Younger Americans will have trouble believing this, but there was once a guy named Walter Cronkite, who would read the news on television every week night. He didn't seem to have an agenda, or try to make anybody look bad, or good. He would just read the news, and then, get this... WE WOULD ALL JUST MAKE UP OUR OWN MINDS ABOUT WHAT WE THOUGHT. He didn't interview smarmy opinionated talking heads, he just read the news, matter of factly, and then he would just sign off and shut up.

Warner's Sean Toomey receives prestigious Ethics Award

Sean Toomey of Warner, the State Fire Marshal of New Hampshire, has been named the recipient of the 26th annual New Hampshire Construction Industry Ethics Award.

The award honors the “individual, business or organization that, through words and deeds, best demonstrates a commitment to upholding the highest ethical standards in construction.” Toomey is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire.

He earned his Master's degree in Fire Protection Engineering from Worcester Polytechnic Institute. He then began employment with SFC Engineering Partnership, Inc., where he worked as a consulting engineer for seven years prior to joining the Concord Fire Department as the Assistant Life Safety Officer in 2005. He served the Concord Fire Department for 13 years and progressed to Deputy Fire Chief. In 2018, he became the Deputy State Fire Marshal, and in June 2021 he was confirmed by the Governor and Executive Council as State Fire Marshal.

Antrim residents suing over Antrim Wind Sound levels

A group of eight Antrim residents have filed suit against the state's Site Evaluation Committee, claiming the committee changed interpretation of the rules around noise limitations on the Antrim Wind project. The petitioners are asking the Merrimack Superior Court to find that the SEC violated state law by failing to adopt rules “that address health and safety impacts.”

The focus of the complaint is how the sound is measured. The wind farm is limited to 38 decibels at any residence in the evening hours.

Antrim Wind Energy has submitted reports to the SEC indicating it is meeting that standard, when the sound is averaged over the course of an hour. The petitioners say the SEC's rules do not allow for readings to be averaged, and there are moments when the sound peaks well above the limit.

The focus of the complaint is how the

A true New Hampshire icon, Jim Gaskell died on June 05, 2022. Many knew Jim, but few knew the amazing path he traveled in his 95 years.

Jim was a WWII veteran and served as clerk to Senator S. Bridges (R) N.H., he also went on to serve as the youngest head clerk for the US Senate for 9 years. Jim taught Social Studies and Geography at Winsted, CT and Concord, N.H. school systems and served as the director of adult education for 3 years; he was a scoutmaster and committee chair of BSA Troop 90 in E. Concord for many years.

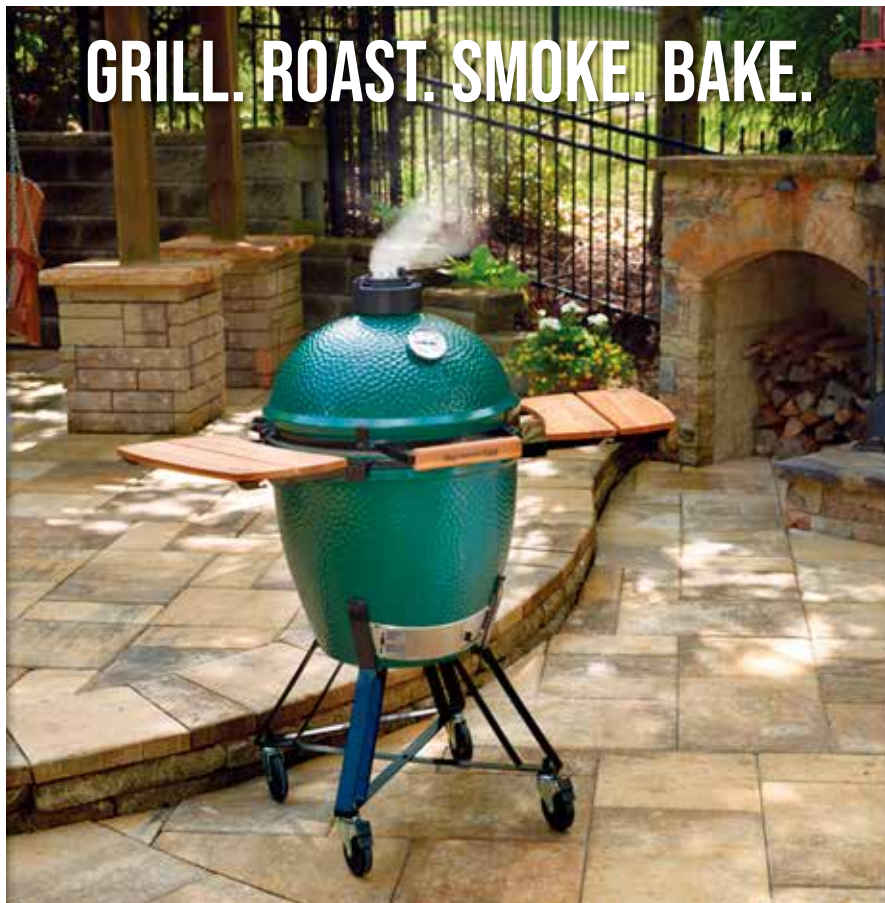

Jim and Gwen were proprietors of Gaskell's General Store in Washington, N.H. for 19 years. Jim was active in the N.H. Republican party, Harmony Lodge #38 F&AM, and was a founding member of the Washington Snow Riders and The Washington Historical Society. Jim enjoyed snowmobiling, gardening, camping, reading, and his dogs, but most of all he enjoyed visiting with his family, all his friends, and sharing stories. See his obituary on page 16.

June 18th from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. This exciting public art event will feature 30+ artists on the Newport Town Common as they begin painting work on a reproduction of one of Newport's treasured Heritage Murals that has fallen into disrepair over the past 25 years. John Stark High School announces 2022 Valedictorian & Salutatorian

The John Stark Regional High School Valedictorian for 2022 is Grace Caplan and Salutatorian is Gracie Bolduc.

Valedictorian Grace Caplan of Henniker has been very active in the John Stark Chapter of Amnesty International during all four years at John Stark. She was also a member of the school's cross-country team for four years, track and field for three years, and the John Stark Chapter of the Leo Club.

"My overwhelming feeling leaving John Stark is just a lot of love and appreciation for the teachers that I had. Each one of them has modeled to me how to be a good person. My teachers have been such a positive input in my life," said Caplan.

Grace's biggest takeaway about Covid's impact on high school? "That would be the time that we spent away from school. The schedule that we had last year (a hybrid of two days in school and three days remote) was sometimes difficult, but the balance of free time where we could shape our own time was so impactful. It showed me how much better school could be designed for the well-being of the students," she concluded.

Grace Caplan is the daughter of Tony and Susan Caplan. She will attend Dartmouth College in the fall.

Gracie Bolduc of Weare is Salutatorian. She is the President of the French Honor Society and Vice President of the National Honor Society and the Leo Club. She played softball and field hockey all four years at John Stark and is the current captain of the varsity softball team and has been captain of the varsity field hockey team for the last two years. She was awarded Most Valuable Player for field hockey in 2021, All-State field hockey player (2019-2021), NH Top 20 Player of the Twin State field hockey team (2022), and All-State softball player (2021).

Gracie is the daughter of David and Carla Bolduc. She will attend Endicott College in the fall to study Biology and Biotechnology. She also committed to playing field hockey at Endicott College.

John Stark Regional High School graduation will be held outside on the football field on Saturday, June 11th, at 10 AM. It is rain or shine, and only moderate to severe weather will move the time to later that day or to Sunday. Ticketed guests only.

Reckless driving leads to three car accident in Bradford

On May 27, 2022 at around 3:00 p.m. the Bradford Police Department, Bradford Fire Department and the Bradford Rescue Squad responded to a motor vehicle accident in front of the Lumber Barn located in Bradford, NH. The accident was a head on collision between two vehicles with a third vehicle sustaining moderate front-end damage. Due to the severity of the crash and injuries to those involved, the Warner Fire Department, Henniker Fire Department, Henniker Ambulance, New London Ambulance and New London Fire Department were also called in to assist. DHART was requested but cancelled.

Through on scene investigation and eye witness statements, it was learned that a 2009 Mitsubishi Lancer being operated by Joseph Tierney of Goffstown was traveling northbound on Route 114 passing another vehicle in a no passing zone when it struck a 2013 Toyota Highlander operated by Stephanie Willett of Bradford head on.

Fortunately, there were no fatalities.

The driver of the vehicle being passed, Steven Boyce of Peterborough, was unable to avoid the collision in front of him and his vehicle, a 2015 Honda Crosstour, sustained moderate front end damage.

Tierney and a juvenile passenger of the other vehicle were both transported for serious, life-threatening injuries. Willett and a second juvenile passenger were taken for treatment. Boyce and his passenger were treated on scene for minor injuries.

The investigation is still ongoing. Speed and reckless driving appear to be a determining factor in the cause of the crash. Anyone with information about this crash is asked to call Chief Edward Shaughnessy at the Bradford Police Department at 603-938-2522.

WHAT IS ORAL PSORIASIS?

Dr. Esin Narli

Most folks think of psoriasis as a skin problem that shows up on spots that everyone can see, like your elbows, knees, and scalp. But symptoms of this disease may happen in places you don't expect, like inside your mouth.

When that occurs, it's called oral psoriasis. It's not a serious medical problem, but it may be uncomfortable. And it can be a struggle to get the right diagnosis. Why? It's so rare that most doctors have never seen it before, and some aren't sure it even exists.

What Are the Symptoms?

It can be hard to tell if you have oral psoriasis. The symptoms are often mild and come and go quickly. And doctors don't even agree on what all the symptoms are. But in general, experts think that while signs can appear in different spots in your mouth, they're most common on the inside of your cheeks.

You might notice patches of red skin with yellow or white edges; sores; peeling skin on the gums; blisters with pus (pustules); pain or burning, especially when eating spicy foods; changes in how things taste. Oral psoriasis may be linked with other conditions, like fissured tongue — grooves or trenches on your tongue; geographic tongue — red patches on your tongue that look like islands on a map; or swollen or infected gums.

People who have oral psoriasis tend to have symptoms on their skin too, such as thick, scaly patches. The symptoms in your mouth will probably get better or worse along with the symptoms on your skin. So if psoriasis symptoms show up in your mouth, you're likely to have skin flare-ups, too.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

According to new research in the Journal of Osteopathic Medicine, some common medications, including widely used blood thinners and hormones, are often derived from animal byproducts and prescribed without consulting the patient about their beliefs. Heparinoids are a class of medication primarily derived from pigs. These drugs are routinely used as a blood thinner to prevent blood clots and are given in many settings, including following surgery, a heart attack, or to prevent the further development of clots. Also common are conjugated estrogens, which may be used to treat moderate to severe hot flashes and other symptoms of menopause. They are equine-derived hormones. Another example: there are no completely animal-free oral thyroid hormones on the market. According to the study many religions discourage the use of products derived from animals when not required to save human life: Jewish and Muslim leaders agree that the use of products derived from pigs — normally prohibited by both religions — are acceptable only when needed to protect human life. The Hindu Council of Australia does not consider bovine products, including medications derived from cows, acceptable. Sikh leaders and leaders of the Hindu Vaishnav sect object to the use of medication or surgical dressing derived from animal sources, which is waived in emergency situations or in routine treatment where no alternative exists. Many Buddhists of the Theravada sect and Christians of the Seventh Day Adventist sect who practice vegetarianism as part of their faith may individually reject animal-derived medical products. Leaders of the Jehovah's Witness sect emphasized that adherents to this faith would reject blood-derived products.

The US Food and Drug Administration has approved Qelbree for the treatment of attention-deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) in patients aged 6 to 17 years, making it the first novel nonstimulant approved for ADHD in a decade. Capsules can be swallowed whole or their contents can be sprinkled onto food.

David Tilley (l) of Henniker recently received the World Affairs Council of NH's Global Leader Award for efforts to build friendships and understanding globally. Special recognition was given for his humanitarian support of the Ukrainian people, Ukrainian refugee relief in Poland, and ongoing friendship building in Belarus and throughout Eastern Europe.

Weare Middle School 7/8th grade social studies teacher Holly Wilson has been selected to receive this year's Mary Susan Leahy Civics Educator Award. The award is given to the NH K-12 educator who excels at teaching civics (content, skills, and attitudes) and who has taken on state-wide leadership in civics education.

Francie Reid, a freshman from Warner, was selected as Kearsarge High School's Student of the Month. Reid participates in the school chorus, the drama program, and Project CLIMB. Outside of school she participates in dance and has a part-time job.

Thousands of speeches were submitted to the Mikva Challenge and one of the 13 selected was Elka Fuller's about food waste in the cafe. Elka, a 7th grader at WMS, and 12 others from across the country were showcased at the Soapbox Nation Mainstage on Tuesday evening, June 7.

Five area Rescue Crews and NH Fish & Game rescue injured hiker

Newbury Fire Rescue was dispatched to a call for an injured hiker on the Monadnock Sunapee Greenway trail, south of Lake Solitude on Mount Sunapee.

The hiker had a cell phone and was able to provide information on his injuries to the responders. It was determined that the best way to reach the party was from the Sun Bowl area of Mount Sunapee. All of the trails to the hiker's location were rocky and narrow and based on the hiker's injuries and distance down the trail that he would have to be carried, additional help would be needed.

New London Dispatch contacted the mutual aid departments and updated the commander on the response status. New Hampshire Fish and Game was notified and sent several officers as well as activating the Upper Valley Wilderness Response Team. The initial rescue teams hiked the trails to the injured hiker's location and provided first aid upon reaching the person. Additional rescuers carrying a Stokes basket reached the location and placed the hiker in the basket to carry him back up the trail to the staging area. The time to get the responders to the patient and to hike out with him was over six hours. The individual was evaluated by the New London Ambulance paramedics and transported to the hospital.

Bennington man charged with DWI

Frank C. Woodward, 73, of Bennington was charged with DWI following a car accident in Wilton June 2nd.

Police reports indicate that Woodward swerved off Forest Road on Route 31 and hit a utility pole which broke in half. Eversource restored power to about 720 customers in the first three minutes and the remaining customers had power restored about three hours later.

The utility pole was later replaced, and the line was re-energized the same day. Woodward was taken to a hospital in Nashua, where he was treated and released. His 2012 Toyota Tacoma was a total loss.

Two Senior speakers at Stark's Graduation

John Stark seniors Isabella Pelletier and Diana Stafford, both of Weare, NH, have been selected as this year's class speakers for graduation by John Stark faculty and staff. There was a tie this year when selecting the student who most embodies the school's vision—a learner who engages their mind in the pursuit of individual academic growth, social awareness, and community involvement with regard, respect, and integrity. Isabella and Diana have chosen to deliver their speech together. Isabella Pelletier is a student representative to the John Stark School District Board, Student Council President, and a member of DECA and Peer Leaders. She is a four-time John Stark Scholar Athlete and was named captain of the John Stark field hockey team in 2021. Diana Stafford has served as President of DECA for three years and is the Public Outreach Officer of the John Stark Chapter of the National Honor Society. She is a member of Peer Leadership, played varsity soccer, and was captain of the varsity softball team.

Sports

The Hopkinton Rotary Club participated in the annual Hoops on Wheels for Granite State Independent Living.

ALL-STATE TEAMS

SOFTBALL

Division II

First Team: John Stark junior Olivia Hargreaves was named D-II's Pitcher of the Year. Hargreaves has handled the bulk of the innings in the circle for the Generals, helping John Stark to a 14-2 record and the No. 3 seed in the D-II tournament.

Division III

First Team: Hopkinton's Maddie Carmichael (senior) and Kyanna Landry (junior).

Second Team: Hillsboro-Deering's Emily Howell (junior).

BASEBALL

Division II

First Team: John Stark's Nate Innerfield (senior) and Anthony Paolicelli (sophomore).

Second Team: John Stark's Jason Crean (senior) and Chase Philibotte (freshman).

Third Team: John Stark's Anthony DeTone (senior).

Division III

First Team: Hopkinton's Armen Laylagian (junior) and Peyton Marshall (senior).

Second Team: Hopkinton's Bryce Charron (senior).

Third Team: Hopkinton's Jack Morrall (senior) and Owen O'Brien (senior), Kearsarge's Nate Taylor (senior) and Eli Gray (sophomore).

DIVISION III GIRLS LACROSSE

Championship Game

No. 2 Hopkinton 13, No. 1 Bow 12: Hopkinton overcame top seed Bow in the championship game, splitting their two meetings. Their third meeting lived up to all the expectations, with the Hawks grabbing the late win.

No. 2 Hopkinton 22, No. 3 Gilford 13: Hopkinton had a six-goal lead at halftime, even after a Gilford momentum swing.

DIVISION III BOYS LACROSSE

No. 2 Hopkinton 10, No. 7 Trinity 7: Trinity opened the game with a goal with 40 seconds left in the first quarter, but the second quarter was all Hopkinton, as the Hawks avenged last year's semifinal loss to the Pioneers. Hopkinton led 4-1 at halftime.

No. 2 Hopkinton 12, No. 3 Plymouth 9: The Hawks took a 10-6 lead, their largest of the game, into the fourth quarter after ending the third on their 5-1 run. Hopkinton will play the winner of the semifinal between top-seeded Campbell and fourth-seeded Laconia in the Division III final on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Bill Ball Stadium in Exeter.

DIVISION I SOFTBALL

No. 1 Concord 4, No. 7 Goffstown 0: Maddy Wachter recorded 10 k's against the quiet Grizzlie bats.

DIVISION II SOFTBALL

No. 7 ConVal 6, No. 2 Merrimack Valley 4: ConVal plated three runs in the top of the first inning, two more in the third and never trailed after that.

No. 3 John Stark 1, No. 6 Hollis-Brookline 0: Diana Stafford had the game's only hit in the bottom of the fifth inning, reaching on a single, stealing second, and advancing the next two bases on pair of fielder's choices for the game's only run.

DIVISION III SOFTBALL

No. 2 Campbell 8, No. 7 Hopkinton 6: The Hawks came back from a 5-1 deficit against defending champions Campbell, but the Cougars scored three runs in the top of the seventh inning to knock out Hopkinton in the quarterfinals.

DIVISION II BASEBALL

No. 2 St. Thomas 5, No. 7 John Stark 4: St. Thomas jumped out to a 3-0 lead after the first inning, but the Generals scored three in the fifth to tie the game, and took a 4-3 in the sixth. The Saints scored two runs on walks to regain the lead to end the rematch of last year's D-II championship game and the defending champion Generals' season in the quarterfinals.

DIVISION III BASEBALL

No. 1 Monadnock 5, No. 8 Hopkinton 2: The Hawks jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the top of the first. The Huskies went up 3-1 in the top of the fourth, but Max Aframe worked a walk and scored on a Yanzo double to make the score 3-2. Hopkinton had a couple more opportunities, but could not find a big hit.

Francestown Recreation Department's Tim Samuelson Memorial Fishing Derby was a great success. Lots of fun was had by young and old! Thank you to the Samuelson family for providing some great prizes.
