Lou D'Allesandro has Retired

The New Hampshire Senate bid a final farewell to one of its longest-serving members on Thursday. It was Sen. Lou D'Allesandro's last day on the senate floor acting in an official capacity, as lawmakers voted on a series of the governor's vetoes. D'Allesandro has served 50 years in state government as a representative, executive councilor and senator.

Senator Dan Innis (L) and Governor Chris Sununu (R) unveil the sign designation for the Bradley Haas Memorial Highway.

Former Franklin Police Chief Honored

A Portion of Route 127 named the Bradley Haas Memorial Highway

A dedication ceremony was held Thursday honoring former Franklin Police Chief Bradley Haas, who was shot and killed last year at New Hampshire Hospital in Concord while working as a security guard.

State Senator Dan Innis (R-Bradford) sponsored the legislation authorizing the sign marking the Bradley Haas

Memorial Highway. It will be posted on a section of Route 127 from Central Street in Franklin to the Sanbornton town line, a stretch of highway friends said Haas drove nearly every day.

Haas was killed on November 17 at New Hampshire Hospital after a gunman opened fire. He was the Department of Safety corrections officer assigned to the hospital. At the ceremony Thursday, Haas was remembered as community-minded and service-oriented. Before joining the Department of Safety, he served in the Army and the Franklin

Police Department for nearly 30 years, first as a patrol officer and eventually as chief of police.

"He's never really left us, quite frankly," said current Franklin Police Chief David Goldstein. "This is the way to honor the man so that, as the governor said, as people drive down the street, they know they're in the presence of a hero."

During the ceremony, Gov. Chris Sununu said that honors such as this aren't about reliving the tragedy, but instead about honoring the hero.

Operation Christmas makes the season brighter

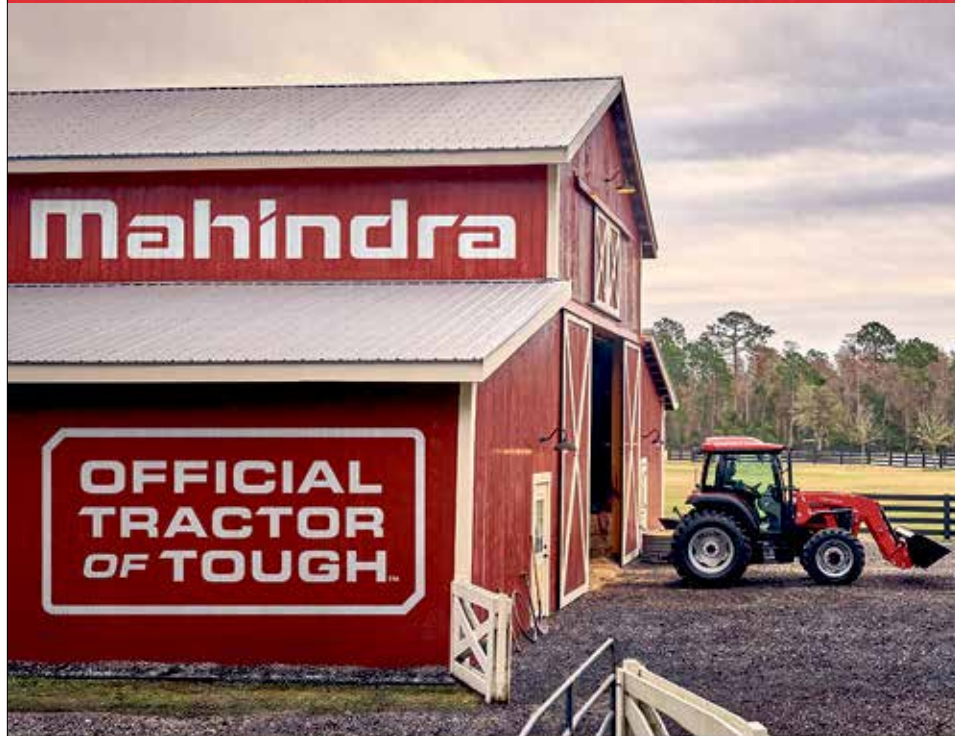

It's that time of year again! The Operation Christmas committee has begun meeting to prepare for Christmas 2024. Last year 66 families with 120 children were helped.

Each year custodial parents fill out applications for their children age 16 and under to receive one toy and one article of clothing for each child. Each gift must be under $50.

These requests are written on "gift tags" which are put out in several locations around Hillsboro for people to take and purchase the items. All items are collected by the committee and checked, then double checked, to make sure they are the right item, the right size, and age appropriate. Parents pick them up before Christmas so that they can be wrapped and placed under the tree to brighten a child's Christmas morning. We are asking that you donate to help us out. Each year, there are gift tags that don't get taken, gift tags that never get returned and families that we learn about at the last minute. Money donated to Operation Christmas is used to make sure no approved applicant goes without. Please contact us at hillsborooperationchristmas@yahoo.com if you have questions or ideas.

Hometown Heroes

As part of Fire Prevention Week, Sunapee Fire spent the morning with students from Mount Royal Academy, discussing fire safety & prevention, how smoke detectors work, how some of the tools are used, and what to do in the event of an emergency.

The Weare Police Department, Cpl. Muise, Ofc. Maguire, Ofc. Brophy and Ofc. Averill, are currently raising money for the Child Advocacy Center (CAC) with their Blue for Bucks fundraiser. With your help, we can ensure the CAC is available when a child needs one and help them build a foundation for healing.

Welcome Weare's newest full-time firefighter/EMT, Scott Sanborn. He is 19 years old and he graduated two years ago. He has lived in town his whole life and is excited to be working in the community.

Newbury salutes Hometown Heroes who saved a distressed swimmer

Newbury Police Chief Brad Wheeler said he would like to recognize a few people from his department and the New London Dispatch Center. On July 19th of this year, approximately 7:23 in the evening, Officer Clark and Officer Stone heard a medical tone go off for a swimmer in distress on Lake Sunapee, in the area of The Fells.

The officers immediately headed to the town dock. They observed a boat and asked to jump in with the occupants and be transported to the scene of the swimmer.

The owners, Heather and Lee Minich allowed the officers to jump on their boat and they proceeded to the scene.

The New London Dispatch kept the responding units up to date with the swimmer's condition and location, all while assisting all the other responding units in getting to where they needed to be at that time.

Officer Stone first entered the water and began chest compressions on the victim. Officer Clark then entered the water as well, and the officers were able to get the swimmer conscious again.

The Newbury Fire Department arrived on their boat and provided additional help. The victim was placed on the backboard and transported to Newbury Harbor where the New London Ambulance was waiting. The victim did spend some time in the hospital, but he was expected to make a full recovery, if he has not already done so.

Chief Wheeler stated that New London Dispatch deals with police, fire, and New London Ambulance, and that they often may have one dispatcher trying to relay all this information to three totally different entities. The chief said that the dispatcher on duty was Greg Barthol. He asked Greg to come up to receive a letter of commendation for his part for relaying all the information and making sure everybody got to where they needed to be.

He then asked Heather Cole and Lee Minnich to come up to receive the Newbury Police Department Citizen Award for their assistance in this rescue.

Last but certainly not least, the chief presented officers Clark and Stone the Notorious Service Award for their life-saving efforts.

Chief Wheeler then introduced the distressed swimmer, Steve Gunnerson, a resident of South Sutton. He read a letter of appreciation to the outstanding officers, and concluded by saying, "It was through your gracious acts that I am here, and I humbly say, thank you."

Weare man arrested for DWI after his truck rolls over

The operator of a pickup that rolled over Saturday night on Route 101 in Raymond has been charged with driving impaired.

At approximately 6:30 p.m. on Friday, October 11, 2024, State Troopers assigned to the Troop A barracks responded to a rollover crash on Route 101 eastbound in Raymond, between exits four and three, involving a pickup truck.

Troopers arrived and found the driver of the pickup, identified as James Miller, 41, of Weare, had suffered serious but non-life-threatening injuries in the crash. Miller, who was the sole occupant, was transported by EMS from the scene to Elliot Hospital for treatment.

The preliminary investigation determined that the pickup truck left the road, entered the median and rolled over. The impact separated the cab from the vehicle's chassis. Troopers were assisted at the scene by members of the Raymond Police Department, Raymond Fire Department, Candia Fire Rescue, and the Auburn Fire Department.

Traffic in the area of the crash was impacted for approximately an hour and a half until the pickup and debris were removed from the median.

While the crash remains under investigation, impairment is believed to have been a contributing factor and Miller has been charged with driving under the influence and a solid line violation.

No inspection sticker leads to drug bust

On September 15th, Henniker Officer Cole Bannister stopped a vehicle on Bradford Road for Non Inspection. In the course of his investigation Officer Bannister observed a drug smoking device hanging out of the driver's pocket.

Officer Bannister was able to confirm there was burnt narcotics in the smoking device and the operator was arrested.

Subsequently, the vehicle was seized pending a search warrant. The warrant was granted and the vehicle was searched. A powdered like substance and crystal like substance were located and believed to be a controlled drug.

The operator was subsequently charged with Possession of a Controlled Drug with Intent to Distribute and Possession of a Controlled Drug.

The driver was fortunate to survive with non-life-threatening injuries.

New London's Tracy Library Garden selected for Special Library Service Contribution Award

The New Hampshire Library Trustees Association (NHLTA) Board of Directors has chosen the Garden at Tracy Library as this year's winner of their Special Library Service Contribution Award. This award recognizes a group who have given outstanding service to New Hampshire public libraries. The Garden at Tracy Library is a separate 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. All funds come from private and business donations.

Designed by the famous Olmsted Brothers Landscape Architects in the 1920s on the property of the Tracy Memorial Library in the town of New London, New Hampshire, the Garden has been restored and maintained to the original plans by a group of over 30 volunteer gardeners under the direction of a master gardener. Their mission is to maintain and preserve the restored historic garden for the education and enjoyment of the community and public.

For over a decade, volunteer gardeners plan and maintain the plantings, historic signage and fountain, as well as sponsor educational programming. Earth friendly enrichment and composting are part of this organization's sustainability practices. The Garden website is rich with information on the Garden, New London's Hidden Gem, and its activities, volunteer opportunities and a visual tour. <https://gardenattracy.org/>. The NHLTA Award will be presented to Garden President Judy Odell and the volunteers at their annual appreciation luncheon on October 28. The Tracy Memorial Board of Trustees is proud that the Garden was selected for this recognition. Richard Tutwiler, the new Director of Tracy Library, notes that "The dedication of this organization and its contribution in providing an environment of beauty, and in enriching the education and pleasure of our library patrons and the public, is too great to measure."

New Boston Select Board continues planning the 2025 town budget

New Boston Town Administrator Carl Weber updated the Select Board on the budget. The budget is still at 5% with some changes made. Changes were made to the proposed Library budget leading to it being approximately $25,000 higher than the 5%. Also, the heating oil bid was finalized.

Staff considered that lawn maintenance could be done using the Town's equipment and were able to lower some budget amounts based on the bids that came in for assessing. Regarding the budget for gasoline and diesel, prices have continued to drop. This led to a net result of a budget that was $73 lower than when originally presented to the Board, but still holding steady at 5%. The Departments have continued to work to find creative ways to reduce the budget line items.

Regarding the proposed Warrant Articles, the proposed Highway Department purchase for a 10 wheel dump truck from Capital Reserve Funds increased by $5,000 due to inflation.

Staff continues to work with the CIP Committee to determine inflationary factors for various types of vehicles. Highway vehicles are currently approximately at 6% inflation per year and fire trucks are approximately 15%-20%. The intention is to make sure that the additional 6% inflation will not lead to any tax impact. Also, there was a request for an additional $2,200 for Meals on Wheels based on the actual meals provided. There are also proposed Warrant Articles for the Deaf Exemption and the Electrical Storage System Exemption, each of which has no estimated dollar impact.

Currently, the proposed taxable Warrant Articles total approximately $17,634,128 more than last year or about 1.95%.

Three injured in Peterborough accident

On October 13th, at approximately 5:35 p.m. Peterborough Fire & Rescue and Peterborough Police were dispatched to Rt. 101 at Rt. 123 (Elm Hill Road) and Old Street Road for a reported three vehicle accident.

Upon arrival, a third ambulance was requested. In total, three patients were transported to area hospitals for further evaluation.

Minor detours and road closures occurred due to the incident. Steven's Towing & Recovery recovered two vehicles and Gauthier Auto Service recovered one vehicle.

HAVE YOU TALKED TO YOUR DENTIST ABOUT MENOPAUSE? PART II

Why should you be talking to your dentist about menopause?

Maintaining optimal oral health is a lifelong priority, but women experiencing menopause need to be aware of how this life stage can impact their oral health and needs.

Dentists and dental hygienists are an untapped wealth of information when it comes to learning about the oral health problems women may face at menopause and how to navigate them.

What can you do to protect your oral health during menopause?

There are a number of ways to protect your oral health during menopause, including:

- Maintain good oral hygiene by following the rule of 2-1-2: Brush twice a day, floss once a day and visit your dentist twice a year.
- Stay hydrated by drinking enough water throughout the day and talk to your doctor if you experience dry mouth.
- Eat a balanced diet rich in vitamins and minerals, especially vitamin D and calcium, which support strong teeth and bones. Limit sugary and acidic foods that can contribute to tooth decay.
- Pay attention to bone health, as it can also affect jawbone density.
- Exercise regularly to support overall and heart health, which are also linked to oral health.

Talk to your dentist about menopausal oral health concerns for personalized information and recommendations.

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

BY SARAH CHAPIN

Acetaminophen is considered the safest over-the-counter pain reliever and fever reducer available during pregnancy. Studies have shown that 50%-65% of women in North America and Europe take acetaminophen during pregnancy. A new study reported in the journal Pediatric Research found that acetaminophen use in the second and third trimesters of pregnancy led to modest but significant delays in early language development.

On the positive side, a recent study published in Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA) found that acetaminophen (Tylenol) use during pregnancy did not increase children's risk of autism, ADHD, and intellectual disability.

New research published in Neuropsychopharmacology Reports now indicates that taking probiotics plus vitamin D supplements may improve cognitive function in individuals with schizophrenia.

A new study published in the journal Diabetes demonstrates that liraglutide, a glucagon-like peptide-1 receptor (GLP-1R) agonist, and a member of a class of medication used to treat Type 2 diabetes and obesity, can lead to a rapid improvement in insulin sensitivity. Insulin sensitivity is how responsive cells are to insulin, an essential hormone that controls blood glucose levels. An increase in insulin sensitivity means insulin can more effectively lower the blood glucose. Reduced insulin sensitivity or insulin resistance is a feature of Type 2 diabetes. Thus, improved insulin sensitivity can reduce the risk of developing Type 2 diabetes or improve its treatment. GLP-1R agonists are medications that influence metabolism, such as decreasing blood sugar levels by promoting insulin secretion.

Opinion/Editorial

By: Thomas Carroll, Hillsborough

This election is our chance to change course. Here is just a glimpse of how we are being governed on a national level:

Uncontrolled illegal immigration where drug trafficking, sexual exploitation of women and children, chaos and violent crime totally corrupt a process intended to benefit both immigrants and U.S. citizens.

Intentional pursuit of policies which drive the cost of everything skyward compounded by uncontrolled spending achieving record financial deficits on both a national and state level.

Encouraging confusion of sexual identity in underage children while shutting out parental guidance and fast-tracking gender modifications.

Turning our law and justice system against the American public based on ideological or political differences rather than ensuring equal application of law and order.

Attempts to eliminate political rivals by use of courts to keep rival candidates off ballots (Kennedy, West, Stein) and enabling illegal voting all in the name of democracy.

Pressuring social and news media to censor information that is factually correct but contrary to the desired political narrative (Covid 19, Hunter Biden laptop).

AWOL leadership where government agencies prove incompetent to perform their jobs and have no accountability.

Those in public office who enable the above policies lack the political will or the understanding to change course. This applies to the highest office in America as well as positions down ballot.

The democrat Congress has not shown they can put the priorities of the people they represent before their party ideology.

It is time for America to self-correct the current course away from practices intent on destroying our moral character and republic.

Letter to the Editor

New London Police Chief, Chief Cobb:

I am writing to express my thanks and gratitude to the men and women who responded to the tragic car accident that occurred outside our home this past Sunday morning October 6, 2024.

Every person at this scene exhibited a calm courage and professionalism in a dangerous and tragic situation. However, I want to recognize and thank Officer Brett McKenney in particular.

Immediately upon arrival at the scene and without hesitation, he ran from his vehicle to the car that was then fully engulfed in flames. At great personal risk, he extricated a person and proceeded to attempt further access into the vehicle despite the clear danger of explosion and possible personal harm.

On my arrival Officer McKenney calmly gave me instructions as he did also to an Officer from the Sunapee Police who had arrived on the scene. In the following hours as the State Police teams arrived Officer McKenney and Lieutenant Keith touched base with me to make sure I was okay and keep me informed. Even more remarkable was a personal visit to our home last night by Officer McKenney, "just checking in to see how you are doing." That visit with his sincere concern for our well-being was beyond what one could ever expect.

Words cannot adequately express our appreciation, gratitude and respect for your team, New London Fire and EMS, and the New Hampshire State Police. If it is possible we will be grateful if you could share this recognition and appreciation to each and all who were involved.

Henniker Aglow includes Tree Lighting & Holiday Light Parade

Saturday, December 14 (rain date December 15) the Henniker Community School PTA will host the annual Tree Lighting (formerly Light Up Henniker, now Henniker Aglow) at the John Lyons Center at NEC.

Activities begin at 4:00 p.m. with games, hot chocolate, popcorn, s'mores station ($2) and toy, coat and food drives. At 4:30 the HCS Chorus will perform, followed by Santa's arrival by fire engine and the newest addition to the festivities – a parade of lighted vehicles!

At approximately 5:00 p.m. following the parade, we will light all the trees! There will be pictures with Santa throughout the evening.

Ways to get involved:
Enter the tree decorating contest!! This year's event is open to all families, organizations and businesses and there is no charge for entry!

Participate in the lighted vehicle parade!! Dress up your car or truck with lights and/or your favorite holiday decorations and show us what you've got!

For rules and information regarding this year's tree decorating contest or the lighted vehicle parade, visit the Henniker PTA Facebook page or email Courtney.portillo@sau24.org

Sponsor the event!! Whether you are bringing a tree, riding in the lighted vehicle parade or can't make it to the event at all, you can still help support this incredible celebration of community by becoming a sponsor! Sponsors will be included in all event materials and listed on the PTA website.

Donations are tax deductible. To donate, please send checks made payable to the Henniker PTA (write "lights" in the memo line) to:

Henniker Community School PTA
51 Western Ave.
Henniker, NH 03242.

Please contact Courtney Portillo, PTA (719-694-4268, Courtney.portillo@sau24.org) with any questions and to RSVP no later than November 15, 2024. Early RSVPs greatly appreciated for planning purposes!

We look forward to this wonderful community event – the more involvement we get, the more magical it will be for all of our Henniker students. Please join the fun and help us make this year's event the best yet!

Sports

Hillsboro-Deering 40, Newfound 0:

Robert King had only five carries for the Hillsboro-Deering football team on Saturday, but four of those carries went for touchdowns in a 144-yard rushing game as the Hillcats blanked Newfound 40-0.

ConVal 52, Hollis-Brookline 8: Elliot Featherstone had three touchdown runs of 59, 43 and 5 yards as Cougars took control from the opening whistle.

Kennett 31, Bow 28: The Falcons dropped their second straight game on the road.

John Stark 34, Hanover 9: Weston Haartz scored three touchdowns, two of them in the first half, to lead the Generals to a 21-0 lead at halftime.

Raymond 39, Franklin 0: The first-place Rams shut out the Tornadoes, taking an early lead with a pair of touchdowns.

BOYS SOCCER

Hopkinton 1, Mascoma 1: The Hawks and Royals drew even in a battle between two undefeated teams. Both teams had shots hit the crossbar, while both goalies made great saves.

Hopkinton 3, Kearsarge 1: Hopkinton midfielder Noah Aframe's throw-in acumen is thanks to his basketball skills, and he dished out two alley-oop-like throws to assist jumping strikers in the box leading to the Hawks' 3-1 boys' soccer win over Kearsarge.

Bow 3, Hollis-Brookline 0: Carter Weiss scored off an assist from Ethan Anderson in the 54th minute, Anderson scored on a penalty kick in the 60th and headed home a Cam Fuchs free kick to wrap up the scoring.

ConVal 4, Kingswood 2: Down 2-0 in the first period, ConVal took control and scored the last 4 goals.

GIRLS SOCCER

Trinity 4, Hillsboro-Deering 0: Auger, Greene and Smith did a good job limiting Trinity's chances, but the Pioneers still came out on top.

Bow 3, ConVal 2: ConVal scored 5:30 into the game, but Bow tied it three minutes later on a through ball from Tarsa to Van Dyke, who beat the defense to the ball and calmly put her shot into the corner. The Cougars scored with about a minute to go in the first half to go up 2-1, and held on.

Hollis-Brookline 4, Bow 1: Defending champions Hollis led 1-0 at halftime but pulled away in the second half. Ashley Wallen scored a beautiful goal from distance with 14 minutes left in the game, which cut the Cavaliers' lead to 3-1.

John Stark 4, Keene 0: John Stark's Madi Lamothe led the Generals with 3 goals.

Raymond 2, Hopkinton 1: The Hawks scored within the first 45 seconds of the match, but missed a penalty kick at the end of the first half and the Rams came back from behind to earn the win.

Kearsarge 6, Mascoma 1: After an opening 10 minutes of both teams struggling to control play, Carly Grant took control, offensively scoring three goals in the next 14 minutes.

FIELD HOCKEY

Oyster River 2, John Stark 1: The Generals fell behind early against the Bobcats, who are tied for first place in Division II.

Hopkinton 8, Winnisquam 2: Autumn Meier tallied 4 of the Hawks' 8 goals.

John Stark 1, Pelham 0: Addie DeCew scored the lone goal off an Adie Bolduc assist.

Vote Dan Innis

to keep more of your paycheck.

Republican Senator Dan Innis has felt the sting of inflation and the burden of higher property taxes too. That's why he supported historic state investments in public schools and local aid. Dan understands costs are too high, especially for childcare, healthcare, energy and housing. He believes it's never been more important to hold the line on spending and bring down taxes.

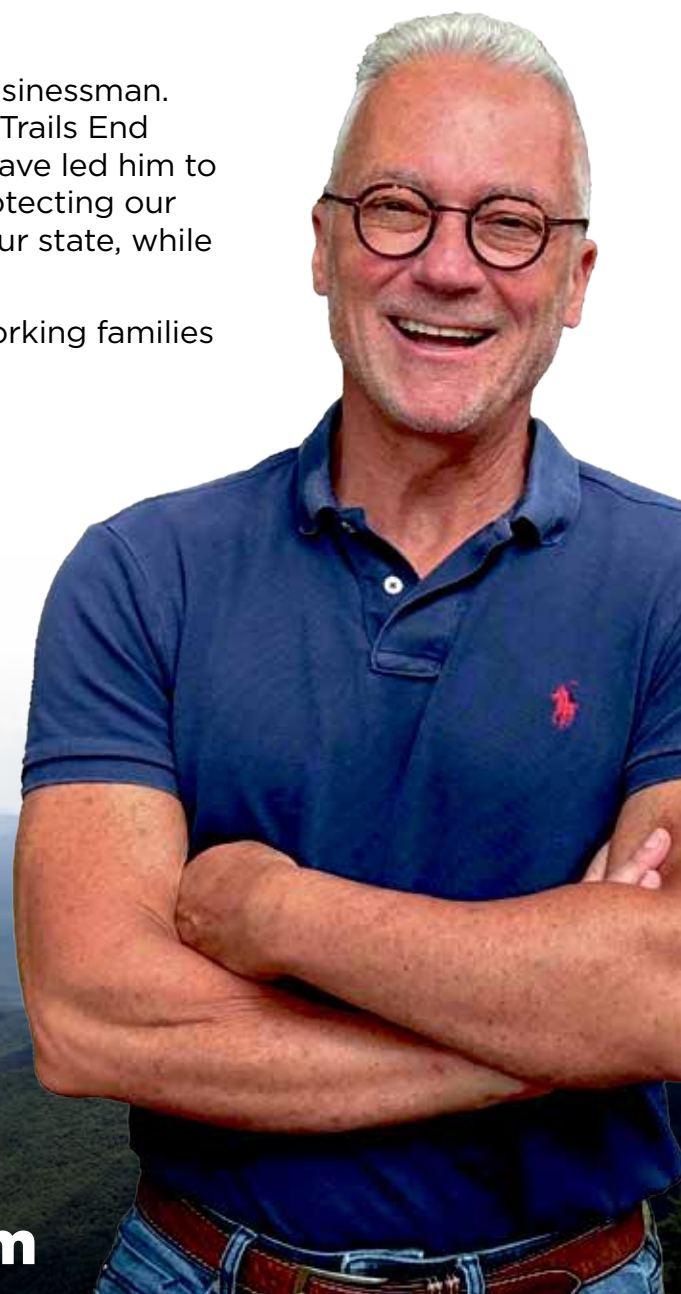

Rural New Hampshire Values

Senator Dan Innis is a Professor of Marketing at UNH and successful small businessman. Dan co-founded two inns and a hotel here in NH, and is the current owner of Trails End Farm (the former Battles Farm) in Bradford. His experience and knowledge have led him to become one of the state's leaders at keeping NH's economy strong, while protecting our Granite State way of life. His focus is on bringing more good paying jobs to our state, while keeping your taxes low with a fiscally responsible government.

As a father of three and an educator, Dan understands the challenges that working families are facing. He will continue to fight for:

- Better education: strong public schools and as well as expanding our success school choice program for low income families
- Safer Communities: keeping dangerous criminals and illicit drugs like fentanyl off our streets
- Protect our rights: keeping our Constitutional rights safe
- Lowering costs: fighting against tax increases and working to lower health care costs, especially out of pocket costs of prescription drugs
- More affordable housing: Encouraging the building of more housing to lower costs for everyone

- ★ 100% Score - Granite State Taxpayers
- ★ Signed the Coalition of NH Taxpayers Pledge - *No Sales or Income Tax

If you are silent about your beliefs because you are worried someone will be offended, then your beliefs are not that important to you, but rather what people think about you is. When you stand up for what's right and true, you will receive both hate and love, but everyone will know what you are fighting for.
