Washington Old Home Day

Historical Society hosts activities throughout town July 31

The Washington Historical Society is celebrating Old Home Day, Saturday, July 31, 2021 in many special ways. Our Museum and Barn at 100 Halfmoon Pond Road will open from 10-2. The historic District #5 Schoolhouse at 2570 East Washington Road will be open from 1-3. And our open-air Gift Shop will be joining other wonderful artisans and vendors on the Common.

Old Home Day is a good time to think about family and friends who lived here in Washington, and who may now rest peacefully in one of our town's beautiful cemeteries. An experienced genealogist will be on hand at the Museum to help you search our records and see what new and fascinating information might be waiting for you to discover.

The Museum is also featuring a special exhibit on two of the hotels from the past – The Lovell House and the Bradford Springs Hotel. For decades both grand establishments hosted visitors on extended vacations looking to escape the city heat and enjoy the more comfortable climates and 26 ponds and lakes of our beautiful town. When the season ended and the visitors reluctantly returned home, they took with them an amazing assortment of ceramic souvenirs featuring colorful depictions of the hotels where they stayed or places of interest around town. Thanks to the wonderful generosity of the late Stephen Crain of Maine and his family – a wonderful collection of photos and ceramic souvenirs is now on display for your enjoyment.

The Marks We Leave Behind, a Washington Historical Society Project, will have a table at the Common.

Hillsborough's own Jared Powers is at it again. After donating his profit from the flea market in June for the Hillsborough Community Center, he once again is going to show his community spirit and donate his 4th day's profit from the Hillsboro Summerfest of over $400 to the Hillsboro District Food Pantry. He will also be passing out buttons to promote his new fundraiser for the food pantry during "Shark Week," which started Sunday July 11th and goes through Sunday, July 18th. Please help Jared "take a bite out of hunger." During this week Jared will be set up at various locations in town including High Tide and Taco Beyondo and others. Everything he makes in profits this week will be donated to the Hillsboro District Food Pantry. So look for Jared around town, buy his beautiful creations, and let him know what a wonderful thing he is doing. Thanks from the pantry.

Flooding causes closure of Clough State Park

A week of heavy rains has provided some relief from the dry conditions, but flooding is beginning to occur. At the Hopkinton-Everett Lakes Project, water levels have risen nearly eight feet above the summer level. The excess is currently being contained behind dams on the Piscataquog River in Weare and the Contoocook River in Hopkinton. Clough State Park was recently closed as water rose up to the toll booth at the entrance.

Pats Peak names three to management team

Pats Peak has announced promotions to the senior management team: Cameron Stanley joins the Pats Peak management team as the Assistant Culinary Services Director. Brigid Howell has been promoted to the Director of Guest Services and Sarah Demmons has been promoted to the Director of Base Area Services. "I take great pride in promoting Brigid, Cameron and Sarah. They have all displayed great leadership traits and have gone above and beyond in their previous positions. I know they will help in the effort to bring Pats Peak to an even higher level of service," comments Kris Blomback, General Manager of Pats Peak.

Hillsborough upset with further delays of sidewalk extension project

The Engineers from Dubois & King had requested a meeting with the Hillsborough Select Board for Wednesday night. When Town Administrator Laura Buono e-mailed to remind them of the meeting, this is the reply received: "I am not prepared, and would not be presenting any new information to the Selectboard other than what you already know. I would be prepared to present to the Selectboard on the 28th with this new information."

Buono's response was direct and to the point: "That's unfortunate. We have met with you a couple of times with regard to this and unfortunately, there seems to be no urgency on your end although we have stressed the importance of this project. This meeting was set up a month ago with you and as you recall, I felt that Dubois and King should be reporting everything to the Selectmen in order to hear their thoughts and concerns. Both you and Mr. Tetreault know exactly how we feel about these sudden changes and about our uneasiness with what has taken place, including the gaps in communication, since you have been assigned to our project. In fact, if you knew you wouldn't be ready for the meeting that we already scheduled, why didn't you contact me last Friday once you knew you wouldn't be prepared? One would think that you both would understand by now the importance of this project, at least to us and our community.

I would appreciate if you or Mr. Tetreault would send me the name and contact information of the management above you so that I can communicate these issues to them."

These vendors support the good works of Hillsborough Pride by setting up at Pride's Farmers Market & Artisans Fair. They offer fantastic home decorations, delicious baked goods, fine hand crafted jewelry and decorated cookies. More vendors promised for Saturday.

DENTAL INSURANCE—PART I

If you have dental benefits, do you know what's in the fine print and what type of plan is best for you?

Many Americans—77%—have dental benefits, the National Association of Dental Plans says. Most people have private coverage, usually from an employer or group program. Large employers are more likely to offer dental benefits than small employers and high wage workers are more likely to receive them than low wage workers. Medicare doesn't cover dental care, and most state Medicaid programs cover dental care only for children.

When you shop for coverage, make sure you understand what the plan covers.

If your employer offers dental coverage, that's an easy choice. It tends to be cheaper than getting a policy on your own. If you're shopping for your own plan and you already have a dentist, your dentist may be able to recommend a plan based on your dental history.

As you compare plans, try to find out the following things:

- Whether your dentist and any specialists you may need are in network
- Total costs for the plan each year, including premiums, co-pays, and deductibles
- Annual maximum
- Out-of-pocket limit, if any
- Limitations on pre-existing conditions
- Coverage for braces, if needed or anticipated
- Emergency treatment coverage, including treatment if you're away from home

With the right research, you'll be able to choose a plan that meets all your dental needs.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

Two newer groups of medications prescribed primarily for Type 2 diabetes treatment (SGLT2 inhibitors and GLP-1 receptor agonists) could significantly reduce risks associated with chronic kidney disease (CKD) and heart disease. Based on analyses of the clinical trials through March 2020, a group of leading experts in diabetes, heart failure, kidney disease and cardio-metabolic disease believe the medicines should be considered for people with CKD and Type 2 diabetes to protect against heart and kidney disease and their serious complications, according to a new Scientific Statement from the American Heart Association published in the AHA's journal Circulation.

Patients with plaque build-up in their arteries, who suffered a transient ischemic attack (TIA) or a minor ischemic stroke, also called a warning stroke, and were treated with the newer blood thinner ticagrelor (trade name: Brilinta) plus aspirin were 27% less likely to have another stroke within 30 days, according to late-breaking research published in Stroke, a journal of the American Heart Association.

Drugs to lower blood pressure of the type ACE inhibitors or angiotensin II receptor blockers reduce the mortality rate of influenza and pneumonia. This is the main conclusion of a reassuring new study published in the Journal of the American Heart Association. ACE inhibitors are a group of drugs which expand the blood vessels so that blood pressure is lowered and the work done by the heart becomes easier. An ACE inhibitor dampens the enzyme in the body which ensures that the inactive angiotensin I is converted into the active angiotensin II. Angiotensin II causes contraction of the blood vessels. When the body forms less angiotensin II, the blood vessels relax and blood pressure decreases. The acronym ACE stands for Angiotensin Converting Enzyme.

Washington Fire & Rescue Lifetime Awards

The Washington Fire & Rescue recently held their annual meeting. Awards were given for length of service as well as two lifetime membership awards. Lifetime memberships were awarded to recently retired Dave Woods and Denise Hanscom. Dave retired to the easy life in Florida and Denise moved to a neighboring town. Both will be missed. But the award to Bob Crane was possibly the most prestigious. Bob has served with the department for 50 years. He tells an interesting story of going on his first call with his dad at the age of 14. He joined the department at 16, and has fought fires ever since. We can only imagine his memories. Chief Shawn Atkins presented Bob with a "golden axe" in recognition of his hard work and contributions to our little town.

Accidents keep Hillsborough Police busy

On July 5th, Hillsborough officers responded to a crash on West Main Street at the top of Penstock Hill. This crash involved a motorcycle being operated by Nicholas Chamberland of Chichester and a Subaru Crosstrek being operated by Sarah Gladu of Hillsborough. The preliminary investigation revealed that Chamberland was operating at a high rate of speed and struck the rear of Gladu's car when he crested the hill. Chamberland sustained injuries from the crash. Investigation is still ongoing. Also on July 5th, officers were dispatched to another crash. Due to Hillsborough officers still investigating the first crash, Henniker PD responded to Bog Road for a single vehicle crash. The investigation showed that Dennis Giakoumis was operating a Ford Edge when he took his eye off the roadway briefly and struck a tree. Only minor injury was reported.

U.S. Space Force controls New Boston station

Monday's official ceremony unveiling the new sign completed the transfer of the New Boston Tracking Station from the U.S. Air Force to the U.S. Space Force Delta 6 – Space Access and Cyberspace Operations, headquartered in Colorado. The New Boston facility is one of a number of sites providing support to government and civilian satellites as well as some rocket flights, including private flights from Space X.

Hillsborough ZBA approves a variance and a special exception

Hillsborough's ZBA held a marathon 3-hour session of two Public Hearings Monday evening.

The first was an application by Scott Schulman for a Variance to allow the construction of a 3-car garage with 2nd floor office at the Pierce Lake waterfront house he just purchased at 10 Tasker Road. Richard Head from the Conservation Commission urged the Board to deny the request, saying it was not a hardship and impinged on the 75' lakefront setback. Nonetheless, the ZBA unanimously approved the variance subject to conditions.

A large crowd sat through that hearing waiting for the second, Kevin McCauley's request for a Special Exception to allow construction of a 34 unit RV Campground on 100 acres at Carr Road in the Rural Zone.

The proposal had been previously approved by the Planning Board subject to 26 conditions and had been rejected without prejudice by the ZBA, asking for more information.

Attorney Bob Kerry (l) and Engineer Ron Bell (r) brief the ZBA.

Armed with new environmental and traffic studies, attorney Bob Kerry pointed out that the Master Plan specifically allows campgrounds in the Rural Zone, subject to a Special Exception.

Donna Hansen and Marian Baker led a list of several neighbors and abutters objecting to the project for a number of reasons, specifically that it was "out of character" for the area. Each presented petitions in opposition signed by several abutters.

After further discussion, the Board approved the Special Exception by a vote of 4-1 with member Meg Curtis objecting.

Publisher's Perspective

Thank You Hillsborough Summer Festival

After enduring a year and a half of covid confinement, the return of Hillsborough Summer Festival was just what the doctor ordered.

Joining friends and neighbors who were abandoning diets to devour fair food without remorse, purchase novelties and watch the kids' faces as they enjoy each and every one of Scott Miller's fabulous rides.

If you enjoyed the Festival, please remember that it did not happen by accident.

It took months of planning and organizing by the committee and hours of work by devoted volunteers who made our days better by parking cars, selling tickets, selling concessions and cleaning up.

If you see them on the street or in the store, be sure to say "Thank You." That is the least they deserve.

Letters to the Editor

To Whom It May Concern:

On Monday, June 28 members of the Weare, NH Fire Department/Rescue Squad went to the home of our son and daughter-in-law and used the stretcher to help her visit her special horse since she was no longer mobile due to her struggle with cancer. It was an incredibly touching moment. She had not been able to visit her horse in many weeks. She passed away that evening. My husband and I are so appreciative of this act of kindness. Weare has a special group of people working in their Fire Department/Rescue Squad. We also want to thank the Hospice Nurse who worked with the Fire Chief to organize the visit.

With our Utmost Appreciation, Marcia and Bob Hostetter

On July 17th, one day only, Edmunds will be promoting a $10 propane refill for 20# tanks only from 10am to 2pm. Rick is shown filling a 20# propane tank.

Weare Troops Scout 529B and 529G are working on the Horsemanship Merit Badge. They all nearly completed the badge... just need to ride and they have it.

The Hillsborough Planning Board will hold a Public Hearing July 21st on a proposed Domino's Pizza on West Main Street.

Bradford also considers a noise ordinance

At their recent meeting the Bradford Select Board was faced with a similar problem that many other area towns have recently encountered: a request for a noise ordinance. After much discussion with area resident Michael Malacha and Chief of Police James Valiquet the Board took no action at that meeting. The police will continue to monitor the area as at times the actions of the neighbors seem to rise to the level of harassment. However, Board Chair Andrew Pinard did say that he felt something should be done and that perhaps the Board could enact a temporary ordinance until next March when the entire Town could vote. Later in the meeting other residents spoke of excessive noise from a neighbor who appears to be doing business in a rural/residential area without Planning Board approval. The Board will direct the Code Enforcement Officer to check compliance and report back at the next Board meeting in two weeks. The Board also discussed Old Home Days with Park and Recreation Director Devon Pendleton. Since the fireworks were postponed from July 3 to September 25, Devon asked about the budget and ideas to make the entire event have more community involvement. It was suggested that town groups be contacted and a survey be put on the town's website.

Peterborough is assessing $700,000 in fines

Peterborough is seeking to collect nearly $700,000 in fines for more than a dozen building code violations at the Walden eco-village housing project. The town lists 15 town and state violations and asserts that it is entitled to $275 per violation for the first day, and another $550 per violation for each subsequent day. The owner is also being sued by former tenants, who were all forced out of their homes two weeks before Christmas because of the violations.
