108 hours, Hillsboro Police responded to Family Dollar for a vehicle that struck the building.

Officers located a Toyota Camry driven by Virginia Burton of Hillsboro that had driven into the Family Dollar Building. The cause of the crash is still under investigation.

OOTHACHES—PA

A toothache is a pain in or around a tooth that may be caused by tooth decay; an abscessed tooth; a tooth fracture; a damaged filling; repetitive motions, such as chewing gum or grinding teeth; or infected gums

Symptoms of a toothache may include:

- tooth pain that may be sharp, throbbing, or constant. In some people, pain results only when pressure is applied to the tooth.
- swelling around the tooth
- fever or headache
- foul-tasting drainage from the infected tooth

When Should I See a Dentist About a Toothache?

See your dentist as soon as possible about your toothache if:

- you have a toothache that lasts longer than 1 or 2 days
- vour toothache is severe
- you have a fever, earache, or pain upon opening your mouth wide

Proper identification and treatment of dental infections are important to prevent their spread to other parts of the face and skull and possibly even to the bloodstream.

Oral infections are the most common diseases of mankind and are also a key risk factor for heart disease, which is the leading cause of death worldwide. In a review article published in Trends in Endocrinology and Metabolism, researchers summarize the latest clinical evidence supporting a link between oral infections, which are caused by the bacteria in our mouth, and heart disease, and they emphasize the important role of inflammation in both of these conditions. The most common oral infections are cavities and periodontal diseases such as gingivitis and periodontitis, which are chronic inflammatory diseases that slowly and steadily destroy the supporting structures of multiple teeth. Significant epidemiological evidence supports an association between oral infections, particularly periodontitis, and stroke, especially among men and younger individuals. Inflammation plays a major role both in oral infections such as periodontitis and in cardiovascular disease. However, over-the-counter nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs such as ibuprofen can produce significant cardiovascular side effects, which means it is crucial to consider alternative therapies. A high dose of a commonly prescribed cholesterol-lowering medication, atorvastatin, which boosts blood levels of anti-inflammatory molecules called lipoxins and resolvins, prevents both periodontal and cardiovascular inflammation and reverses existing disease in humans.

Combined use of aspirin, statins, and metformin is associated with decreased lung cancer incidence and mortality, according to a study published in the Journal of Thoracic Oncology (JTÓ). The JTO is the official journal of the International Association for the Study of Lung Cancer. All three medications are common—approximately 35 million people take a statin to control cholesterol; more than 120 million people take metformin to control diabetes and between 6 and 10 million people take aspirin daily.

The intersection at Main Street will be closed both days between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. Drivers are being detoured onto Route 101 and Route 137. According to Seth MacLean, Peterborough's Director of Public Works, the cause of the accident is still undetermined. Teams have been meeting to prepare for the rig's removal, and Engineers have developed plans to properly distribute the weight of the rig once it's pulled up onto Route 202.

Greater Hillsborough Chamber of Commerce opposes proposed Noise Ordinance

The Greater Hillsborough Chamber of Commerce (GHCOC) after a lengthy and thorough discussion has voted to oppose the proposed Noise Ordinance draft, dated April 28, 2021 and to so convey the Chamber's position to the Board of Selectmen and the Town Administrator.

The Chamber discussed the need for an ordinance...Noise Ordinance currently in effect...Purpose, viability and practicality of the new ordinance...Enforceability of a new ordinance...Enforcement of the current ordinance...Number of noise complaints in the last 5 years, and finally the cost of equipment, personnel, and training to adequately enforce the ordinance.

After review of all these criteria the Chamber's position is: 1... The current noise ordinance is sufficient to handle excessive noise complaints. 2... The decibel levels proposed in the new ordinance are not practical and overly restrictive when compared to everyday activities of residents and businesses. 3...The number of complaints over the last five years averaged less than 1% of the population and most complaints appear to be concentrated among a few residents. 4... Additional equipment and training constitutes unnecessary costs to enforce an ordinance that is not needed. 5... Opposition throughout the Hillsborough business community is widespread. 6... And finally, an ordinance of this ambiguous nature only promotes unnecessary and frivolous complaints further burdening the enforcement community and causing unnecessary animosity and discord among neighbors.

The Chamber proposes the Select Board dismiss the proposed ordinance out right; that the current ordinance be enforced as warranted. Those residents who are frequent noise complainants be contacted and urged to participate in a professionally administrated mediation session to resolve their differences.

The Chamber appreciates that every resident and business deserve the right to quiet enjoyment in their respective neighborhoods and community. This proposed noise ordinance does nothing to enhance that right. The ordinance does, however, encourage an environment of increased conflict and "overreach" that will continue, rather than solve the perceived problems.

New London Select Board rescinds Mask Mandate

In response to the Governor's lifting of the mask mandate, the New London Board of Selectmen voted on Monday to lift the town's mask resolution. Major Warner bridge repair coming in 2022 At the recent Warner Board of Selectmen's meeting, personnel from the NH DOT and the NH Department of Environmental Services spoke about the Rte. 127 bridge near Dustin Road which needs to be replaced. There had been a public hearing in October, 2018 and there should be another public hearing before the end of 2021. The State is looking for information and recommendations as to how the construction should proceed. It appears that the Town prefers closing the bridge for one construction season. This gives the ability of having the entire bridge rebuilt with less environmental impact, less money, and larger shoulders than if half the bridge was closed and traffic controlled with lights. The detour would add either 8 or 11 miles from one side of the bridge to the other by using local roads. Discussions with Hopkinton would be advisable as the traffic being diverted would impact that town. Meli Moser spoke of Historical features and the impact on Davisville. While there are many "pros," the only adverse effects would be that the current I-beam is from this bridge that was built in 1937 and because it was the first bridge to receive Federal funding, has historical significance. However, the advantages of having a safe bridge that can carry wide loads and pedestrians at the same time appear to outweigh that significance. Probable construction will take place in 2024.

Retiring Historical Society Trustees named Lifetime Honorary Trustees

At the April 18, 2021 Hopkinton Historical Society Annual Member Meeting, retiring Trustees Kathryn Thesing and Donald Lane were named Lifetime Honorary Trustees in recognition for their many years of service to the Society.

Thesing began as a volunteer more than 25 years ago, taking on tasks ranging from baking cookies for events to painting walls. Soon after, she ran the gift shop and worked on creating exhibits. Elected to the Board, she first chaired various committees and subsequently was elected Board President.

She was instrumental in recruiting new Board members as well as new staff, both critical to society operations. She worked to change the society's name from New Hampshire Antiquarian Society to its present name in order to better reflect its mission and location.

Thesing notes that collaboration is the keystone to "our success" and has led by example.

Lane began his volunteer commitment to Hopkinton as coach in and later president of Hopkinton Town Baseball. He was instrumental in development of the Houston

Park playing fields. Significantly, he chaired development of the Slusser Senior Center and guided the project to its completion. The Center provides significant services to Hopkinton's seniors.

Simonds School students finished their Read-a-Thon challenge by crushing their initial goal of reading 21,000 minutes. Students read for a total of 36,897 minutes and raised almost 5,000 dollars for the schools' PTO! As a reward for their hard work, students were able to paint the principal and other staff members in Kearsarge blue and gold colors.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Sue Fetzer wants to put OR codes on the back side of our historical markers here in Henniker. She explained that this would make it possible for people to use their smart phones to obtain access to a U tube channel and a short audio explanation of the marker. The board unanimously gave their approval.

I live a stones throwaway from the first public town pound marker, close to the town center. Small ground flowers are shouting out "look over here" while surrounded by overgrowth and debris. This is a disgrace in our caring about our heritage. The marker is not very accessible to be able to obtain the OR code. Please clean up this blemish on our pride of Henniker.

Linda Ellis Cole, Henniker

To The Editor:

The Housing Appeals Board is a 3-person state-level monster that was created by 3 Republican NH Senators. It repeatedly failed as a normal bill so these legislators sneaked it into the budget. HB 288 (2021) was a bill to repeal it, but did not come to a full House vote before the session ended.

What does the HAB do? Just three people involved in the real estate and development business are allowed to override ANY town board decision regarding housing. This includes planning and zoning boards, conservation commissions, and even school boards.

The legislature has repeatedly defeated or laid on table many bills that would have enabled developers to get tax breaks for building high-density, low-income apartment buildings where they are not wanted or needed. It's all part of Governor Sununu's plan to "mitigate" a supposed housing shortage.

We maintain that his plan (including the HAB) is unconstitutional on its face. There is no provision in the NH Constitution that allows the state to mandate or control what types of housing each town may build, especially in defiance of the voters' wishes. Additionally, two of the three HAB members listed, have serious conflicts of interest.

The HAB has made its first ruling against the Planning Board of Francestown for its decision regarding a portion of land listed in the National Register of Historical Places: If you want to maintain the NH Advantage, and the property values of your single-family homes, you will do all you can to advise the legislature and the Governor that the HAB should be repealed and dissolved immediately. Otherwise, your town meeting vote can be nullified by just 3 people with conflicting interests.

Three other cases are pending. Get ready Windham, Pembroke and Chichester, as you are their next targets.

Jane Aiken, Francestown

Bradford's Frank Mayo Field.

Bradford renovates Frank Mayo Field

In the late 1980's, Bradford, Newbury Youth Sports was started with a baseball field at Brown Shattuck Field. Then in the late 1990's a parcel of land was purchased from the Sheffy's with plans to build a baseball field. A donation of $14,000 was made by the Mayo Family and once the ball field was built, it was named after the donor's father, Frank Mayo. The name was then changed to Bradford, Newbury, Sutton Youth Sports. That parcel of land is now known as Warren Brook Park. Warren Brook Park is named after a former teacher from Kearsarge Regional High School who was very active in the Project Climb.

In 2017, BNSYS Softball Director Jesse Griffin presented the executive board with a plan to start up a softball program at BNSYS. Jesse took the ball and ran with it and in 2018 we fielded our first U8 Softball Team. Due to Jesse's passion and recruitment, the program grew in 2019 to include a U10 team as well. Now in 2021 we have added a U12 team, giving us three softball teams with over 40 young athletes in total. With an added team, and only Raymond Memorial Field for their use, it became apparent that field space for practice and games was going to be tough.

In April of this year, the board voted to renovate Frank Mayo Field so that it could be used for Tball, Softball and Baseball. The reconstruction began in late April/early May. The clay material came from Foster Materials in Henniker, NH and the work was completed by Tyler Lawn Care in Bradford, NH. Both companies were awesome to deal with and provided some assistance being BNSYS is a 501C3 non-profit.

Before the start of the game, Jesse Griffin was called to the mound to throw the ceremonial first pitch which was caught by his daughter Lyrica Griffin. As for the outcome of the game. Henniker Youth Sports Volunteers needed

We are in need of some volunteers! Our coaches are responsible for a ton during each season. One item on their "to do" list during baseball and softball season is to line the field for their own home games. This is difficult for many coaches to get done during the weeknight games given they are often coming straight from work. If you are able to lend a hand lining either the baseball field or the softball field please reach out to the appropriate director for scheduled game times and a run down of the "how to".

Controversial Town Clerk easily reelected

Peterborough Town Clerk Linda Guyette, accused of creating a hostile work environment in her office that sparked a lawsuit against the town, was easily reelected to her office last week, with 1,004 votes, while Eddie Gomez got 500 votes and Brendan Bohl received 200 votes. Bohl is the husband of Gayle Bohl, the former deputy town clerk who is suing the town after she reported Guyette's hostile behavior. That case was sent to mediation earlier this year. The town hired an outside firm, the Leddy Group, to investigate Gayle Bohl's claims. The report found Guyette had created a hostile work environment.

The Antrim Bennington Lions Club with the help of the Antrim Police Department recently sponsored a successful Bike Rodeo.

STAGING A HOUSE—PART I

By: Joyce Bosse

If you want to sell your home faster, staging the house may help. Staging a house gets your place showroom-ready and allows buyers to imagine themselves living there. Home buyers are used to seeing picture-perfect houses—in person, on home decorating shows, and in online listings, so learning how to stage a house can make a big difference when selling.

What does staging a house mean?

Staging a house is the process of strategically arranging furnishings and decor to make a house look its best while selling. This may involve paring down and refreshing your own belongings or moving all of your own stuff out and renting furniture and decor.

Here's how to stage a house:

Understand why you're staging a house.

Staging a house is a strategic move for sellers. A 2017 National Association of Realtors (NAR) survey says 49% of buyers' agents believe staging affects most buyers' view of a home. And 77% of them say it's easier for people to visualize a staged home as their own.

Staging can also increase the sales price. In that same NAR survey, 29% of sellers' agents said the sales price for staged homes were between 1% and 5% higher than unstaged homes. Staged homes sell faster, too—39% of sellers' agents reported that staging a home reduces days on the market. Understanding the benefits of staging a home can help you decide if it's right for you, and how much to invest in doing it.

NH LAKES brings on Kelleher as Conservation Program Assistant

Kelleher will assist with NH LAKES' statewide Lake Host and LakeSmart programs

NH LAKES has hired Kaitlyn Kelleher as the organization's Conservation Program Assistant. Kat brings a knowledge and passion for working with volunteers and is looking forward to helping inspire people to take action to keep New Hampshire's lakes clean and healthy.

Kat graduated from Syracuse University in 2017 where they received a B.S. in Biology with a focus on Environmental Studies. Before joining NH LAKES, Kat was an educational coordinator at the New Hampshire Fish and Game Department. Kat also served as a crew leader in Minnesota for the Conservation Corps, working with state and federal groups on projects including tree planting, sawyer work, wildland firefighting, and soil and water conservation district assignments.

The NH LAKES Conservation Program Assistant assists the Conservation Program Manager with the management of the organization's existing conservation programming, including the statewide Lake Host aquatic invasive species prevention program and LakeSmart lake-friendly living programs.

They also assist with the development of new conservation programming to advance public awareness of and participation in the organization and its mission.

"We're looking forward to working with Kat. I am thrilled to have her on board and I'm confident she will be a highly effective member of our team," said Krystal Costa Balanoff, NH LAKES Conservation Program Manager.
