Another woman injured in three-car Peterborough crash

A Peterborough woman was killed and a Jaffrey woman critically injured in a three-car crash on Route 202 in Peterborough Wednesday morning.

Police said Jillian Bosworth, 30, was traveling south in a Honda Civic when she crossed the center line and collided with a northbound 2013 Hyundai Tucson driven by Kim Reth, 52, just after 7 a.m.

The Hyundai then crashed into a Ford Taurus driven by Robin Marmorstein, 47, of Peterborough, according to a news release.

Bosworth was pronounced dead at the scene. Reth was transported to the University of Massachusetts Medical Center with extremely critical injuries, police said. Marmorstein was not injured.

Route 202 was closed for approximately 3 1/2 hours while police investigated.

Anyone with information about the crash is asked to call the Peterborough Police Department at 603-924-8050.

Hillsboro-Deering Middle School Hosts Animal Adventures

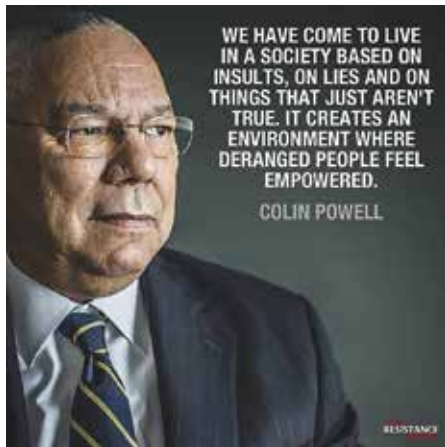

On Friday, October 22, Hillsboro-Deering Middle School hosted Animal Adventures for the fifth year in a row, thanks to the generous donations from the Duncan-Jenkins Grant Committee. Melissa Moultroupe, one of the teachers at HDMS, helped set up this experience for the students.

“Students were able to see, learn about, and even interact with rescued animals from all over the world.”

Moultroupe elaborated, “In addition, all students received a voucher to visit the Animal Adventures Zoo with their families.” The kids saw a variety of animals, like the owl shown in the photograph. Other animals included a ring-tailed lemur, an American alligator, and a fennec fox. The favorite, though, was a baby kangaroo. The students sat in a circle while the kangaroo hopped inside it, and they were able to pet several of the animals.

The students of HDMS enjoyed this experience, and it let them see and learn about animals not native to New Hampshire. Thank you to the Dunkin-Jenkins Trust Committee for sponsoring this event year after year!

An owl was just one of the many animals introduced.

Children's book author Marty Kelley visits Henniker Community School

Author, illustrator, and former second-grade teacher Marty Kelley visited 4th-grade students at the Henniker Community School. Kelley has written and illustrated several children's books, including Pugnapped, Fall Is Not Easy, The Rules, Winter Woes, Summer Stinks, Twelve Terrible Things, and Fame, Fortune, and the Bran Muffins of Doom.

Kelley spoke to students about where his ideas come from and took them through the book writing process. He explained how often a book is revised and edited, and how often an editor returns a book to Kelley for corrections and changes. The day offered the students insight into how even a published author needs to have a growth mindset. The author also shared how he uses technology to illustrate his books and how illustrations go through the same editing process.

While at the school, Kelley shared his "Seven Amazing Superpowers that Every Good Author Has" and happily answered questions from "The Top 10 List of Questions" the students prepared before his visit.

Your donations help give a needy child a Merry Christmas

It's that time of year again! Hillsborough's Operation Christmas committee has begun meeting to prepare for Christmas 2021. Last year 64 families with 140 children were helped.

Each year parents fill out applications for their children age 16 and under to receive one toy and one article of clothing for each child. Each gift must be under $50. These requests are written on "gift tags" which are put out in several locations around Hillsborough for people to take and purchase the items. The committee checks to make sure they are the right item, the right size, and age appropriate for parents to pick up. Local businesses and individuals can help by donating those items. Every year, there are gift tags that don't get taken, and families that we learn about at the last minute. Money donated to Operation Christmas is used to make sure no approved applicant goes without. If you can't donate money at this time, is there some other way you can help us? Please contact us at hillsborooperationchristmas@yahoo.com if you have questions or ideas.

Bradford Select Board briefed on Economic Revitalization Zones

Sherry Gould of the Abenaki Trail Project updated the Bradford Select Board on things they have been working on. She gave her family's history in Bradford. She said they have met with members of the Historical Society and the Conservation Commission.

Sherry discussed the loss of cedar in the area. They plan to put a board-walk out to the well in the bog and do a water test as well. They have purchased a cider press. Sherry also said there will be a talk on Indigenous People's Day at the Mt Kearsarge Indian Museum. Marlene asked about the Indian Tie Up.

Sherry said the Abenaki would winter up on the ledges and that this location appears to be where captives would be tied up. Mel asked how big the tribe was back then, and Sherry said she has no idea.

Matt Monahan spoke on the Economic Revitalization Zones (ERZ). He gave the background on the ERZ in the west and east end of Town. These are State tax incentives to attract businesses to particular locations. Town applies to the State, then the State promotes this project on their end. Board members reviewed maps of these zones. The Transfer Station and Naughton property are two identified properties in the overlay. Andrew asked what changes for the property owners would take place. Matt said nothing would change and it just gives the property owner another incentive to have someone purchase their property or use their property for a business. Andrew asked what the outreach out to abutters has been and what type of businesses could go into these areas.

Lily Tang Williams gave the Hillsborough Republican Committee a compelling account of growing up in Communist China during Mao's Cultural Revolution.

Antrim House Center for Women goes coed

Andrew West, director of business development for Sobriety Centers of New Hampshire, has announced that Antrim House, the region's only residential treatment facility exclusively for women with substance-use disorders, has gone coed. Although the 21-bed inpatient treatment center often was at capacity when it was for women only, there is a high demand for beds for men, with two to three men needing a bed for every woman. The upcoming closure of Farnum Center North, a 50-bed coed facility in Franklin will only add to the demand. Women seeking gender-specific treatment must now travel out of state for treatment. In addition to Antrim House, there is another coed residential treatment facility in Dublin.

The Harris Center recognizes contributors

At its 51st Annual Meeting held via ZOOM, The Harris Center recognized several contributors: Robin Fairfield, kindergarten teacher at Marlborough Elementary School, was honored with the Educator of the Year Award.

The 2021 Laurie Bryan Partnership Award — honoring former Harris Center Executive Director Laurie Bryan's achievements in working with community partners — was presented to the Hancock Town Library, under the leadership of library director Amy Markus.

Volunteer Extraordinaire Awards were presented to two outstanding Harris Center volunteers— Hancock wood carver Jack McWhorter and Tom Delaney of Peterborough.

Harris Center Executive Director Jeremy Wilson also recognized Stephen Froling for 17 years of valued service to the Harris Center, both as a past board member and as the organization's volunteer corporate counsel for land protection projects. Stephen's considerable land conservation legacy spans thousands of acres.

In addition to these awards, outgoing trustees David Sobel, Carol Young, and Timothy Jordan were thanked for their service, and Steve Lamonde and Ethan Harper-Lentricchia were welcomed as new trustees.

Renovation of Antrim's historic Grange Hall are underway

Long planned renovations and repairs to Antrim's Grange Hall are underway, starting with foundation work under the northern area of the building. Typical of work on older buildings, once work began workers found that instead of minor foundation problems anticipated, the entire northern part of the building was sitting on bare ground and rotting.

According to Beth Merrill, Secretary of the Antrim Grange, the immediate goal is to get the foundation secured and stabilized and no longer subject to the elements or animals.

Andras Lazar, the stonemason directing the work, reports that the plan is to close up the building before the onset of winter. Begun in 2017, the project has been slow to develop, in part, because of funding delays.

Early on, the Grange received grants and community donations, but once underway, the group decided to pause while conducting a building assessment in order to apply for more grants. That took months, and then COVID-19 further delayed the project. The historic Antrim Grange was the second floor of Antrim's first town hall, built in 1785 and moved to where it is now in 1832. As such, it was not initially designed to sit on the ground. The Grange bought the building in 1894 after having organized in 1883, and has owned the building ever since.

WHAT CAUSES TOOTH GRINDING?

The technical name for tooth grinding is bruxism. Stress is certainly one of the factors that can lead to grinding. A sleep disorder, an abnormal bite or crooked or missing teeth also can be factors. Some experts estimate that as many as 10 percent of the population deal with this condition to some extent, ranging from children to senior citizens.

The best person to talk to if you or a loved one has this condition is your dentist. It can be a serious problem. Some people who grind their teeth in their sleep may wake up feeling fine. Others, however, may wake with some combination of jaw, shoulder and neck pain. The grinding action also can significantly wear teeth and loosen them. In severe cases it can crack tooth enamel and chip or break teeth.

During sleep, bruxism can cause a person's jaw to clench at pressure up to six times the level exerted during waking hours. Your dentist will first try to diagnose the cause of the condition. If it is stress related, the result, say, of pressure at work, the dentist may recommend physical therapy or counseling. Muscle-relaxing medication and/or a nighttime mouth guard, specially fitted by the dentist, may be an answer.

Local girls are featured in The Nutcracker

Lily Koeppel, Isabella Keller, Lillian Ruby and Maille Zelko will perform along with a cast of professional guest artists to perform in the Palace Theatre's upcoming annual production of the timeless classic, The Nutcracker, in six magical performances from Friday, November 19th through Sunday, November 21, 2021.

Fifteen-year-old Lily Koeppel attends Goffstown High School and will perform the coveted role of Clara, a Chinese Soloist and Flower in the Waltz of the Flowers in this year's production. Lily has been dancing since the age of three and has spent the last three years training with Southern NH Dance Theater. "I always look forward to The Nutcracker rehearsals and the performance. It's a great experience," stated Lily Koeppel. Lily will be sharing the role of Clara with Lillian Ruby, a twelve-year-old who attends Mountain View Middle School. Lillian has been dancing for the past eight years, the last six years with Southern NH Dance Theater. Lillian has performed in The Nutcracker for the past five years, but this will be her first leading role. "I love being part of the production, and spending time with my friends backstage! Dancing as Clara this year is nerve wracking, exciting and so much more fun than school," stated Lillian Ruby.

Both Lily and Lillian will be performing alongside seventeen-year-old Maille Zelko from Franconia who will perform the roles of Dew Drop Fairy, Spanish Soloist, Snowflake in the Snow Scene, and in the Waltz of the Flowers. Eight-year-old Isabella Keller of New Boston will perform as a Polichinelle.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

High doses of vitamin C for treating COVID-19 may benefit some populations, but investigators exploring its potential in aging say key factors in effectiveness include levels of the natural transporter needed to get the vitamin inside cells, according to a report in the journal Aging and Disease. Age, race, gender, as well as expression levels and genetic variations of those vitamin C transporters that make them less efficient, all may be factors in the effectiveness of vitamin C therapy against COVID-19 and other maladies.

Children under age 2 who take antibiotics are at greater risk for childhood-onset asthma, respiratory allergies, eczema, celiac disease, obesity and attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, according to a study published in the journal Mayo Clinic Proceedings. The researchers looked at 14,572 children, 70 percent of whom received at least one antibiotic prescription during their first two years, primarily for respiratory or ear infections.

Vitamin D and Omega-3s bolster health in some active older people. The largest European study on old age, DO-HEALTH, has investigated the effects of these supplements on aging. The study's findings, published in the journal JAMA, suggest that, compared to the control group, some subgroups experienced increased benefits of vitamin D and omega-3 supplementation when it comes to lowering infection rates and systolic blood pressure. Omega-3s reduced the risk of infections by 11% in total, in particular for upper respiratory (10%) and urinary tract infections (62%), while vitamin D lowered systolic blood pressure in men by 2.5 mmHg and the risk of infections in younger participants (70 to 74-year-old) by 16%.

Publisher's Perspective

America's Greatest Democrat

Statues of Thomas Jefferson are being removed from some State Houses because he was a slave owner, which supposedly negates all his other accomplishments. How absurd.

Thomas Jefferson was a very remarkable man who started learning very early in life and never stopped. At 5, began studying under his cousin's tutor. At 9, studied Latin, Greek and French. At 14, studied classical literature and additional languages. At 16, entered the College of William and Mary. He could write in Greek with one hand while writing the same in Latin with the other.

At 19, studied Law for 5 years starting under George Wythe. At 23, started his own law practice. At 25, was elected to the Virginia House of Burgesses. At 31, wrote the widely circulated "Summary View of the Rights of British America," and retired from his law practice. At 32, was a Delegate to the Second Continental Congress. At 33, wrote the Declaration of Independence. At 33, took three years to revise Virginia's legal code and wrote a Public Education bill and a statute for Religious Freedom.

At 36, was elected the second Governor of Virginia succeeding Patrick Henry. At 40, served in Congress for two years. At 41, was the American minister to France and negotiated commercial treaties with European nations along with Ben Franklin and John Adams. At 46, served as the first Secretary of State under George Washington.

At 53, served as Vice President and was elected president of the American Philosophical Society. At 55, drafted the Kentucky Resolutions and became the active head of Republican Party. At 57, was elected the third President of the United States. At 60, obtained the Louisiana Purchase doubling the nation's size. At 61, was elected to a second term as President. At 65, retired to Monticello. At 80, helped President Monroe shape the Monroe Doctrine. At 81, almost single-handedly created the University of Virginia and served as its first president. At 83, died on the 50th anniversary of the Signing of the Declaration of Independence along with John Adams.

Thomas Jefferson studied the previous failed attempts at government. His voice from the past can lead us in the future, if we take time to listen. Here is some of what he had to say:

1. "When we get piled upon one another in large cities, as in Europe, we shall become as corrupt as Europe."

2. "The democracy will cease to exist when you take away from those who are willing to work and give to those who would not."

3. "It is incumbent on every generation to pay its own debts as it goes. A principle which if acted on would save one-half the wars of the world."

4. "I predict future happiness for Americans if they can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them."

5. "My reading of history convinces me that most bad government results from too much government."

6. "No free man shall ever be debarred the use of arms."

7. "The strongest reason for the people to retain the right to keep and bear arms is, as a last resort, to protect themselves against tyranny in government."

8. "The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants."

9. "To compel a man to subsidize with his taxes the propagation of ideas which he disbelieves and abhors is sinful and tyrannical."

Jefferson was one of our first, and perhaps the greatest Democrat, but if he said these things today, he would be ostracized from his own party.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We Seniors at Mapleleaf want to give a big, "Thank you," to Farmsteads of N.E., local farms who contributed produce, meat, and milk, and to Bank of N.H. for the grant which made this possible. This past growing season, every Friday afternoon, the Farmsteads of N.E. truck and trailer brought fresh fruits, veggies, meats, and milk to senior living facilities in Hillsboro, Henniker, and Antrim. This really helped us eat healthier meals than we might have been able to afford.

Thank you, Amelia and friends, for your kindness, smiles, and giving suggestions on preparing some veggies we were not too familiar with, even some recipes! Good things happen in our towns and we need to hear about them!

Signed: The Residents of Mapleleaf, Hillsborough

Why you should use a travel agent:

We had a lively debate recently on the merits of whether to use a live travel agent to book your vacation or to go it alone by using the Internet. Here are some of the reasons to consider a personal travel consultant.

1. You've Googled "Mexico vacation," and come up with 17.8 million responses. Need a little help editing those choices?
2. Remember when you used that obscure website to book your hotel, and when you got there you spent your beach vacation overlooking a parking lot?
3. How many hours were you on hold with the airline when your flight was canceled because of a snowstorm?
4. Did you really mean to spend your honeymoon at that resort whose one tiny pool was filled all day with 12 screaming children?
5. Who knew that when you booked that "villa" in Tuscany, it would be a small room with a kitchenette and no air conditioning? Funny, it looked much better on your computer screen.
6. No one explained to you that in July, it's winter time in Rio, and so you showed up there with nothing but five Hawaiian shirts and three pairs of swimming trunks.
7. How about the time you really needed a restful vacation, and you ended up in New Orleans during Mardi Gras and someone threw up on your shoes?
8. Yes, I guess that hotel must have used a telephoto lens when they took a picture of those guest rooms that you saw on their website.
9. I suppose contacting the Attorney General to resolve the fact that that Internet site has billed your credit card three times instead of once is the only route to take at this point.
10. It was definitely odd that there were no cab drivers at the airport at 3 o'clock in the morning when you finally landed in Costa Rica, but booking a transfer to your very remote hotel would have been a good thing to remember when you purchased your airline ticket and hotel online.

Recycled Percussion to perform at The Park Theatre Nov. 20th

JAFFREY, New Hampshire (October 27, 2021) Recycled Percussion will be rocking the new Park Theatre performing arts center in Jaffrey, New Hampshire on Saturday, November 20 at 7:30pm.

Part rock concert and part interactive experience, the four members of Recycled Percussion use buckets, power tools, and anything else they can get their drumsticks on to create a riotous blend of music and comedy. Justin Spencer conceived Recycled Percussion in 1995 as an entry in a high school talent show. They had their first national tour in 2001. That tour helped them catch the eyes of America's Got Talent TV program in 2009, and they won Third place. They have played around the world and have had several long-term contracts at Vegas casinos. They also produced an Emmy-nominated TV show, "Chaos and Kindness" which focuses on giving back to others and making a difference worldwide.

This special concert event is sponsored by Atlas PyroVision Entertainment as a benefit for The Park Theatre and other local nonprofits, including The Jaffrey 250 Jubilee.

Tickets are $30, $35 and $40. They can be purchased at theparktheatre.org or by calling the theatre's box office (603) 532-8888. The theatre is located in downtown Jaffrey at 19 Main Street, just 90 minutes from Boston.

About The Park Theatre: The Park Theatre first opened in Jaffrey in 1922 and was the center of community life as a movie, vaudeville and concert house for 54 years until it closed in 1976. Purchased by The Park Theatre in 2006, it has been completely rebuilt as a state-of-the-art film and performing arts center, featuring two auditoriums seating 410, presenting movies, live theatre, including children's productions, concerts, and lectures as well as offering a place for business and community gatherings for the Monadnock Region and its 100,000 residents, school districts and dynamic artistic community.

The new theatre complex began construction in January 2019, and was completed in 2020, and opened in the summer of 2021.

Looking for a Medicare plan? Try these 3 things to make the most of the process

(BPT) - Enrolling in a Medicare Advantage or prescription drug plan is easier than ever. Check out the below tips to ensure you have a positive and painless experience.

#1: Personalize your enrollment process.

Enrolling in Medicare doesn't have to be difficult. There are services available that can help you choose the right plan for you. For example, Walgreens Find Rx Coverage helps you explore Medicare Advantage and prescription drug plans online by letting you easily access resources to find the right coverage for your needs. You can view eligibility criteria, learn about various plans and enrollment options, and even compare plans that include your specific prescriptions. Don't want to do it all online? You can speak to a licensed insurance agent on the phone or visit select Walgreens to talk to an in-store agent about your Medicare options.

#2: Find and select a plan that saves you money.

Choosing the right Medicare and prescription drug plan is not only important for your healthcare needs, but it can also save you money. If you or a loved one pays high costs for your prescriptions, enrolling in a plan through Walgreens Find Rx Coverage can help you find prescription copays as low as $0 on tier 1 generic drugs when selecting Walgreens as your Preferred Pharmacy. You can also manage your Medicare prescriptions easily, setting up automatic refills and personalizing your prescription delivery options.

#3: Choose a pharmacy you can trust.

There's no doubt that having a pharmacy you can trust provides peace of mind when navigating your healthcare. Whether you're selecting a Medicare and prescription drug plan for yourself or on behalf of someone else, having confidence that you've been shown the best options for both your care and budget goes hand in hand with having a positive overall healthcare experience. Walgreens Find Rx Coverage was created with this in mind and in supporting Walgreens' overall efforts to improve the health of communities across America. Open enrollment for Medicare is Oct. 15 through Dec. 7. Visit Walgreens.com/MedD to shop, compare, select and enroll in a Medicare plan that is right for you and your family.
