From Student to Teacher

Seven John Stark graduates teaching in local schools

SAU 24 serving the communities of Henniker, Weare, and Stoddard is proud to announce that seven new teachers hired by SAU 24 schools for the coming 2021-2022 school year are graduates of John Stark Regional High School and a product of the exceptional education provided within SAU 24 schools. "I guess you could say we're growing our own teachers," commented SAU 24 Superintendent Jacqueline Coe. "They've lived in our communities and learned in our schools and they are thrilled, as are we, to welcome them home to SAU 24."

Back Row: Cooper Gorski, PE and health teacher at John Stark and a 2017

graduate of JSRHS; Maddie Janielle, occupational therapist at Henniker Community School and 2014 JSRHS graduate; and Stacy Stanley, 4th-grade teacher at Center Woods Upper Elementary and a 1996 graduate of JSRHS.

Front Row: Sarah Kazakis, 2nd-grade teacher at Center Woods Elementary and 2009 JSRHS graduate; Kayleigh Zervos, 1st-grade teacher at Center Woods Elementary and 2017 JSRHS graduate; Chloe Labrie, 7/8th grade science teacher at Weare Middle and 2017 graduate of JSRHS; and Ariel Freedman, 2nd-grade teacher at Center Woods and 2014 JSRHS graduate.

Fracestown famous Labor Day Celebration returns

Fracestown's traditional Labor Day celebration returns after a year's hiatus. The festivities, including a parade, artistic displays and a focus on town history will take place Friday, September 3rd through Monday, September 6th. The event dates back to a 1917 Red Cross fundraiser, which supported the Fracestown Improvement & Historical Society, and last year was the first time the festival was not held since it began.

Newbury's ribbon-cutting & grand opening for new Fire Station Saturday

A ribbon-cutting and grand opening ceremony for Town of Newbury's new Fire Station will be held Saturday August 28, 2021, at 11:00 am. The station is located at 919 Route 103, Newbury. Light refreshments will be served.

The $3,750,000 new station approved at the 2020 Town Meeting, constructed by North Branch Construction, and coordinated by construction manager and on-call firefighter Ken Holmes has been completed. The new station will meet the needs for space; present and future equipment; safe traffic patterns for the trucks and firefighters on foot; adequate training space; and will serve an Emergency Operations Center. The 9,973 sq. ft. building is equipped with 3 drive through bays capable of housing 6 pieces of apparatus; gear room; wash area; short- and long-term contamination areas; storage; EMS and administrative offices; janitor area; radio room; kitchenette; and day room. The station will house 2 fire engines; tanker, rescue and UTV rescue vehicles; fireboat; and forestry trailer.

"The station apparatus area will provide a much safer work environment for our firefighters and emergency services personnel because of the large drive through bays, open space and constant fresh air ventilation.

Josh Moul, a Life Scout from Troop 529.

Weare Board approves Eagle Scout's project

Josh Moul Life Eagle Scout Troop #529 presented to the Board his project to build an information kiosk with a flowerbed base for the entrance to Chase Park. All funding to come from donations and fundraisers. All work performed by Scouts, friends and volunteers. Selectman Van asked if the current signs would be moved to the new kiosk and what kind of material would be used to build. Josh replied yes, and the structure would be made with two x fours and T-111 plywood, cementing the posts into the ground. The Board recommended using pressure treated lumber. Selectman Osborne explained being that the proposed sign is big it will need to be at least 3 ft. imbedded in the ground. Going forward, PARC would maintain the flowerbed. Sign to be painted with a metal roof, no lights. The Board unanimously approved.

New London officials join in Public Forums

The New London Selectmen, in conjunction with the Planning Board, Building & Facilities Committee and Town Administrator, will hold Community Forums to seek input from New London citizens on priorities for capital investments for the next 10 years. The forums will include a discussion of relevant portions of the Master Plan, Capital Improvement Program and the Building & Facility report as a foundation to the discussion of setting the town's priorities. Chief among the priorities to be discussed will be the direction the town should take for improving the New London Police Department facilities. Two forums will be held to offer citizens the option of a daytime meeting: Saturday October 23rd from 7:30am—9:30am and an evening meeting: Monday October 25th from 7pm—9pm. Please mark your calendar and plan to attend one of the sessions and share your thoughts on the priorities you feel are important for the town to pursue in the coming years. More information will be available in the coming weeks.

Cyber thieves defraud Town of Peterborough out of $2.3 million

Tyler Ward, Peterborough Select Board Chair reports that the town has fallen victim to an internet-based crime that has defrauded our taxpayers of $2.3 million. Officials do not believe that the funds can be recovered by reversing the transactions, and do not yet know if these losses will be covered by insurance. On July 26th town officials learned that ConVal School District had not received the $1.2 million monthly transfer from the Town. Upon investigation it was learned that the town had been victim of an email-based fraud. Finance Department staff immediately put a stop payment order on the transfer, however the funds had already left the Town's account at Peoples Bank.

On August 18th, the Finance Department staff learned that two bank transfers meant to go to Beck and Bellucci, the general contractor working on the Main Street Bridge project, had also been fraudulently diverted to thieves through similar means. Though it is now believed that no town staff were criminally involved in the transfers, the Finance Department staff who were directly targeted in this fraud are on leave until the U.S. Secret Service's ongoing investigation has been concluded.

Peterborough officials file insurance claim to recoup stolen $2.3 million

Town Administrator Nicole MacStay reports that Peterborough has filed an insurance claim in hopes of recovering the $2.3 million stolen in a cyber scam. (See story on page 7.)

Officials don't yet know if NH

Primex will cover the lost money, and MacStay would not speculate whether taxpayers will have to make up the stolen funds. Officials learned of the scam after a $1.2 million transfer meant for ConVal didn't reach the district in July and payouts to a contractor on the Main Street bridge project also weren't received. The town has now paid the firm replacing the bridge, but has not yet made good on the ConVal payment.

Publisher's Perspective

Ask Yourself - What have I Done?

Did you enjoy History Alive? How about SummerFest? Did you go to Weare's Patriotic Celebration, to Hancock's, Washington's or Newbury's Old Home Days? Are you planning on going to Henniker's Music On Main Street, Antrim's Home & Harvest Festival, or the Warner Fall Foliage Festival?

All these events, and many more in all our area towns have one thing in common, VOLUNTEERS!

Volunteers conceive, plan and execute these wonderful events and bring great joy to us all. They remind us of the tremendous advantages we have by living in such caring, nurturing and giving communities.

The next time you attend one of these events, ask yourself; What have I done to make this a better place to live, work and raise a family? Don't just live your life, participate in it. Your opportunities are unlimited. The Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Men's Club, Women's Club, GHSS, Youth Athletic Associations, Hearts of Hillsborough, along with Church and Civic Groups of all kinds need YOU to guarantee these activities continue through the next generation. Hey, you Millennials and GenXers, we Baby Boomers are getting along in age and won't be around much longer. We need your ideas and your efforts.

Get off your backsides and join one of these groups today. Yes, the pay is low and the hours long, but what you receive is priceless. You meet new friends, share satisfying experiences, gain a sense of satisfaction in helping others, not to mention having a hell of a lot of fun doing it.

Hancock celebrated another successful Old Home Days.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

A common drug, already approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), may also be a powerful tool in fighting COVID-19, according to research published recently in Antiviral Research. SARS-CoV-2, the virus that causes COVID-19, uses a surface spike protein to latch onto human cells and initiate infection. But heparin, a blood thinner also available in non-anticoagulant varieties, binds tightly with the surface spike protein, potentially blocking the infection from happening. This makes it a decoy, which might be introduced into the body using a nasal spray or nebulizer and run interference to lower the odds of infection. Similar decoy strategies have already shown promise in curbing other viruses, including influenza A, Zika, and dengue.

Certain types of asthma drugs, known as  $\beta_2$ -agonists, can boost sprint and strength performance in athletes who don't have the respiratory condition, finds a review and pooled data analysis of the available evidence, published online in The British Journal of Sports Medicine. The performance-enhancing qualities of  $\beta_2$ -agonists seem to be greater when taken by mouth rather than when inhaled, the findings indicate.

The results of numerous lab investigations and population studies support the preventive potential of omega-3 fatty acids, "good fats" found abundantly in fish. However, to date the majority of studies evaluating omega-3s for averting or curtailing cognitive decline in human participants have failed to show benefits. Now, a new study published in the journal EBio-Medicine suggests that higher doses of omega-3 supplements may be needed in order to make a difference, because dramatic increases in blood levels of omega-3s are accompanied by far smaller increases within the brain.

HOW GUM DISEASE TREATMENT CAN PREVENT HEART DISEASE

A new study is helping to shed more light on the important connection between the mouth and heart. Scientists have demonstrated that using an oral topical remedy to reduce inflammation associated with periodontitis, more commonly known as gum disease, also results in the prevention of vascular inflammation and can lower the risk of heart attack.

This study is the first time researchers anywhere have demonstrated the ability of an oral treatment for gum disease to also reduce inflammation in the artery wall. This discovery further underscores the increasing body of evidence showcasing how problems in the mouth—and how they are treated—can have life changing influences on other key systems in the body, such as the heart in this case.

This research is helping to underscore the very real link between oral health and heart disease. The general public understands the connection between heart health and overall wellness, and often takes appropriate steps to prevent heart disease. More education is needed to elevate oral wellness into the same category in light of proven connections to major health conditions.

According to the CDC, heart disease accounts for one in four deaths in the United States, and the rate continues to rise. The study's findings suggest a need to expand the public's understanding of risk factors beyond cholesterol, smoking, hypertension and diabetes to include a focus on oral health.

Greenfield Police investigate attempted theft

Greenfield Police Chief Brian Giammarino reports that his officers are investigating a pair of attempted cash box thefts from roadside stands last Monday night. Reports indicate that a man tried to force entry into locked cash boxes at roadside stands on Francestown Road and on South Francestown Road. The security camera on the South Francestown Road site shows a white male testing the lid of the cash box secured to the wall, before walking away. Although police received several tips, no arrests have yet been made.

ConVal to host Quarterly Public Forums

The ConVal School Board will be holding quarterly public forums to provide residents a chance to speak and ask questions about district policies and school board decisions, which can not be covered in the limited public comment portion of school board meetings. Board Chair Tim Theberge has volunteered to be the first moderator – with a panel of school board members of the administration. A survey to list possible topics will allow the public to suggest topics of discussion, of which three will be selected for discussion at the the forum.

Hillsborough police searching for truck thief

On Tuesday August 19th at approximately 5:20 p.m. a dark blue Ford dump truck was stolen from a parking lot at Livingston's garage in Hillsborough. The Police have surveillance photos and leads but are still investigating. Anyone with information is asked to call the Police at 464-5512 or Livingstons at 464-5000.

Hillsborough Water & Sewer Commission WATER SERVICE DISRUPTION NOTICE

Beginning Thursday evening September 2 and extending into early Friday morning September 3, the Hillsborough Water & Sewer Commission will be replacing a leaking water gate on West Main Street near the Church Street intersection.

This replacement will require that water service be shut off to Hillsborough water customers located east of the Bible Hill/West Main Street intersection, including customers on the south side of the Contoocook River serviced from Bridge Street. This disruption is expected to extend from about 8 pm Thursday until 8 am Friday.

Discolored water may result after this event. Pre-event water storage is recommended for those customers needing supply through the night.

Should you have any questions, please contact our office at 603-464-7982.

We appreciate your understanding and accommodation.
